of Glenmore, Musquodoboit, Halifax, Co., NS.)

Updated Feb. 26, 2018²

This report follows the children of brothers Adam, Robert and David Dickey, who emigrated from New Hampshire to Truro, NS. This update includes considerable more information on the Lower Stewiacke Dickey families, descendants of Adam. The Musquodoboit Dickey's are mostly descended from David. Note: additions/corrections are always welcome!

However, there are other Dickey/Dickie families in the Truro, Stewiacke and Musquodoboit areas, so as Appendices I have included a brief sketch of the family of Thomas Dickey of Musquodoboit (Appendix 1, p. 229) and of Matthew Dickie and Janet Nisbet (Appendix 2, p. 243). Matthew settled in Kings County but two of his grandchildren, Hugh Logan Dickie and Isaac Patton Dickie settled in the Truro area, and there are other Upper Stewiacke connections to this family as well.

I have found that some families have remained true to their original spelling, either Dickey or Dickie, while in others they seem to use both spellings through the generations. I have tried to use that found in the actual records for an individual.

² Information on David and Mary (Boyd) Dickey was found in "David Dickey of New Hampshire, Nova Scotia, and Maine" in the July 2012 edition of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register (vol. 166, pp. 205 - 218) by Ellen J. O'Flaherty, Prof. Emer.

First Generation

1. Adam Dickey. Born in Co. Tyrone, Ulster, N. Ireland. Residence: New England (1718).

DICKEY The Ancient Clan, by Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ

The DICKIES/DICKIES are Saxons of the ancient clan Diagma (Gaelic for Dickey, the followers of Richard). These people lived in the lowlands of Scotland and spoke "Broad Scots", a dialect of English that contains many Teutonic words. In the middle ages, during the Protestant reformation, they became Presbyterians and followers of Calvin, which was quite radical at the time. For their religious beliefs, they suffered persecution from both the Scotch Catholics and the English Anglicans. Several reasons caused our Dickey's to migrate to Northern Ireland but religion was the most important. The emigrants who settled in Ulster about 1612, were from Argyleshire, Scotland. When they arrived in America they were known as the Scots-Irish.

Generations of Dickey/Dickie's

1. Adam of Tapunthank (near Stewarton, Strathclyde, Ayr, Scotland)
2. David Dickie, The Scot of Ayrshire, Strathclyde
3. Son (Most likely named Adam, David, or Robert)
4. David of County Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland
- *5. Adam Dickey, County Tyrone, Ulster arrived in America 1718
6. David Sr. (b.1699 Co.Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland) m. Isabelle McGlaughlin (b.1701) in Londonderry, N.H.
7. Adam, Robert, and David - Grantees of the Township of Truro

Adam Dickey: Our Ancestor from Northern Ireland and Two of His Sons

Adam Dickie left the port of Londonderry in Ulster. Through the years as the Dickey story has been passed from generation to generation, Londonderry became the place of birth/residence, when in fact, the Dickey family was from County Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland and emigrated from the port of Londonderry.

Adam, the grandfather of Adam, Robert, and David Dickey of Nova Scotia, arrived in New England in 1718. Adam Dickie arrived with sons John and David Dickey. It is very possible that there were other children and a wife with Adam when he arrived. It is certainly possible that he also had other grown children who had families that came to America at a later date and Adam may have had brothers and sisters that arrived in America at a later time.

Children:

- i. John. Born in 1698 in Co. Tyrone, Ireland. John died in New Hampshire, in 1779; he was 81. He was around 20 years of age when he arrived in America with his father and brother, David. In 1729 when John was 31, he married Margaret, and they had the following children: Adam; Daniel, born in 1737; Isabel, born in 1739; Robert, born in 1742.
- 2 ii. David (1699-)

Second Generation

----- Family of Adam Dickey (1)

2. David Dickey (Adam!). Born in 1699 in Co. Tyrone, Ulster, N. Ireland. David died in Chester, New Hampshire. Residence: New England (1718).

David Dickey Sr., son of Adam Dickie, was born in County Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland in the year 1699. David Sr. would have been about eighteen or nineteen years of age when he arrived in America with his father and brother/brothers/sisters.

David Dickey, Sr. married Isabell McGlaughlin or McLaughlin, who was born in 1701 in Northern Ireland. Her parents, the McLaughlin's, were also part of the 319 leaving Northern Ireland for America in 1718. David and Isabell were married Feb. 27, 1724 in Londonderry, New Hampshire by the Rev. James McGregor. Isabell's name is spelled McGlaughlin on this document. David Dickie Sr. and Isabell McGlaughlin and some of their family eventually settled in Chester, New Hampshire and David Sr. died there.

Third Generation

Family of David Dickey (2) & Isabelle McGlaughlin

3. Adam Dickey (*David*², *Adam*¹). Born on 25 Nov 1724 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Adam died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 6 Apr 1800; he was 75.

Adam Dickey was among the first settlers of Truro, and was a Grantee of the Township. He built his first house on the north side of the interval road.

In 1751 when Adam was 26, he first married Janet Scovil. Born in New England.

Mr. Scovil, Janet's father lived until he was 116 years old, and walked 30 miles in one day, a week before he died (Miller).

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|-----------|-------|---|
| 9 | i. | Mary (1751-) |
| 10 | ii. | David (18 Oct 1752-Oct 1818) |

| 15 | viii. | Elizabeth (23 Jan 1763-20 Dec 1803) |

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

On 19 Nov 1782 when Adam was 57, he second married Margaret Fulton, daughter of John Fulton (1728-6 Sep 1810) & Sarah Wright (-15 Dec 1799). Born in 1749 in New England. Margaret died on 5 Dec 1825; she was 76.

They had one child:

- 16 i. Sarah Wright (1 Oct 1783-18 Aug 1863)

4. Matthew Dickey (David², Adam¹). Born in 1727 in Londonderry, NH. Matthew died in Londonderry, NH, on 3 Oct 1802; he was 75.

Janet Wallace was the daughter of John Wallace of Antrim Co. Ireland and Londonderry, N.H. and Annis Barnett. Janet died July 12, 1808 at the age of 75. Janet's father came from Antrim, Ireland in 1719/20 and married Annis Barnett on May 18, 1721. They were the first couple to marry in Londonderry, N.H. and had four sons and four daughters.

His gravestone reads:

Erected to the memory of Mr. Matthew Dickey who died Oct. 3 1802 aged 74 years and Mrs Janet Dickey his wife who died July 12 1808 aged 75 years (on the bottom say's) Said Dickey was in the Franch Revolutionary war upwards of 3 years was in 13 hard fought battles + never was wounded nor made prisoner by his enemy.

There is some suggestion that he was the son of David's brother John, and thus cousin to the three Dickey brothers who emigrated to Nova Scotia.

Matthew married Janet Wallace. Born in 1733 in Londonderry, NH. Janet died on 12 Jul 1808; she was 75.

They had the following children:

- i. John (1766-1837). John married Rhoda Varnum. They had the following children: Hannah Whitting, married George W. Patterson, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Wallace Patterson and grandson of Peter Patterson of Antrim Ireland and Grisey Wilson; Matthew (1808- 31 Mar 1812); George Wallace; Sarah, married James Bryce.
- ii. Ebenezer.
- iii. James.
- iv. Samuel (1774-8 Jan 1849). Samuel married Sophia Stark, the daughter of General John Stark. General John Stark was the son of Archibald Stark who was one of the first settlers of Londonderry, N.H. Archibald Stark was also from Londonderry, Ireland. General John Stark married Elizabeth Page, daughter of Captain Page, of Dunbarton. They had a child David W. (1810-19 Nov 1854). He married Sarah A. Campbell. David W. Dickie's widow, Sarah, married second David's cousin, William Dickie. David and Sarah had the following children: Margaret Ann (Oct 1838- 5 Dec 1854); Harrison G. (6 Feb 1841 - 24 Mar 1842); Horace G. (Jul 1843-10 Nov 1855); Robert C.; Frank A.; Myron P.
- v. Sarah.
- vi. Rebecca.

5. Robert Dickey (David², Adam¹). Born on 1 May 1728 in Londonderry, NH.

Robert Dickey was among the first settlers of Truro, and was a Grantee of the Township. His son Robert may have returned to the US.

Robert married Ann/Hannah.

They had the following children:

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

- 19 i. Martha (1761-22 Dec 1848)
 ii. Robert. Born bef 1749.

6. David Dickey (David², Adam¹). Born on 19 May 1730 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. David died in Vassalboro, Maine, aft 10 Jan 1803; he was 72. Grantee of Truro. Residence: Truro, NS 1761; Vassalboro, Maine, 1771.

In the fall of 1759, brothers Adam, Robert, and David Dickie II were among the first 20 men who sailed up the Bay of Fundy from New England, to Truro and Onslow, to make preparations for a settlement. They had been in Nova Scotia prior to this, and led by Colonel Alexander McNutt, assisted the British in driving out the French settlers. After erecting small houses in and around Truro, they returned to New England to spend the winter. In May of 1760 they returned to Nova Scotia with their families. The earliest Truro grant was a tract of land comprising a hundred thousand acres. The number of shares or rights was to be 200, each share to consist of 500 acres, and each grantee to have one share, to be divided into one or more lots to each share or right as agreed upon by the major part of the grantees.

