John McPhee Sr. and Catherine MacDonald are my 5-great grandparents, through their son John Jr. This report is not intended to be a complete history of the McPhee's (there are 190 McPhee's in Hants County in the 1871 census!), rather to supply information freely on the internet that may be useful to younger generations trying to connect their McPhee families back to Hants County. The major source used is "Duncanson, John Victor. 1989. Rawdon and Douglas: Two Loyalist Townships in Nova Scotia. Mika Publishing Co., Belleville, Ont." In addition, the late Linda McPhee of Unionville and Petrolia, ON, and Beulah Wright of River John, NS, have both provided me with considerable further information on this family.

James McPhee, also of Douglas Township, Hants County, was thought to be a son of John McPhee Sr., but DNA has proved this is not the case. The late Alice Mombourquette has written an extensive genealogy on the family of James McPhee, available through the Genealogical Association of Nova Scotia, but I have not accessed this source. I include a brief sketch of the family of James and Nancy McPhee as Appendix 1, page 67.

William "Black Bill" McPhee arrived in Nova Scotia in 1802 and lived in the Nine Mile River area (part of Douglas Township), where he was granted land in 1807. His wife was Jennet McMillan and they had a family of seven; their children overlap in ages with many of John McPhee Sr.'s grandchildren. I have included some of the descendants of this William McPhee as Appendix 2, beginning page 79.

Corrections or additions are always welcome!

First Generation

1. John MacPhee. Born on 2 May 1725 in Glen Urquhart, Easter Bunloth, Inverness, Scotland. John died in Douglas Township, Hants Co., NS, on 12 Jan 1811; he was 85. Buried in Nine Mile River, N.S. Occupation: Soldier, Farmer. Residence: Boston (1775).

John MacPhee is entered in Duncanson's Rawdon and Douglas. His children as described here are from that source, with the exception of James.¹⁰

"Whittier's notes show that John MacPhee of the 84th Regt. received a share of the Regimental lands granted to Col. John Small in trust for the officers, men and families of the 2nd Battalion, 84th Regt.; two of his sons also received their share of the regimental lands for service in the battalion.; on 2 Nov. 1808 John MacPhee Sr., 's land petition referred to his birth in Scotland and reported that he had arrived in Boston in 1775 where he and his two sons enlisted in the Royal Highland Emigrant Regiment (84th Regt., after 1779); the Craig Index of the 2nd battalion lists John MacPhee Sr. in the 7th Company and he is also shown in the same Company in the final muster of the battalion at Fort Edward, Windsor, Nova Scotia in Oct. 1783; (Logan, p. 132) Private John MacPhee Sr. was enlisted in the Regt. (2nd Battalion) on 27 Nov. 1776 by the battalion commander Major John Small and in the same muster roll with the father were Privates James MacPhee and John MacPhee Jr. All three of the MacPhee men were enlisted on the same date by Major Small and the muster roll of Capt. Alexander Campbell's Company dated 21 Jan. 1778 at Halifax, NS.

"When John MacPhee Sr. made his land petition in 1808 he stated that he had occupied his Hants County lands for a period of 20 years; by 1808 he had given his lands to his children; the Commissioners Report of 1800 reported John MacPhee Srs.'s 250 acres as assigned and that they were already settled on and improved by one Evan MacKay, "a very industrious man who was encouraged to settle on it by the government." Whittier's notes refer to another son of John MacPhee Sr. named Hugh, but the descendants of John Sr. do not place this Hugh MacPhee in John Sr.'s family."

Dan Griffin, of Belle River, ON, sent Beulah Wright in 1998 an old family document handed down in his family about the early MacPhees, as follows:

"John MacPhee was born May 2 1725. He married Catherine MacDonald, they had at least seven children. The family emigrated to the USA in 1775. John and two of his sons joined the 87th Regiment. At the end of the war they were granted land in Douglas, now called Nine Miler River, this was in 1783.

However, it has been shown by DNA testing that descendants of John are not related to descendants of James. Hence that is another line of McPhee's in the same area as the families of John Sr.

From Ross Graves, 1973, in MacPhee, Earle Douglas, THE MYTHOLOGY, TRADITIONS and HISTORY OF MacDUBHSITH — MacDUFFIE CLAN, VOLUME 3, NEW LANDS OF OUR FATHERS – PIONEERS PART 1

The progenitor of the McPhees/MacPhees of Hants County was John McPhee, born May 2, 1725, died January 12, 1811. In 1772 he and his wife, Catherine McDonald, were living on the farm of Easter Bunloit, in Glen Urquhart, Inverness-shire, Scotland. Three years later they emigrated with their family to Boston, Massachusetts. John and two of his sons enlisted in the British forces at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, in the 2nd battalion of the 84th regiment, the Royal Highland Emigrants - a regiment composed mainly of Scottish immigrants to the colonies. At the conclusion of the war the three were granted land in the Nine Mile River area of Hants County, part of a large tract set apart for soldiers of the 2nd battalion and their families.

So many of John's male descendants remained in the Nine Mile River area, or settled in the adjoining communities of Upper Rawdon and West Gore, and bore the same Christian names, that nicknames became essential to distinguish between them. The different John McPhees, for example -- grandsons of the immigrant, and their sons and grandsons were distinguished as Piper John, John Piper, Archie's John, John Archie, Evan's John, Little John, Big John, Post Office John, John at the Bridge, and Johnny yes-yes. Four James McPhees were Captain Jim, Cab Jim, Back Settlement Jim, and One-arm Jim; eight Donald McPhees were Shoemaker Donald, Archie's Donald, Long Donald, Tobacco Donald, Donald Buck, Lane Dan, Red Dan, and Yankee Dan.

About 1803 a William McPhee (#29120) followed John and Catherine from Glen Urquhart to Hants County; he may have been a nephew to John. At William's death in 1844 he was aged 82 or 87, giving possible birthdates of 1757 and 1762. He married Janet MacMillan (1760- 1832), settled in the Nine Mile River area, and had Alexander, William (c. 1794), Donald (c. 1799), Duncan (c. 1802), Catherine, and perhaps others. He was nicknamed "Black Bill: to distinguish him from his (apparent) cousin, John's son "Tailor Billy".

John married Catherine McDonald. Born on 2 Jun 1734 in Glen Urquhart, Scotland.

Second Generation

Family of John McPhee (1) & Catherine McDonald

2. Evan McPhee (John'). Born on 2 May 1760 in Inverness, Scotland. Residence: Nine Mile River.

His name does not appear in the Craig Index for the 2nd Battalion, 84th Regt., however in 1816 he received 500 acres in Douglas Township as his entitlement to the regimental lands of the 84th Regt. The Commissioners Report of 1800 states that Evan McPhee's 300 acres (lot 9E) at Nine Mile River had been obtained by purchases from grantees of Col. Small, which may refer to a gift from his father, John Sr.; Evan McPhee's family consisted of 6 in 1800 when he was living on Lot 8G; also listed for Evan were 500 acres Lot 9G at Nine Mile River obtained from grantees of Col. Small; he had occupied the lands since 1788 - there was a house and barn and the stock included 9 cattle, 1 horse and 6 sheep.¹⁰

On 5 Jul 1789 when Evan was 29, he married Catherine (Katy) Grant, daughter of Alexander Grant (1729-) & Margaret, in Kennetcook, NS. Born on 6 Apr 1770.