The conditions were that each grantee "shall bind himself to plant within ten years, two acres with hemp, and to keep up the same or plant a like number of acres during succeeding years; and that the grantees shall come to their lands before the 30th of September, 1760." The grantees, all except Deborah Hayward, widow, are described as yeomen, and all are said to be from the Province of Massachusetts Bay.

These settlers endured a considerable amount of hardship for the first few years. In the fall of 1760, all of the women except one, returned to New England to spend the winter. When they returned in the spring of 1761 a large number of settlers came with them as the enthusiasm for migrating to Nova Scotia continued through the New England coastal towns and many of the inland areas. Special inducements were offered to immigrants, such as free transportation to Nova Scotia, grants of cleared land, and aid in the first year of settlement in other areas of this Providence.

When Adam, Robert and David II went to Nova Scotia, they took with them; cattle, farming implements, household utensils, seed corn and seed potatoes for the first year of planting. As part of the conditions for land, not only did they have to supply all their own equipment, seeds, household equipment etc.; but it was a requirement to clear and work three acres for every fifty, drain three acres of marsh, keep three cattle and six hogs until three acres for every fifty were cleared and improved.

If the land was not fit for cultivation, they had three years to build a dwelling house 26 feet by 16 feet and to stock it with three cattle and six hogs for every fifty acres. By 1765 there were about 53 families (about 120 people) in Truro. It was in this year that they obtained a grant from the government for the township of Truro. Adam, Robert, and David Dickie II were among the first grantee's of Truro. This grant is displayed in the Colchester Historical Society in Truro, Nova Scotia. Adam Dickie had one and three quarter rights, Robert Dickie had one right, and David Dickie II had one and a half rights.

Most of the grantees of Truro were descendants of the 319 who left Northern Ireland for New England. The early settlers of New England intermarried with in this Scotch/Irish group and this tradition carried on in Nova Scotia .

The first census of Truro, Nova Scotia (1770) shows the following;

- (1) Robert DICKIE, wife, son, and daughter. All four protestant and all four Irish Stock.
- (2) Adam DICKIE, wife, 3 sons, 2 daughters over 16 years of age, 3 daughters under 16 years of age. All protestant, Adam- Irish, the others American.
- (3) David DICKIE, wife, 2 sons, 1 daughter. All protestant and all Irish American. (Note: the children would have been David III, either Eleazer or Samuel, and Mary. If Samuel had died young, then it makes sense that Eleazer was in Truro. If Samuel had not died by 1770, then it leaves open the possibility that Eleazer had not come to Truro and was left behind in Londonderry - see O'Flaherty, reference below).

The names of some of the first settlers of Truro and the Musquodoboit Valley were DICKIE, Archibald, Taylor, Fisher, Blair, Whidden, Anderson, Miller, Morrison, Kennedy, McNutt, Logan, McKeen, Moor(e), MacDougall, Dunbrack, Cruickshank, MacDonald, Boyd, and MacINNES.

Not only were they early settlers of Truro and the Musquodoboit Valley, but most had families who were among the group that arrived in 1718 from Northern Ireland. Another group of early settlers in the Musquodoboit Valley had been in North Carolina from the Scottish Highlands. These families intermarried for generations and these family names are still prevalent in Nova Scotia today.

David Dickey II had six different parcels of land in Truro. One of these parcels like many others was approximately 100 yards wide and approximately 1 1/2 miles long. It ran from the Salmon River to the top of the hill overlooking the Salmon River Valley. On this parcel is the old Dickie house, which is still occupied by Dickies today. David would graze his sheep on another parcel of land that ran alongside the Salmon River. This parcel began at the fork in the river and ran southward. It was recorded that his sheep had one hole bored through both ears. This was done with a hot iron.

As the town of Truro grew, David moved out of town and settled a few miles east of Truro on the old Halifax Road on the south side of the Stewiacke River.

(Flo Dickey notes)

From Miller, "David Dickey (brother of Adam) was another of the first settlers of Truro, and a Grantee of the Township. He was married before he came to Nova Scotia. David and Samuel, twin sons of David and Mary Dickey, were born in Truro, April 29th, 1763. Samuel died when he was young."

The article "David Dickey of New Hampshire, Nova Scotia, and Maine" in the July 2012 edition of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register (vol. 166, pp. 205 - 218) by Ellen J. O'Flaherty, Prof. Emer., picks up the story of David after he removed from Truro to Vassalboro, Maine in 1771. The details of his other children, except David III, come from that resource.

In 1760 when David was 29, he married Mary Boyd, daughter of Samuel Boyd³, in New Hampshire. Born in 1735 in Topsfield, Mass.

Baptized in Topsfield, Massachusetts 27 July 1735, daughter of Samuel and Margaret Boyd.

³ Five children of Samuel and Margaret Boyd were baptized in Topsfield, Mass.: Eleazer on 11 March 1722, Ann, John and Samuel on 16 Dec 1733, and Mary on 27 July 1735 (Topsfield Vital Records).

Eleazer Boyd was confirmed as a grantee of the "New Addition" to New Boston, New Hampshire in 1752. He had "gone to war" at the time of the 1756 New Boston census and in the same year he made his will. He left "onto my well beloved brother John Boyd and my sister Mary Boyd all my estate both real and personal". His estate was probated in 1761. Shortly after, David and Mary Dickey of Londonderry sold to John Boyd "land lying in New Boston, late the property of Eleazer Boyd, late of Londonderry deceased and left by the said Eleazer Boyd in his last will and testament unto the abovesaid Mary Dickey."

O'Flaherty, Ellen J. 2012. NEHGR 166, pp. 205 - 218.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

They had the following children:

- i. Eleazer Boyd. Born on 22 Mar 1761 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Eleazer Boyd died in Monroe, Waldo Co., ME, on 8 Jun 1853; he was 92. Buried in Mount Solitude Cemetery, Monroe, ME.

From his obituary - "Another Revolutionary Veteran Gone - In Monroe, on the 8th inst., died Eleazer B. Dickey, aged ninety three years and three months. The service which Mr. Dickey, in his vigorous youth rendered to his country, as well as the merits of his character in after life, demand more than casual notice. There are passing few left who in dying, will leave a similar record of the actions in the times when our infant colonies were struggling for a national existence. Mr. Dickey was born in Londonderry, N.H. (the town from which the original settlers of Belfast came) in 1760. In 1773 he removed to Vassalborough. In the year 1778 he voluntarily enlisted himself under the banners of his country, at a period when her fortunes seemed the darkest. In the army he did three years and nine months service, much of it under the immediate command of WASHINGTON. He was in many important engagements. It was a melancholy duty assigned to him to assist at the execution of MAJOR ANDRE, Oct. 2nd, 1780. In 1805, Mr. Dickey removed to the town of Monroe, where he resided till the day of his death, respected for the part he had taken in "the times that tried men's souls", as for his excellent qualities as a man and citizen. His descendants are very numerous, and nearly all of them reside in the County of Waldo. There have been 14 grandchildren, 110 grandchildren, 145 great-grandchildren and two great great grandchildren. Mr. D. was always a democrat, and voted for every candidate of his political faith from Washington down to the election before the last. He was unable to go to the polls to vote for President Pierce. We are happy to add that all his descendants to the present day are sound republicans. Mary, consort of Mr. D., died May 9 1852, aged 86 years. (Republican Journal, Belfast, Maine, June 24, 1853).

Eleazer Boyd married Mary Hamblin. Born on 17 Nov 1767 in Barnstable, Mass. Mary died in Monroe, Waldo Co., ME, on 9 May 1852; she was 84.

- 20 ii. d/o Timothy and Mary (Hallett) Hamblin.
- iii. David (Twin) (29 Apr 1763-Nov 1852)
- iv. Samuel (Twin). Born on 29 Apr 1763 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS. Samuel died in Died Young.
- iv. Mary. Born in 1769 in Truro, Nova Scotia. Mary died on 11 Sep 1846; she was 77. Buried in East Vassalboro Methodist Cemetery.

On 30 Oct 1792 when Mary was 23, she married Thomas Burgess in Vassalboro, Maine. Born on 26 Jan 1772. Thomas died on 18 Sep 1845; he was 73.

Son of Benjamin Burgess (b. 1 Nov 1732, Yarmouth, Barnstable Co, MA, s/o Samuel Burgess and Elizabeth Burgess) and Rebecca Parker.

- v. Sarah. Born ca 1776 in New England. Sarah died in Monroe, Waldo Co., ME, on 7 Jan 1837; she was 61.

On 27 May 1796 when Sarah was 20, she married Abraham Burrill Jr. in Vassalboro, Maine. Born on 5 Jul 1774. Abraham died on 19 May 1830; he was 55.

- vi. s/o Abraham and Hanah (Cushing) Burrill
- William. Born ca 1779. William died aft 1860; he was 81.

On 26 Nov 1800 when William was 21, he first married Susannah Crowell in

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Vassalboro, Maine. Born on 3 Feb 1783 in Yarmouth, Barnstable, Mass., d/o Oliver and Lucy (Elridge) Crowell.

William second married Sarah Reynolds, d/o of Daniel and Thankful (Haskell) Reynolds and widow of Gideon Braley.

- vii. Elizabeth. Born bef 1785.

The widowed Elizabeth returned to Vassalboro, where she appeared in the 1830 Vassalboro census living alone near Mary and Thomas Burgess, her sister and brother-in-law.

On 1 Jan 1801 when Elizabeth was 16, she married Elisha Barlow in China, ME. Born on 13 Jun 1778 in Sandwich, Mass., s/o Obed and Elizabeth (Barlow) Barlow. Elisha died in Newport, RI, on 1 Sep 1828; he was 50. Occupation: Mariner, Rhode Island.

- viii. John. John died on 12 Mar 1815. Occupation: Saddling And Harness Making. Residence: Vassalboro, Maine.

John Dickey enlisted in the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia during the War of 1812, serving in the 31st Massachusetts infantry regiment under Lieutenant Colonel Jacob Ulmer. He died in the service on 12 March 1815. On 29 Sep 1818 the widow Margaret Dickey was granted legal guardianship of her three minor children preparatory for applying for a pension on their behalf. The children were placed on the pension roll on 12 Oct. 1818.

On 27 Apr 1804 John married Margaret Horne in Vassalboro, Maine. Born ca 1783 in Dover, Stafford Co., NH., d/o William and Elizabeth (Roberts) Horne. Margaret died on 23 Dec 1842; she was 59. Buried in Cross Hill Cemetery, Vassalboro.

- ix. Robert. Born in 1775. Occupation: Housewright. Residence: 1860 US Census, Union, ME.

On 18 Jan 1806 when Robert was 31, he married Polly Simmons in Hope, Maine. Born in Hope, Lincoln Co., ME, d/o Peleg and Sarah (Meservey) Simmons.

7. Margaret Dickey (David², Adam¹).

Margaret married John Taylor, son of Matthew Taylor (1690-22 Jan 1770) & Janet Wilson. Born on 22 Sep 1721. John died aft Jan 1770; he was 48.

They had the following children:

- i. Matthew. He married Miss Little. They had the following children: Sarah, Joseph, John, James, Oliver.
- ii. James.
- iii. John. He married Janet McKeen. They had the following children: Anne, Margaret, John, Daniel, Samuel.
- iv. Janet. She married Capt. John McKeen. Capt. John died in 1807. They had the following children: James (Lawyer, New York City), John, Joseph, Robert, Samuel, Sarah, Janet.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

v. Nancy.
Nancy married William McKeen. William died in 1824. Residence: Windham, NH.

8. Agnes Dickey (David², Adam¹).

Agnes married Charles McKay in New Hampshire. Residence: NS (1760), New Hampshire (1765).

Agnes Dickey, another sister of Adam, Robert, and David II, married Charles MacKay. They were married prior to going to Nova Scotia. However, Charles and Agnes returned to New England sometime after 1765. Charles left his lands in Truro undisposed of and others took possession of them.

Charles MacKay served from April 28 to November 30, 1760 with Capt. Alexander McNutt at Fort Cumberland.

Agnes Dickey and Charles MacKay had three children prior to going to Nova Scotia in 1760. While in Truro two of their sons were born;

1. John MacKay was born in Truro on 1-31-1763
2. David MacKay was born in Truro on 4-25-1765.

Fourth Generation

Family of Adam Dickey (3) & Janet Scovil

9. Mary Dickey (Adam³, David Dickie², Adam¹) Born in 1751 in New England.

In 1784 when Mary was 33, she married Thomas Croker. Born in 1751. Thomas died in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS, on 14 Jan 1829; he was 78. Residence: Upper Stewiacke (1784).

Thomas Croker was one of the eight families who first settled in Upper Stewiacke in 1784. They had three sons and five daughters (Miller).

Thomas Croker had two sons, Wm. and John, and two daus., Margaret (md. Daniel Fraser), Rebecca (md. J. Whidden Graham). John had two sons, Thomas (md. Elizabeth Crockett - four sons James, Anthony, John, David), James (md. Sarah Henry - four sons, John, Andrew, Ernest, Thos., two daus. Margaret (Geo. Higgins), Ida (Putnam Fisher)) (Creelman, Upper Stewiacke Centenary).¹

They had one child:

12. James Dickey (Adam³, David², Adam¹), son of Adam Dickey (25 Nov 1724-6 Apr 1800) & Janet Scovil. James died on 22 Aug 1793. Residence: South Branch.

James Dickey settled at the South Branch of Stewiacke. He and William Putnam built the first mill there. On Aug. 22, 1793, Mr. John Johnson came with his grain to the mill; Mr. Dickey left his house, which stood on the west side of the branch, to go to the mill, which was on the east side. His son James, who was about eight or ten years old, went with him; as they were crossing the stream on a raft made of poles, it was supposed that the boy fell into the stream, and the father went in to try and save his son. In a short time after, they were found both drowned. Mr.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

29 Apr 1763 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS. David died in Nov 1852; he was 89. Residence: Musquodoboit, NS.

David Dickey III, a twin of Samuel, was born April 29, 1763 in Truro, Colchester Co., Nova Scotia. He became known as "Yankee Davie" because of his sympathy for the American cause and had relatives fighting in the war in New England (as stated in Miller). Based on the information above (under #6), this likely included his brother Eleazer Boyd Dickey.

David married Ruth Weatherbee, the daughter of Samuel Weatherby and Ruth of Mass. and grantee of Truro, Nova Scotia. They married before 1794 in Nova Scotia. Miller states they had 6 sons and 3 daughters (unnamed).

After living in Truro and Upper Stewaicke, in 1814 David purchased land in the Musquodoboit Valley which became known as Higginsville. This is a beautiful section of land. It has tall pines, raspberry bushes, wild strawberries, oak trees, and a bubbling brook, known as Dickey's brook. You can only find this place by using a topographic map. This homestead was in the Dickey family until the about 1987 when it was sold to a Mr. Higgins (also related to the Dickey Family). It was in 1816 when Ruth Weatherby died.

David married again at the age of 60 in Feb. 1823 to Ann Archibald Kennedy. Ann was the eldest daughter of John Archibald and Alice Moore. She was born in Truro on March 28th, 1772. She was the widow of John Kennedy, and had 5 sons and 2 daughters. With David's children, that was a total of 16 children. They had no children together.

David died at the age of 89 in November 1852. Ann died at her son William's house in Pleasant Valley, Nova Scotia in October 1858 at the age of 86.

{Note: some of the families have been recorded from Bryon Jennings, Families of the Musquodoboit Valley}

David first married Ruth Weatherby, daughter of Samuel Weatherby (15 May 1726-ca 1807) & Ruth Whitney (ca 1732-29 Mar 1831). Born ca 1766 in Westmorland, New Brunswick. Ruth died in Musquodoboit, Halifax Co., NS, in 1816; she was 50.

They had the following children:

From Pirie notes, there is also another son of John Pirie & Jane Campbell: George Pirie b. 1835 Windsor Rd. N.S., d. March 11, 1920 St. John, New Brunswick. Married Martha Dickey, b. 1839 N.S. (no death date). She was the dau. of David Dickey b. 1803, d. Apr. 14, 1870 Stewiacke (s/o David and Martha) & Mary Teas 1808-1901. George Pirie & Martha Dickey were married Jan. 29, 1867 in Lower Stewiacke. Res 1891: Portland, Victoria Ward, St. John, N.B. George's occupation: House Carpenter.

Ch. of George & Martha:

Jessie Perrie (no one seems to know why this spelling) b. Mar. 15, 1868 in Waverley, N.S. d. Dec. 08, 1938 in Quincey, Mass.

David b. Oct. 02, 1869, Windsor, N.S. d. Dec. 1943 (no info on any marriage), 1901 res. St. John, N.B. single.

Harriett b. Mar. 1874, d. Nov. 12, 1941 (no info on where)

Katie b. c1880 N.S., Res. 1891 St. John, N.B. (no death date or place)

Howard b. Feb. 05, 1881 in St John, N.B.

The George Pirie connection suggests her surname might be Teas. In NSHVS son William marriage record, her name is recorded - looks like "Geos" but could be "Teas". Samuel Teas was the second settler in the Stewiacke valley in 1781, after James Kennedy in 1780.

1871 census Lower Stewiacke Dickey Mary 64 (M) Harriet 29 Howard 25 Henry 23 Jane(?) 16 Sydnam(?) M 20
1871 census Lower Stewiacke Dickey Mary 61 Thomas 31 Ephraim 17 Eber 24 Abner 22.