John McPhee Jr. served in the 10th Company, 2nd Battalion, 84th Regt.; his age at 10 years when enlisted in the regiment no doubt indicates that he served as a drummer at the beginning; there is no record of his receiving a share of the regimental lands but on 22 June 1786 John MacPhee, a former private of the 84th Regt. purchased two parcels of 100 acres each on Nine Mile River from Alexander McGregor, "late piper" in the 2nd Battalion for 30 shillings, the others listed in the deed with Piper McGregor were: Duncan McLaughlan, William Forbes, James Frazier and Donald Cameron, an infant; in the Commissioners Report of 1800 there were 300 acres (Lot 5C) listed at Nine Mile River for John McPhee Jr., he had a family of 5 and had occupied the land since 1791; it had been obtained from grantees of Col. Small; there was a house and barn with stock of 5 cattle and 4 sheep, 18 acres had been cleared; on 17 Aug. 1819 Archibald and John McPhee, sons of John McPhee Jr. petitioned jointly for land, they had not received land grants from the government; they now wished to establish their families and asked for 400 acres of wilderness land in Hants or Halifax Counties; Whittier reports that Archibald received 200 acres and John 300 acres in the draft grant of 1819.¹⁰

On 16 Aug 1791 when John (Jr.) was 26, he married Anne (Nancy) Scott, daughter of Archibald Scott (1758-29 May 1823) & Jane. Born on 2 May 1772 in Glengarry, Invernesshire, Scotland. Anne (Nancy) died in Nova Scotia. Residence: Nova Scotia (1790).

“Mrs. Peter Tulloch. There passed away at Elmsdale, on Tuesday May 15th, one of the most highly respected citizens of that community in the person of Mrs. Peter Tulloch aged 77 years.

Deceased was formerly Miss Sara Dill of Centre Rawdon. She was twice married; her first husband being the late James Fraser of the Gore who passed away about 20 years ago. Her second husband the late Peter Tulloch predeceased her over two years ago. Four children, one daughter and three sons by her first husband, survive. They are Frances, Mrs George Wright, Joseph, James and George Fraser. Two sisters are left to mourn, Mrs John B Wallace of West Gore, recently moved to Vancouver, and Mrs Simm in Waverley, Mass.

There are few people who enjoyed more the universal love and respect of her family and friends than did the deceased lady. She was a woman of exceptional strength of character, a Christian woman in the truest sense.

The passing of Mrs. Tulloch will leave in the hearts of her children a blank, which nothing can fill and she will be greatly mourned by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was largely attended.”

endeared to all. Leaving to mourn their loss are one daughter and two sons, Hazel (Mrs. John Goff) of Milford, Harding L. of Truro, and Keith at home. Another daughter, Florence, wife of Gordon D. Casey of Halifax, predeceased her a year and one-half ago. She is also survived by one brother George Fraser of Elmsdale, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild. On 18 Nov 1888 when Frances Ann was 23, she married George Davenport Wright², son of William Oliver Wright (16 Oct 1831-10 Mar 1889) & Beulah Elizabeth Long (7 Nov 1825-21 Dec 1902), in West Gore, Hants Co., NS. Born on 19 Mar 1866 in Clementsvale, Annapolis Co., NS. George Davenport died in Elmsdale, Hants Co., NS, on 9 Sep 1931; he was 65. Buried in Elmsdale Cemetery. Occupation: Carpenter, Farmer, Justice of the Peace. Religion: Baptist - United Church Of Canada. Residence: Weston, MA (At Time Of Marriage); Elmsdale (Belnan), NS.