One of these Mary's, likely the second one, is likely Mary (Tupper), wife of Ephraim Dickey (William, Adam). William, Harriet, Henry and Abner are all children of David and Mary (Geos). Thomas (above) was a son of Ephraim. If Ephraim had a son Ephraim Jr. (above), then Abner was living with his cousins. Howard, Jane(?), Sydnam(?), and Ephraim (Jr.) are all thus far unaccounted for.

| 86 | v. | Annie "Laura" (12 Sep 1856-1 Aug 1951) |
| | vi. | Electie. |

Electie Dickey is mentioned as a daughter of Samuel and Hannah Swinburn Kent by Jennie Reid and by Byron Jennings, Musquodoboit Pioneers. Flo Dickey had listed Electie, as md. to a Mr. Todd. A letter from June Mortimer, wife of LeRoy Goff Mortimer, states "Another of the Goff cousins whom Roy knew as Lexie (short for Alexandrina, which was also Roy's Mother's name) married Frank Todd. "Lexie Todd". Her daughter Florence, who married Clarence Tonks, was close to Roy and I all of our years together. She died in 1969, aged 96". However, in the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics, Alexia Shaw, d/o James Shaw and Janet Dickey (d/o Samuel Dickey and Alexandrina MacInnes), md. Francis Hyslop Todd in Halifax, 21 Dec 1871. The dau. Florence Todd was b. 28 Nov. 1872 and Francis H. and Alexia Todd are found in the 1880 census of Malden, MA, with dau. Emma F., ages matching those at marriage. So, Lexie Todd must have been Alexia Shaw rather than Electie Dickey.

Jamie Kerr in his history of the Kerr's and Dickey's only named 5 children of Samuel Dickey and Hannah Kent, no Electie was mentioned. Likewise, S. H. Taylor and M. D. Goff only named 5 in 1951, no Electie.

From the United Church of Canada Bulletin 41-01, Remembrance Day.

With each passing year, fewer are left to remember the wars that the Remembrance day poppies signify. One Nova Scotia family has a unique way of remembering. Their grandfather and great-grandfather, James Howard Tupper, left his wife and four children to serve in the First World War. Before he left he wrote a letter to each of his sons which their mother, Letty, was to give them on their twelfth birthdays. In these letters James shared with his children his love for them, his devotion to his wife and his strong faith in God. "First", he wrote, "be true to your God. Second, be true to yourself. Third, be true to your country."

While he was serving in France, James asked a friend to take a small piece of ivy home to his wife. Letty planted the ivy, which thrived in the rich farm soil of the Annapolis Valley.

In September 1916, James was killed in action. No one can say for sure the influence James had on the succeeding generations. However, each of James and Letty's sons served as ministers in The United Church of Canada, and this legacy has continued as a great-grandson now carries on the tradition. James' presence is also acknowledged as his vine continues to be woven into anniversary corsages and bridal bouquets, and crawls along the walls of family homes.

November 11, 2001

Hello to Colleagues and Friends,

Just a note to let you know that the Mission and Service Fund bulletin for November 11, 2001 has a strong personal connection for me. The back of the bulletin tells the story of a Nova Scotia family who have a special way of remembering. The story is about my great-grandfather who was killed in World War I.

One of the things he did before he died was to pick a slip of ivy vine in a convent garden in France and it made it's way back to my great-grandmother and it has been growing in the family, ever since. We have it growing in our kitchen in Fort Qu'Appelle. The bulletin cover mentions his legacy of faith and love. His two sons became United Church ministers (one being my grandfather) and it says that one great-grandson is a minister as well - that's me! It is a legacy that I am proud of and remembrance has a personal meaning for me. Even though I never knew James H. Tupper, I do feel that he has influenced my life.

If you are worshipping or leading worship in a place that uses the bulletin, I have one request - could you send me a copy! It would be neat to have copies of the cover from

Thanks. And as we worship on this Remembrance Day, may we pray for peace and justice in our world. Paul

77. Miles MacInnes Dickey (Samuel⁵, David⁴, David³, David², Adam¹), son of Samuel Dickey (1797-13 Apr 1872) & Alexanderina MacInnes (8 Aug 1798-1841). Born on 22 Sep 1825 in Glenmore, Musquodoboit, NS. Miles MacInnes died in Wayzata, Minnesota, on 13 Jul 1917; he was 91. Buried in Old Wayzata Cemetery. Residence: MA (1854); MN (1864).

Miles immigrated to Bristol County, Mass. March 31, 1854, and from there to Minnesota around 1864. They lived at Parkers Lake for about 13 years. When their house burned down around 1877, he went to Wisconsin for awhile and tried his hand as a lumberjack. From there he moved his family to Waverly, Minnesota. Another disaster struck, this time locusts. Again, they packed their belongings and moved to Wayzata, this was about 1880. During his traveling around, Miles, his four sons Alexander, Samuel, Andrew, and Eliazer, and his brother in law, David Lydiard did some prospecting in the Dakota Territory. Their claim was the exact location of the famous Deadwood gold strike, but they never "hit it."

Miles was a deeply religious man. Even though there were churches around Wayzata, none seem to satisfy or fulfill his spiritual need for the denomination of his youth, which had a strong self-government and independence. Others felt this way as well and in 1881, Miles and eleven others established the Congregational Church of Wayzata, which he and Eliza Ann were charter members. Miles watched over the church. If the church needed money, Miles would volunteer to raise it from the Minnetonka summer people. Miles served as Sunday School Superintendent, Deacon, and would preach the sermons when the minister was ill or away. Miles took part in every activity involving the church. Miles never missed a Sunday and expected his family to be in the services each Sunday. He was instrumental in building two more churches. One to replace the original church that burned down and the construction of a larger church.

"He was a broad shouldered man and a handsome sight in his cutaway suit, his fancy vest, his big hat and white tie." Thelma Jones, states in her book, "Piety Hill," that after Miles wandered over deserts and mountains like the prophets of old, he found the plot of land for the new church. Miles and his committee composed and submitted for adoption, a Confession of Faith and a Covenant.

On November 16, 1882 Miles Dickey, President of The Wayzata Cemetery Association, signed the document that donated and dedicated Lot number 7, Block 12, of the Town Plat to public use forever.

Being an avid reader, it is no surprise that he was instrumental in starting the town library. He and Miss Alice B. Palmer would borrow books to rent out and raised money to buy new ones and soon the library was established. This library was known as the Wayzata Library and Literary Club.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

He was responsible for blazing a trail from Wayzata to Minneapolis through brush, swamps, hills, and trees. This trail is now the Wayzata Boulevard. He was indeed the "City Father."

When Miles immigrated to Minnesota he not only brought his wife and children, but his wife's parents as well. Miles' brother, Eleazer and his family had migrated to Minnesota around 1844 and settled at the east end of Long Lake. Eventually, his brother Ranald B. Dickey, his brother-in-law David Lydiard and his wife Janet Dunbrack arrived in Minnesota. It was during this time that a great many Nova Scotians (and most of them relatives) immigrated to Minnesota. The Logans, Millers, McCabes, Archibalds, MacDougals, Creelmans, Fishers, MacDonalds, to name a few. Most of these families had been neighbors in Nova Scotia and their families had intermarried for generations. These families remained in touch for another two generations.

Miles hauled barrels from the Long Lake factory to the rail-road for shipment to the mills, he operated a meat market, and served as Wayzata's postmaster. He led the party against the opening of taverns along the shore, he would shake his angry fist at the inn keepers in outrage.

On February 16, 1898 Miles won the bid for building a bridge across the creek flowing from Gleason's Lake into Wayzata's marsh (now Bay Center). A few months later Miles contracted to clear the cemetery grounds for the sum of $34. In October of the new graveyard would be named "The Greenlawn Cemetery."

Miles was a farmer, librarian, Deputy Sheriff and served as Town Clerk. He became a Naturalized Citizen on Feb. 18, 1889.

Miles died July 23, 1917. Eliza died three years later. They were married for 67 years. The minister said of Miles "The whole community will miss his presence and influence and proclaimed him to be one of the choicest spirits that ever came into the acquaintance of his life."

On November 13, 1919 the home of Miles Dickey which was a Wayzata landmark on Lake Street was moved to make way for a Standard Oil filling station. Will Dickey, a son of Miles, became a partner with William Milbert in the real estate and fuel oil business.

On 14 Nov 1847 when Miles MacInnes was 22, he married Eliza Ann Dunbrack, daughter of Alexander Dunbrack (1 Sep 1786-12 Jan 1887) & Isabelle "Belle" Cruickshank (18 Aug 1788-10 Nov 1889). Born on 24 Feb 1828 in Musquodoboit, NS. Eliza Ann died in Wayzata, Minnesota, on 8 Oct 1914; she was 86.

They had the following children:

- i. Alexander Dunbrack. Born on 15 Sep 1848 in Middle Musquodoboit, NS. Alexander Dunbrack died in Long Lake, Minnesota, on 10 Oct 1883; he was 35. Buried in Old Wayzata Cemetery. He was never married.

He lived for awhile in Bristol County, Mass. and moved to Minnesota. He operated a meat market in Long Lake, Minnesota. Alexander died October 10, 1883 at Longlake, Minnesota. Alexander's fiancée, Louell Varner, never married.
- ii. Alexia. Born on 28 Oct 1850 in Musquodoboit, NS. Alexia died in Wayzata, Minnesota, on 10 Sep 1927; she was 76.
On 26 Nov 1874 when Alexia was 24, she married William Bushnell. Born in 1844. William died on 19 Mar 1913; he was 69. Buried in Old Wayzata Cemetery.
- 123 iii. Samuel (10 Oct 1852-27 Apr 1924)
- 124 iv. Eleazer (Lee) Curtis (19 Oct 1854-2 Nov 1928)
- 125 v. Andrew Dunbrack (20 Jan 1857-9 Jul 1938)
- vi. Jennie Laura. Born in 1860 in Musquodoboit, NS. Jennie Laura died in Worthington,

In all writings of Hannah's, also the gravestone of her father Samuel and the naming of her son Miles Dickey, the spelling "Dickey" is used. I have therefore adopted that spelling for at least her father's generation, but thereafter Dickie seems more prevalent, although both can be found.

1891 census Goff Hannah widow 65, Ernest 24, Clifford 23, Power Catherine 23, Marshall Mary 11.

On 5 May 1853 when Hannah Ann was 26, she married William Goff, son of Thomas Goff (14 Jun 1796-23 May 1868) & Eleanor Holland (1800-16 Jun 1865), in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Born on 22 Jul 1823 in Bedford, Nova Scotia. William died in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia, on 11 Feb 1885; he was 61. Buried in St. Johns Anglican Church, Lower Sackville, NS. Occupation: Innkeeper, Carpenter, Farmer, Justice of The Peace. Residence: Bedford, Sackville, Goffs. Religion: Anglican.

William received a land grant of 100 acres in 1846 at Guysboro Road, three years following the land grant of Thomas in 1843 in the same area. He also received grants of 112 acres in 1857 and 90 acres in 1862, and purchased Henry Goff's 100 acres in 1862. The 11-room house built by William on the south side of the Guysborough Road on his original 100 acres was to become home to four generations of Goff's. The village of Goff's, still in existence near the Halifax Airport, is named for these founding fathers and the history of the area has been recorded by Mrs. Noreen Gray and Mrs. Annie Smith in their book, "History Along the Old Guysborough Road". They write, "The Goff's farm is now gone, having become part of the Airline Golf Course. However, this family, in giving their name to the community, will long be remembered."

William and Hannah's home stood at the junction of the road from Enfield (the Oldham Road) and the old Guysboro Road near Kelly Lake. They ran a Stage Coach Inn which was no doubt a welcome sight to travellers when they finished the first part of their journey. The early days of stage coaches in Nova Scotia were described by R.D. Evans in a paper read before the Nova Scotia Historical Society on March 20, 1936 (Collections, NSHS, 1938, Vol. 24). He reports that the semi-weekly Guysborough stage was established in 1861 by a man named Archibald and ran from Halifax to Musquodoboit, Guysborough, St. Mary's, Country Harbour, and Port Mulgrave. The coach set out from Dartmouth, through North Preston, and thence pursued a northerly course through the woods to emerge on the Guysboro Road at the Inn familiarly known as "Goff's", a name which became adopted for the local village and has carried on to the present time.

Archibald secured the mail route in 1862 along the Guysborough Road and including the Eastern Shore and Tangiers, and by 1879, the Goff's Inn had also become the area's post office, which carried on at the same house until 1969. The house later became the home of James Ledwidge but has been left only in memory and pictures. Stories about the old property have appeared at least twice in Halifax newspapers. It was directly opposite to the Goff's school, which was for a period of time used as the community fire hall. A new fire hall and recreation centre has been built on the site of the Goff's school, directly opposite the site of the Goff's home. In 1990, Everill Goff and his sons Murray and Douglas donated a reprint of an original charcoal sketch of William and Hannah Goff to the Goffs Memorial Recreation and Fire Hall, where it now hangs.

William and his family also ran a lath and shingle mill. He was a skilled carpenter and his carpentry work is still in existence in the homes of some of his descendants. William was appointed supervisor of roads, Eastern district, Halifax Co., May 1865, and also acted as a Justice of the Peace in the area.

William Goff declared his birthplace as NS, nationality as Irish and religion as Church of England in the 1871 and 1881 census for Guysborough Road. Hannah declared her birthplace as NS, nationality as Scotch, and religion as Reformed (Wesleyan) Presbyterian. Despite a lifetime together, they were buried apart - William in the Anglican cemetery (St. John's) in Lower Sackville with his parents and siblings, Hannah in the Presbyterian cemetery in Meaghers Grant with her parents and siblings. William and brother Philip are on the same headstone. The inscription reads, "They were pleasant in their lives and in death were not divided." They died 6 weeks apart.

In the 1861 census, William Goff was enumerated with the Truro Road subdistrict, 2 males and 5 females. (Note: Thomas and Philip were in the Wyse's Corner sub-district). In the 1871 census Goff William 47, Hannah 44, Mary 17, Ellen 15, John 13, Alexanderina 11, William 8, Ernest 5, Clifford 3, Mary E 7, and Sarah Ann 4. Mary and Sarah Ann are William's brother Phillip's children. Ellen should be Eliza and William is William Miles Dickey.

In the 1881 census Mary 27, Eliza 24, Alexa 21 (school teacher), Dickie 19, Ernest 15, and Clifford 13 are at home. Only John had left by then. It is interesting that all the children are listed as Scottish and Reformed Presbyterian, like their mother, rather than Irish, like their father.

In addition to their seven children, a girl, Mary Jane Marshall, born in Halifax, Jan. 12, 1880, was raised in the home of Mrs. Hannah Goff. She arrived in the Goff home as a small child in need of parenting and was quickly accepted as one of the family by all the Goff's throughout her lifetime. In 1900, she married Frank MacPherson and had two children, a son, Lorne, and a daughter Jennie. One of Jennie's family, Darrel, was raised by Mary. He was a victim of polio as a youth.

They had the following children:

- i. Mary Eleanor. Born on 24 Feb 1854 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. Mary Eleanor died in Devon, Hfx. Co. Nova Scotia, on 27 Feb 1890; she was 36. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Mary lived at home in Goff's, no doubt with many of the responsibilities which go along with being the eldest sister to a large family, until she was married on Sept. 17, 1888 at age 34 to Alexander J. MacDougall, of Devon, Hfx. Co. Mary's brother Miles Dickey m. Alexander's sister Martha the following day. Mary died in childbirth with their first child, 18 months later.

On 17 Sep 1888 when Mary Eleanor was 34, she married James "Alexander" McDougall, son of Daniel McDougall (11 Apr 1831-1 Aug 1901) & Rachel McMullin (1 Jan 1833-26 Mar 1915). Born in 1856 in Kempt, Hants Co., N.S. James "Alexander" died in Devon, Hfx. Co., N.S., on 15 Nov 1899; he was 43. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Occupation: Farmer, McAlpine Directory, 1890 Goffs, 1896 Antrim. "Death of Alexander McDougall, Guysboro Road. A gloom has been cast over this community by the sudden death of Mr. Alexander McDougall of Guysborough Road, which occurred at his father's home on November 15th. Mr. McDougall had been ailing for some time but his illness was not thought to be serious until Nov. 3rd; he had been to consult his physician the previous evening and on the following day had driven some distance alone and on his return went to his parents home close by his own place; where he was stricken with paralysis. Drs. Densmore of Elmsdale and McLean and Haliday of Shubenacadie were called but all their efforts were unavailing. The remains were interred at Gays River, and 31 carriages containing relatives and other friends followed the body to its last resting place. Rev. A. B. Dickie conducted the funeral service. The deceased was born at Kempt, Hants County, 43 years ago, but removed with his parents when small, quite near his late home. He leaves a wife and one daughter, aged parents and four sisters to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, a devoted son, and a kind brother. This is the fourth time that Mr. and Mrs. McDougall have been called to part with loved ones, two sons and one daughter having died some years ago and now their eldest and last remaining son. The sisters surviving are Mrs. John E. Long of Richibucto, N.B., Mrs. George Slocumb of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Miles D. Goff and Miss Bella McDougall of Guysborough Road. The bereaved ones feel deeply the kindness shown by their neighbours and friends in their affliction, during the painful illness friends were ready to help and sympathize with the family and the many acts of devotion proved the high esteem in which the deceased was held by those who knew him. Mr. A. Gladwin's consideration for all their wishes and his kind and sympathetic manner while performing the duties of Undertaker were appreciated by all the relatives. The pallbearers were James G. Kerr, James McMichael, John McMichael, Edwin Hirtle, Freeman Nelson, Clifford Goff." They had one child: i. Mary Victoria (24 Feb 1890-18 Aug 1960), md. Morris S. Moore.