George was born in Clementsvale, and grew up there (nicknamed “Port” Wright). As a very young man, however, he displeased his father by leaving a gate open and letting some cattle go free. His father had a bad temper and was a hard disciplinarian, so George packed his things, kissed his mother goodbye and left for the USA. He worked there for several years, mostly on farms. It was there that he met and courted his future wife, Fanny Fraser, also from Nova Scotia, who was working there also. When they decided to be married, they came back to be married in Fanny's church in West Gore. The first winter, they spent with George's parents in Clementsvale. His father quite approved of his new daughter-in-law, as she was a baptist and a liberal! In the spring, they went back to Fanny's home, to be near her mother. He bought a farm from Adams, and while Fanny stayed with her mother, George went back to the USA - Maine - to make enough money to pay for the farm. He built a new house on the property, when he came back, and he cleared the land. The barn - one of the tallest around - he built when his youngest son was about four years old. He also worked for many years in a grocery store, first in Oldham, then in Elmsdale, owned by Evan Thompson. He was a valued employee, as he had a very keen memory, and was quick at arithmetic. As his family grew he often travelled on the train to Halifax, where he worked on many of the buildings there, including the Nova Scotian Hotel and St. Matthews Church, as a building foreman. At one time, he was given the job of building highway bridges, in the county. He was made Justice of the Peace, and his law books and legal documents were still in his desk, when a fire destroyed the home, many years after his death. He was still a fairly young man, when after working too long in the rain, he took a serious inflammation, and infection of the prostate gland. He was operated on, but the poison had spread and he died. He had worked hard all his life to support his family in an affluent style. He was interested in politics, and worked diligently for his party, had a strong community spirit and was much involved with the church and other community affairs, a highly respected man. As a young man, in his home area, he was known as Port Wright, rather than George, from his second name Davenport. He was always a fearless man, ready to tackle anything. As a boy, one night he had been visiting his uncle, and as the evening wore on, the grown ups had been telling ghost stories. It was late and dark, when little Port started for home, thinking about the tales he had been told. Suddenly in the dark field, he spied something large and white and he immediately decided it must be one of those ghosts. Instead of doing the usual thing - running for his life - Port decided to attack the ghost! He made for the white shape and was going to hit it with a stick, when the ghostly appearing shape leaped to its feet and ran away -- an old white horse! In later years his home was known as a place where a hungry traveller could find a meal or a bed for the night. He was always ready to help a neighbour and although he was far from his own relatives and saw them seldom, he was always good to Fanny's relatives and made them his own (contributed by Beulah Wright).

Appendix 1.

1. James McPhee. Born in 1758 in Inverness-shire, Scotland. James died in Nine Mile River, NS, on 13 Feb 1842; he was 84.

From J. V. Duncanson, in Rawdon and Douglas, "Corporal James MacPhee had been serving in the Newfoundland detachment in 1783. When this detachment was enroute to the battalion headquarters in Windsor, NS the ship was caught in a violent storm and carried off course as far as the Island of Antigua in the West Indies where they were obliged to remain until repairs could be made. Corporal James MacPhee's discharge certificate has survived and is on file at the Public Archives as Halifax, NS. It shows his discharge date as 10 April 1784 with his place of birth as Inverness-shire and his age at 24 years.

Duncanson had placed James as a son of John, but this is incorrect. DNA testing has shown that descendants of John are not related to descendants of James. Alice (McPhee) Mombourquette, a descendant of James, has written an extensive genealogy on the descendants of James.

"James McPhee b.c.1758 (son of Donald?) d. 13 Feb. 1842 married Nine Mile River area Nova Scotia Canada 9th July 1789 to Nancy (Ann) maiden name unknown, possibly Benjamin. James was a Cpl in 84th Regt. 2nd Battalion (original name of regt. was Royal Highland Emigrant Regiment) and received land grants in the Douglas Township Nova Scotia, where Nine Mile River is located. My family has James enrollment and demobilization papers (original copies still in family hands). James' sister Catherine from Glengarry Ontario Canada married a Mr. McDonald. Note there are other McPhee's living in Glengarry. I have an original letter dated 8th Sept. 1813 from Catherine MacPhee alias MacDonald from Glengarry Ontario addressed to her brother James McPhee b. 1758 Kilmuir? Easter Bunloit? Easter Buntait? Inverness-shire. I understand it is near the Lord Lovat Frasers and Glen Affric Chisholms and Beaulieu. In this letter Catherine received a present from her brother (I assume a letter) from Mr. Kenneth Chisholm in Glengarry. She talks about the USA/Canada war of 1812-1813 and her family, two daughters married Katie and Jenny, eldest son Hugh is married and next eldest? son Donald is at Quebec (all in 1813). Catherine asks about her cousin Peggy and does she have any more children other than Donald (I assume lives in Nine Mile River Hants Co. Nova Scotia Canada) Catherine states nephew Hugh and his wife living with her. There is no mention of Husband nor his name. As James McPhee born Scotland Nov. 3, 1758 and came to N.S. 1775/1776 via New York, Boston, Halifax and 84th Regt it would seem Catherine born in Scotland."