- ii. Eliza Ann. Born on 18 Oct 1855 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. Eliza Ann died in Milford Station, Nova Scotia, on 15 Dec 1921; she was 66. Buried in Milford Station Cemetery, Hants Co., NS. Residence: Fall River, MA (1880). She was never married. Referred to as "Aunt Lyde", Eliza was never married. She lived in Massachusetts and Rhode Island until her retirement and then came to Milford Station, N.S. where she lived with Flora (Goff) Wardrope, her niece. She died at the Victoria General Hospital in Halifax and is buried in Milford Station. She was remembered as a stern woman of strong moral character.

brother Thomas P. Mortimer was killed the previous day at Portland, Maine. No particulars are given. The late Mr. Mortimer was 53 years of age. He was the son of William Mortimer of Charlottetown, and left here 35 years ago, going first to Newfoundland and subsequently to the New England States, where he has been engaged in building and contracting. He was married to a Nova Scotia lady, and leaves a widow and one son and daughter to mourn.

They had the following children: i. LeRoy Goff (7 Mar 1887-20 Jun 1977); ii. Elsie B. (2 Jun 1890-1921)

- v. William Miles Dickey "MD" (14 Jun 1862-10 Mar 1960). Born on 14 Jun 1862 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. William Miles Dickey "MD" died in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS, on 10 Mar 1960; he was 97. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Residence: Goffs, Milford Station. Religion: Presbyterian (1891), United Church Of Canada. Occupation: Shingle Mill Operator; Farmer. MD or "Uncle Dick" and Martha Jane McDougall were married in Milford Station, Hants Co., one day following the marriage of Mary Goff and Alexander McDougall. MD worked for his father's lumber business and ran a shingle factory. They lived for a short time immediately following their marriage in Oldham, Halifax Co., where their first son was born, and then in a house on the Guysborough Road, Hfx. Co., near William Goff's home, further east on the same side of the road, where their remaining two sons and one daughter were born.

In 1908, they purchased the Roland Ross farm property in Milford Station. In the 1911 census, Guy 21, John 18, and Alexander 17 are living with Miles 48 and Martha 48. Flora is boarding with a Noonan family in East Dover. They built a new house on the farm in 1916. After the death of Martha in 1925, John returned to the farm and married Hazel Wright, who came to the farm to live. John and Alex also purchased adjoining land from the Power family. They carried on a successful farm for 36 years. MD went to Saskatchewan for a summer some time after Martha had passed on. In 1944, M. D. sold the farm and moved with son John and family to a property in Milford Station next to the Milford United Church, a house which John built. He died in this house in 1960 at age 97. MD was a man of sterling character and was highly respected by all of the family members and the community at large.

"Miles Goff, 97, Dies at Milford, Milford Station, March 15 - The death of Miles D. Goff, 97, which occurred at his home on Thursday, March 10, brought to a close the life of one of Milford's oldest and highly esteemed residents. Mr. Goff, who was born on June 14, 1862, was the fifth in the family of eight children born to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Goff, of Goffs, Guysborough Road. For 20 years he carried on farming and lumbering in Goffs, selling out in 1908 and coming to Milford with his wife and family. Here he purchased the Ross farm which he successfully operated until his retirement in 1944. After retiring, he built a new home near the Milford church where he lived happily with his son John and Mrs. Goff. Four years ago he was called upon to bear the loss of his son John, who died very suddenly, but his Christian faith supported him and the excellent care given him by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Goff, helped to make life pleasant. Mr. Goff was a home-loving man and was happiest there with his family, and was always pleased to welcome his friends. He was a man of strong Christian principles and convictions, and until a year ago was in attendance at all services in the Milford United Church of which he was a member. Of late, when infirmities of age prevented active participation in church and community activities, he was, nevertheless, interested in and supported all church and community work. He lived a full and rewarding life and even in the face of failing health never complained, remaining cheerful until the last. The funeral, attended by relatives and friends from his old home in Goff's and friends from the nearby communities, was held from his late home on Saturday, March 12, and was conducted by his pastor the Rev. Russell MacLeod, who read comforting messages from the Psalms and the New Testament. He paid tribute to the Christian life of Mr. Goff and spoke of the Christian's hope in the life hereafter. The Milford Choir led in the singing of "Unto the Hills" and "O Life That Will Never Let Me Go". Burial took place in the Gays River Cemetery beside his wife who died in 1925. The many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which he was held. Sincere sympathy is extended to the surviving members of the family, the daughter Flora (Mrs. Chester Wardrope) of Ottawa, sons Alex of Milford and Guy of Gull Lake Saskatchewan, who was unable to be present but who telephoned the family on Thursday. Also surviving are a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren."

On 18 Sep 1888 when William Miles Dickey "MD" was 26, he married Martha Jane McDougall, daughter of Daniel McDougall (11 Apr 1831-1 Aug 1901) & Rachel McMullin (1 Jan 1833-26 Mar 1915), in Milford Station, N.S. Born on 23 Dec 1862 in Kempt, Hants Co., N.S. Martha Jane died in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS, on 19 Jun 1925; she was 62. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Religion: Methodist (1891 Census). "The Late Mrs. Dickie Goff. There passed away peacefully at her home in Milford on the evening of June 19, Mrs Dickie Goff, a highly respected citizen, and her passing is mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends. She was a sincere Christian; a peaceful loving character full of good will and charity for all humanity in the home and all around her. Her kindness will ever be remembered by all. Mrs. Goff, who attained the age of 62 years, was born at Cheverie, but had lived at Milford for the past 17 years. She leaves a sorrowing husband and two sons, John and Alex, at home, a daughter, Mrs. Chester Wardrope in the west, Carmichael, Saskatchewan, also one son in the west, Guy of Gull Lake, Saskatchewan. Also three sisters Mrs. Long of Richebucto, NB, and Mrs. Slocumb and Mrs. Prescott, both living in Massachusetts. Sympathy goes out to them all. The funeral, which was held on Sunday afternoon, was very largely attended and the collection of flowers sent by sorrowing friends was very beautiful. Services were held at the Milford Church and interment was made in Gays River. Rev. E. A. Kirker of Truro officiated at the Church and grave, in the absence of Rev. J. P. Falconer, the regular minister."

They had the following children: i. William "Guy" (10 Aug 1889-31 Oct 1967); ii. Flora Myrtle (19 Oct 1890-1 Nov 1971); iii. John Roy (11 Jun 1892-5 Jul 1956); iv. Alexander Mac (26 Oct 1893-1 Dec 1966).

- vi. Ernest Simpson. Born on 26 May 1866 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. Ernest Simpson died in Enfield, Nova Scotia, on 27 Dec 1938; he was 72. Buried in Meaghers Grant, Halifax Co., NS. Residence: Naturalized Boston 29 Mar 1898, Returned To NS Early 1930s. He was never married.
Ernest Simpson Goff, known as "Uncle Jerry", was a police officer with the Boston City Police all of his working life. He carried the name Jerry for many years but its source is unknown. While in Boston, his niece Gladys Goff, Clifford's daughter, lived with him in Medford, MA, as did Charles Goff, his nephew, John's son. His house was left to Gladys when he left the area.

1900 census Somerville, boarder with Patrick and Ellen Keefe, occupation policeman.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Upon retirement in the early 1930's, he returned to live in a small house, the "House by the Side of the Road", at Goff's. It was on the north side of Guysborough Road, about a half mile past the William Goff home. He was never married. He became ill in 1936 and moved to Enfield where he died at a nursing home. His funeral was held from the home of his brother M.D. Goff in Milford Station. He was buried in Meaghers Grant near his mother and her family. His cabin was left to his niece Edna, Clifford's daughter, and was moved to Musquodoboit Harbour (East Petpeswick) where Edna lived for many years. Edna's daughter Glenda still lives in the house, now much-changed from its original. Jerry was remembered as a fun loving, care-free person and had a warm, friendly relationship with all of his family.

- vii. Clifford Francklyn. Born on 20 May 1868 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. Clifford Francklyn died in Elderbank, Hfx. Co., N.S., on 13 Oct 1930; he was 62. Buried in Meaghers Grant, Halifax Co., NS. Occupation: Postman; Farming. In the 1901 census, Clifford was alone at the home in Goffs, with a boarder William Price, following the death of his mother in 1900. Clifford and Mary were married in 1902 and they continued to live in the house built by William and Hannah Goff on Guysboro Road where they carried on the Coach House and Post Office. Clifford and MD also ran a lath mill. In addition to the responsibilities of the Post Office at Goffs, Clifford was a mail carrier, according to the terms of the following legal documents:
- Post Office Dept., Mail Services Branch. A contract for conveying His Majesty's mail between Enfield and Goffs. Contractor Clifford F. Goff, farmer, of the village of Goffs, 3 times per week, 6 1/2 miles, $146 per annum. From 1st Jan 1910 to 31 Dec 1913, via the Post Office at Oldham by horse and vehicle. "Leave Goffs Post Office on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday so as to arrive at Enfield half an hour before 1st mail train for Halifax is due, and return on arrival of first mail train from Halifax, performing trip in either direction within one hour and a quarter, average speed of five miles per hour, seven minutes to be allowed for changing the mail at each post office on route." Signed C. F. Goff, contractor, William Kidston, Goffs, surety, Frank McPherson, Waverley, surety, John McDowall, J.P., witness.
 - A continuation of the above contract for 4 years (1914-1917).
 - A continuation of the above contract for 4 years (1918-1921). $180 per annum.
- In 1919, they sold the Goffs farm to James Ledwidge and moved to Elderbank where Clifford worked at farming and again served as a letter carrier.