James b.c.1758 was always thought to be son of John McPhee b. 2 May 1725 and both came from Easter Bunloit, Inverness-shire, Scotland via Boston/New York, USA and Nova Scotia, serving in Newfoundland detachment of the 84th. James son, William McPhee b. 1st March 1809, married 19th March 1839 Martha Sutherland of Pictou/Scotland. William and Martha lived with James until his death then moved to Stewiacke East (previously known as Lower Stewiacke Colchester County Nova Scotia Canada). William McPhee's son William Ross McPhee b. June 23, 1847 died 1918 age 71, married Mary Maude Daniel(s) b. Oct. 22, 1853 died 1939.

On 9 Jul 1789 when James was 31, he married Nancy Benjamin. Born on 25 Dec 1773 in Douglas, Hants Co., NS. Nancy died in 1818; she was 44.

McPHEE Peacefully, at home in Petrolia, surrounded by her family's love, on Thursday, December 30, 2004. Linda Diane McPhee (nee Graham), 58 years. Beloved wife of Gordon McPhee. Linda was born in Petrolia and after enjoying many family moves associated with Gord's work to Sarnia, Texas, Edmonton, Dartmouth and Unionville, was happy to retire in 2001 to Petrolia, where she became actively involved in the Town's Heritage Committee and a local book club. Linda was a devoted Mom and enthusiastic high school history teacher. Hers was a happy busy life filled with many interests – reading, genealogy, crossword puzzles and summers spent at their Ipperwash cottage.

Researching grandfather a way to get to know him, by Devan C. Tasa, Humboldt Journal, Nov. 11, 2018.

Heidi Phillips never knew her grandfather. Researching his life during the First World War became a way for her to get to know him better. Clinton Alexander McPhee, born on Dec. 1, 1894 at MacPhee's Corner in Nova Scotia's Hants County, died before Phillips was born. "I always grew up knowing my grandfather fought at Vimy Ridge but it wasn't until the 100th anniversary of World War I that I started getting really interested in it and realizing this was part of my history and I needed to do research on it," said Phillips, who teaches at Humboldt Collegiate Institute. McPhee enlisted March 31, 1916, when he was 21 years old. He was a private in the No. 4 platoon in the 193rd Battalion, which in turn was part of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade. On Oct. 12, 1916, they headed to Halifax and boarded the SS Olympic to England. When they arrived, the brigade was broken up to reinforce other units. McPhee joined the 25th Battalion and went to France. Phillips said she doesn't have a lot of details on what he did during the war. "Mom said he didn't talk about the war much, that once he got home, that was it. He just wanted to carry on with his life." One thing the family did know is he was at Battle of Vimy Ridge, which took place April 9, 1917 to April 12, 1917. Later that year, in August, McPhee had a gunshot wound to his right shoulder in Aug. 1917. A piece of the bullet remained in his body for the rest of his life. He went back to England to heal. In June 1918, he would receive a shrapnel wound to his head. For the rest of his life he suffered from headaches and ringing in his ears. McPhee would spend a total of six months in the hospital. Due to the fact the war was over and his injuries, McPhee was honourably discharged. He returned to Canada Dec. 12, 1918. Phillips said when she started to research her grandfather's war record, she talked to her family. Her brother had some research of his own. Then she looked on Archive Canada's online records to find out more. She spoke at her school's Remembrance Day ceremony about her grandfather in 2016. After that, she took a trip with Humboldt Independent Travel Club to England and France for the 100th anniversary of Vimy Ridge. She was there April 9 for the major ceremony. "It was very powerful. It was very moving,” she said. “To be standing on the exact soil my grandfather had stood on 100 years before, it was very special to me.” Phillips then spoke about her experiences for the Humboldt Legion’s Remembrance Day ceremony in 2017. After the war, McPhee moved east to farm near Tisdale. “He came from train to Melfort and then walked to Tisdale,” he said. “His original land grant was east of Tisdale in the Salopian district but it was under water so he obtained another one, which was a few miles east of Tisdale.” He became a member of the school board. One of his duties was to guide new teachers to their home. One such teacher, Edna Loucks, became his wife and Phillips’ grandmother. They had seven children, the youngest of which was Phillips’ mom. Phillips herself is the youngest child in her family. McPhee died Dec. 28, 1978 at the age of 85. “I used to hear about how he was such a gentle man, so kind, would never hurt anything, very kind to animals,” Phillips said. “It’s interesting to think that this young man went off to fight in war, saw what he saw, did what he had to do for his country and then just lived out the rest of his life on a small farm near Tisdale, raising his children, knowing what he had witness but never talking about it.” It’s something that makes Phillips appreciate all of the soldiers who fought and died for their country. “Remembrance Day has always been special to me but being able to go to Vimy and being able to research my grandfather and to see some of his actual possessions has made it even more important for me to remember, for my family to remember and for Canada to remember.”

Appendix 2.

1. William “Black Bill” McPhee. Born in Scotland. William “Black Bill” died on 9 Dec 1844.

From Ross Graves, “About 1803 a William McPhee followed John and Catherine from Glen Urquhart to Hants County; he may have been a nephew to John. At William's death in 1844 he was aged 82 or 87, giving possible birthdates of 1757 and 1762. He married Janet Janet MacMillian (1760- 1832), settled In the Nine Mile River area, and had Alexander, William (c. 1794). Donald (c. 1799), Duncan (c. 1802), Catherine, and perhaps others. He was nicknamed "Black Bill: to distinguish him from his (apparent) cousin, John's son "Tailor Billy". William McPhee's nickname came from his hair color.” see #2627.

Two areas of confusion: one, John Duncanson in his extensive history Rawdon and Douglas, two Loyalist Townships in Nova Scotia, 1989 connected this death date to both William "Tailor Bill" McPhee (p. 429) where he wrote that this was probably the William McPhee who died at Douglas...
...and Black Bill p. 431 where he wrote unambiguously "d. 9 Dec. 1844 Douglas, NS (Times). Ross Graves confirmed that the 1844 death is that of Black Bill; he has a clear reference for Tailor Bill in 1854. (Ross Graves). Also, we have a birth year for Tailor Bill (1770); if he died in 1844 he would have been age 74, not the published ages 82 or 87.

The second area of confusion is Black Bill's birth year and this arises from the two different ages published in the five death notices. Two wrote he was age 87 at the time of his death and three wrote that he was age 82. Backdating these ages gives estimated birth year of either 1757 or 1762.

The five published death notices:

The Times, 24 Dec. 1844 issue, a Halifax newspaper, noted he was age 82.

The Morning Post, another Halifax newspaper, noted he was 87.

The Guardian of Dec. 20th another Halifax paper, noted he was 87.

The Novascotian gave his age as 82.

Christian Messenger, a Baptist newspaper but had death notices of all denominations: 82.

From Duncanson, “In 1807 William McPhee petitioned for land and stated that he had arrived in Nova Scotia from Scotland about 1802; he had a family of seven children, the eldest of which was of age; when he made his petition he was living on a rented farm in Douglas Township; he requested 500 acres of wilderness land at the north side of No. 2 east of Nine Mile River District or where it may be found vacant adjoining the Douglas grant; the notation on the petition indicated that he was to be accommodated with the same proportion of land allotted to emigrants. The research of Mr. Ross Graves shows that this William lived in the Nine Mile River area. He was nicknamed “Black Bill” to distinguish him from others of the same Christian name.”

William “Black Bill” married Jennet McMillan.

They had the following children:

- i. Alexander.
- ii. John. Born in 1791. John died on 20 Nov 1870; he was 79. Buried in Nine Mile River Church Cemetery.