Death of Mrs. Eliakim Tupper - The widow of the late Warden Tupper, after 2 or 3 months of sickness, died at her son's residence, Middle Musquodoboit, on the morning of Jun 4th. Her daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis, of town had been at her bedside for some time, faithfully nursing the much beloved mother in her last illness. Mrs. Tupper was 68 years of age. The funeral took place on the 6th inst., the Rev. Edwin Smith officiating. Internment was beside her late husband in the family lot in the Upper Stewiacke Cemetery. Mr. C.F. Cox of this town attended the funeral; his first wife was a daughter of the lamented Mrs. Tupper. - (Truro Daily News Saturday June 7, 1902)

On 10 Aug 1855 when Elizabeth was 21, she married Eliakim Tupper, son of Benjamin Tupper (14 May 1799-6 Jan 1880) & Mary Dunlap (14 Jan 1803-28 Nov 1891). Born in 1829. Eliakim died on 18 Dec 1894; he was 65.

Warden Tupper's Death - Col. Eliakim Tupper, Warden of Colchester County, died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, L.M. Ellis, Queen Street, Truro. The death of Col. Tupper has come upon us all with a shock. It was so sudden and to most of our citizens so unexpected.

For some time the Warden had been suffering from severe pains from an injury to his abdomen, which latterly developed into an abscess on the wall of the abdomen, and which such serious symptoms that he left his home in Stewiacke and arrived in Truro on Monday the 10th inst., for medical treatment. There is no doubt but that the deceased contracted cold while journeying to Truro, and when he arrived here he was a very sick man. His physician, Dr. J. H. McKay, did all that medical skill could do, and had consultation with Dr. W.S. Muir on Sunday last. Both physicians agreed as to the nature of the disease and as to the very serious condition of the suffering man. Yesterday the Warden was about the same in his symptoms. He lingered through the night and this morning, as already stated, passed quietly away.

The immediate cause of death was an abscess on the wall of the abdomen resulting in peritonitis and blood poisoning. Inflammation of the bowels had set in and was another complication that baffled all medical skill.

By the death of Warden Tupper, Colchester County loses one of its ablest, shrewdest and most talented men. After the Municipal Incorporation Act was passed, Col. Tupper was the first Warden in Colchester. He at once showed his firm and lucid grasp of the new Act, and from his clear interpretation of its complicated provisions started the machinery running smoothly in the county.

The deceased was born 66 years ago on the farm at South Branch, Upper Stewiacke, where he has ever resided, and to a community in which he has ever been universally respected. He was Warden of this County at the time of his death.

The deceased has left a widow, one son Martin L., who resides on the homestead, and a daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis of this town. To them and other relatives the News extends heartfelt and sincere sympathy in their unexpected and sad bereavement.

It is expected that the remains will leave here on Thursday for the Presbyterian church in Upper Stewiacke Village, where the funeral service and ceremonies will take place at about 2 o'clock on that day. - (Truro Daily News - Tuesday Dec 18, 1894)

Warden Tupper's Funeral - An immense mass of people assembled at Upper Stewiacke Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Warden Tupper. There was an immense congregation of friends from all parts of the Stewiacke Valley, and other places in the country. Among those present were: Councillors H. H. Eaton, Salmon River; Bigelow, Lower Stewiacke; McGill Johnson, Upper Stewiacke Village; and Charles Creelman; James McCurdy, Clifton, License Inspector; Hugh McKenzie, Municipal Clerk; Geo. R Archibald, Lower Stewiacke; John Dickie, Middle Stewiacke; W.D. Dimock, Truro, and many others. The funeral services were very impressive, and were conducted by the Rev'ds A. G. Gunn, S. F. Fraser and John Robbins. Mr Gunn gave an admirable address and Rev. John Robbins supplemented his remarks by a most touching figure to the memory of the late Colonel Tupper. After the services were over, friends passed around the bier and gave the last look of love on him who has been so universally respected by all. The death of Colonel Tupper has left a blank in this county that will be very hard to fill. All spoke of him with the greatest respect, feeling that the district of Stewiacke has lost a most valuable member of society, and the County of Colchester one of its ablest men. - (Truro Daily News - Friday Dec 21, 1894)

A letter from June Mortimer, wife of LeRoy Goff Mortimer, states "Another of the Goff cousins whom Roy knew as Lexie (short for Alexandrina, which was also Roy's Mother's name) married Frank Todd. "Lexie Todd". Her daughter Florence, who married Clarence Tonks, was close to Roy and I all of our years together. She died in 1969, aged 96" .

Electie Dickey is mentioned as a daughter of Samuel and Hannah Swinburn Kent by Byron Jennings, Musquodoboit Pioneers. Flo Dickey had listed Electie, as md. to a Mr. Todd. However Alexia Shaw md. Francis Hyslop Todd in Halifax, 21 Dec 1871. The dau. Florence Todd was b. 28 Nov. 1872 and Francis H. and Alexia Todd are found in the 1880 census of Malden, MA, with dau. Emma F., ages matching those at marriage. So, Lexie Todd must have been Alexia Shaw rather than Electie Dickey.

to his house. Will operated a coal and wood business. When the automobile arrived, he opened Wayzata's first service station. He later sold petroleum products. He built many of the tennis courts on Lake Minnetonka estates, hiring men in the spring who became known as "Dickey's Robbins." William Dickey was active in civic affairs, he was a three time mayor of the city, and for 30 years was a member of the school board. He was vice president of the Wayzata State Bank for several years and president for a brief period of time. He was a member of the Wayzata Masonic lodge. The Dickey house was the first to be wired for electricity and he had the first telephone. He and Nellie were married for 62 years. (Flo Dickey)

Will made a trip to Nova Scotia in the 1940's and visited with Miles Dickey Goff.

On 14 Dec 1892 when William Lydiard was 27, he married Nellie Bickford. Born on 28 Feb 1871. Nellie died on 16 Nov 1963; she was 92.

Also she is survived by 12 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. Interment Summit Park Cemetery, Wayzata.

127. Harrison Gaslin Dickey (Miles MacInnes⁶, Samuel⁵, David⁴, David Dickie³, David², Adam¹), son of Miles MacInnes Dickey (22 Sep 1825-13 Jul 1917) & Eliza Ann Dunbrack (24 Feb 1828-8 Oct 1914). Born on 16 Jun 1870 in Parkers Lake, Minnesota. Harrison Gaslin died in Minneapolis, MN, on 18 Jan 1960; he was 89. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, MN. Residence: Wayzata, Minnesota.

Harrison Gaslin Dickey was born at Parker's Lake, Minnesota. July 16, 1870 and grew up on a farm near Worthington and at Wayzata. Harrison, like his brothers, inherited his ancestors height, strength, handsome looks, compassion, integrity, and moral obligations to family, friends, and community.

As a young man of 15 years of age, his first job was with a construction crew building grain elevators. At 19 he became a grain sampler and office boy for the F.H. Peavey company in Minneapolis. Two years later he became a part-time bookkeeper and in 1893 assumed the job full time. Within three years (1894) he went onto the exchange trading floor as an assistant salesman. In the fall of 1909 he was named general manager of the company's terminal elevators and a member of the board of directors in 1911. He became a director of the Van Dusen Harrington Company, a division of the Peavey company in 1928. In 1933 he was elected president of the division and chairman of the board in 1946. Harrison G. Dickey was with the Peavey company for 69 years before he retired in 1959. Mr. Dickey's advice to the young men beginning their careers: "One should always work honestly giving all his attention to what he is doing. He should always try to be prepared for something better, for once qualified, there will always be need for him in a more responsible job."

Harrison G. Dickey was the 4th president of the Peavey Company. A silver tray given to him as outgoing President of the Minneapolis Grain Exchange inscribed "Presented to Harrison G. Dickey by his Associates in Business, 1933" and a hand wrought sterling silver pitcher that was inscribed and given to him upon his retirement were both stolen from our home in a burglary in 1985.

Harry Dickey was a member of the Heron Hunting Club, where he was a crack shot, the Minikahda club, Minneapolis club, Zuhrah Shrine, Masonic groups and the Knights Templar. He spent his boyhood helping his father around the farm and later in his fathers store, he would run errands. It was during his boyhood that he developed a love for the outdoors-for fishing and hunting. He remained an avid sportsman all his life.

H.G. Dickey married Gena "Jeanette" Olsen Jewett in Minneapolis on the 26 day of November 1898. Jeanette was from a pioneer Minnesota family and a school teacher prior to their marriage. They had three sons, Livingston, Harrison Gaslin II (Tom), and Charles Lonsdale and one daughter Corinne. In 1948 they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a party given by family and friends. A gold washed sterling silver tray was presented to them, inscribed with their initials and date of marriage.

Jeanette Olson Jewett was born December 8, 1872 in Windom, Minnesota and raised on the Prairie in southern Minnesota near the Ingells of "Little House on the Prairie." (See Norwegian Section). Grandma Dickey loved to play cards and would make a wager now and then. When she traveled across the country to visit Tom in the hospital, she would manage to take a train that would stop in Las Vegas. She then called Grandpa Dickey to tell him of the train's lay over in Vegas.

H.G. and Jeanette Dickey had a summer log cabin on Crooked Lake, in Crow Wing County, near Bay Lake, Minnesota. It was not an ordinary Minnesota log cabin. It was built by Louis Piper out of golden cedar logs from Oregon. Louis Piper lived in a tent on the property (60 acres) while he built the cabin. He furnished it with antiques and collectibles, including two cigar store wooden indians, black bear and polar bear rugs. Sailfish and Marlin hung on the walls along with Alaskan trophy heads. Navajo rugs on the floors, spinning wheels, and many other treasures. The cabin, boat house, crow's nest, servants quarters, barn, hen house, ice house, tool house, and several outhouses were completed in two years. Louis Piper rented the cabin to Harry Dickey for two years and he bought it in 1925, completely furnished. To protect his lake view from unsightly "shacks" he purchased 3/4 of a mile of shoreline across the lake (110 acres) which, for the rest of his life remained in its pristine state. The cabin had the last virgin stand of white pine in Minnesota. The white pine shared the woods with the stately Norway Pines. Jeanette Dickey always referred to the cabin as White Pine Camp. Every summer she had red geraniums blooming in the window boxes on the long porch overlooking the lake.

All the children and grandchildren spent their summers at the cabin, relaxing, fishing, playing golf, riding horseback, playing cards, charades, and swimming. There was also, toiling in the vegetable garden, feeding the ducks, canoeing, selling the chickens in Brainard, bingo, and movies.

Harrison G. Dickey was a generous, kind and loving man to his family and friends. He was active in the civic affairs of the community. Grampa Dickey died Jan. 18, 1960 at the age of 90 in Minneapolis and Gramma Dickey

Harrison Gaslin Dickey, Jr. (Tom) born October 3, 1904 in Minneapolis. Tom (and Livingston) graduated from Shattuck Military School at Fairbault, Minnesota in 1921. He spent two years at Williams College where he studied chemistry and then worked two years in Duluth as a chemist for the Peavey Company, before developing sinus and respiratory trouble. He moved to Phoenix, Arizona as a young man and then purchased a dude ranch in Wickenburg, Arizona with Bob White. The dry climate in Arizona seemed to help Tom's sinus and asthma problems. Sometime around 1931, he married a woman named "Red." It was about three months later that Tom's mental symptoms developed. This marriage was annulled in 1932 in Phoenix. Tom became ill and was hospitalized for 17 years, first in California and then at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. In 1949 he had what has been described as a grade 3 bilateral prefrontal lobotomy. Amazingly Tom recovered completely, but had no recollection of events during the 17 years. After being released from the hospital, he made a rapid adjustment. He became a very good golf player and spent most of his time traveling from tournament to tournament. At the time of his death in 1985, at age 81, he was carrying a 178 bowling average.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT FATAL TO MRS. N. DICKEY

Mrs. Norman DICKEY of this city died Tuesday morning at a local hospital from injuries received about 3 o'clock that morning when a bullet accidentally discharged from a high-powered rifle shattered her right thigh, loss of blood and shock being contributing factors in her death three or four hours later. Mrs. DICKEY was one of an automobile party of four, having gone to the river flats southwest of Trenton shortly after midnight. A coroner's jury has made repeated attempts to arrive at the facts concerning the exact cause and details of the accident, but the testimony of her companions has been so contradictory that no verdict has been arrived at and the case is still pending. Alfred Hammel, A. T. Hurah and Henry Millerman, occupants of the car, and several others were questioned at the hearings. It is said that car trouble developed and that one of the members of the party opened a door of the car to remedy the trouble and that as he did so the rifle slid out and was discharged. Mrs. DICKEY'S companions improvised a tourniquet and took her to Trenton from which point they called Dr. J. P. Craven, who hurried to meet them, and took her to the hospital, where she died some two hours later. The members of the jury who, with Coroner Thomas and State's Attorney Lake are investigating the case, and M. J. Borden, Alex Strom and D. J. Beakey.

CARELESS WITH RIFLE, SAYS CORONER'S JURY

The coroner's jury to investigate the death of Mrs. Norman DICKEY concluded its deliberations this week and filed its formal report to the effect "that the said Ethel DICKEY came to her death through the accidental discharge of a 30-30 Winchester rifle while riding in an automobile on the highway in the vicinity of Trenton, North Dakota. It is the opinion of this jury," concludes the report, "that the occupants of the car were very careless in handling a loaded firearm."

The articles were published in the Williston, North Dakota Newspaper in early to mid-November 1927. (findagrave)

Vera Stewart

Born: January 5th, 1929, Deep Brook, Nova Scotia, Canada Died: September 10th, 2011, Truro, Nova Scotia, Canada

Stewart, Vera Constance – 82, Truro – following a brief illness, it is with heavy hearts that the family of Vera Stewart announce the passing of a wonderful mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend on September 10, 2011, at Colchester Regional Hospital in Truro. Vera was born in East Waldeck (Deep Brook), Annapolis County. She taught elementary school for 36 years – most of those years being in Bible Hill schools. She retired in 1988 from Bible Hill Central. After her retirement, she spent countless hours volunteering and being involved in many organizations including Hilden and Bible Hill Garden Clubs, Team SOS Dragon Boat, Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition, IODE, Hilden Fire Hall Auxiliary, Brookfield Baptist Church, Colchester Regional Hospital (art exchange, gift shop, information desk, and Hub Bub). She could often be found at the mall selling tickets and raising awareness for these and other various groups. Vera enjoyed spending time at Shortt's Lake and loved baking for family, friends, and charitable organizations. The family would like to thank many people for helping during this difficult time, especially; Dr. Padmore, the nurses of 3 North, Rev. Eric MacKinnon, and Anita Miller. A special thank you goes out to June and Charles Cox for lovingly adopting and giving her dog, Jade, a new home. She is survived by sons Gary (Reny), Brookfield; Dana (Anne DuGas), North River; Earl (Angie), Milford; grandchildren, Dawn, Michelle, Sara, Paul, Laura and Brooke; great-grandchildren, Aiden, Jessica, and Cohen; brother, Wendell Robbins; son-in-law, Mike Watson; sister-in-law, Joyce Robbins, and her beloved dog, Jade, who she could often be found walking around Kiwanis Pond. Aside from her parents, James and May (Chute) Robbins, she is predeceased by daughter, Ruth Watson; brother, Charles Robbins; sister-in-law, Gail Rector; and granddaughter, Lindsey Stewart.

Beryl married Angus Stewart.

They had one child:

From: Teresa Kisilevich,

Ella and Josie Everson's family were very poor when they were small due to the fact that they were then living in the "dust bowl" area of Montana. Ella had no schooling and Frank taught his wife to read and write after they were married. Also Frank and Ray were both jailed for a short time for the active support of the establishment of a school in Beatty. The school was established and all their children received an education.

Frank and Ray Dickie of the Connell Creek District purchased the livery and feed barn in Beatty from Norman Flett. They sold the livery barn to Carson Eastmand and in later years it was moved out to the Barry farm in the Thatch Creek District.

Ray and Frank moved their families out to their farms in the East Bend District. Ray moved out in 1929 and Frank came later. Land owned by Ray Dickie was SW15-46-20. Land owned by Frank Dickie was SE10-46-20.

All children of the Dickie brothers were born while the families were living in Beatty.

Ray retired from farming in 1947, moved to Vancouver, BC where he lived until his death in 1961. Frank retired from farming in 1934 and moved to Vancouver where he lived until his death in 1943.

DENNIS JAMES VIG
AUGUST 21, 1940 - APRIL 11, 2014
It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Dennis at Lacombe Hospital, on Friday April 11, 2014. Dennis was born on August 21, 1940 to Esther and Melvin Vig, in Bentley, Alberta, the third of five sons. He grew up on the farm and attended school in Bentley. On June 27, 1959 he married his sweetheart Myrna Dickie. Dennis and Myrna lived most of their years together in the Bentley and Lacombe area where they raised their daughter and son and welcomed their grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Dennis was an avid hunter and fisherman with great respect for the outdoors. He and Myrna enjoyed travelling and gatherings with family and friends. He was a true Norwegian who considered Lutefisk a treat, as others would consider candy. He was a Journeyman Carpenter, employed by the County of Lacombe and the Government of Alberta. He possessed a strong work ethic and it showed in every project completed. He was an honest, caring and gentle man who will be greatly missed. Dennis is survived by his loving wife, Myrna; daughter Sherry (Everett) Haarstad, and son Michael (Kristen) Vig. He leaves behind adoring grandchildren: Tyler, Cody, Paul (Ping), Amber (Mike), Katelynn (Brandon), and precious great-grandchildren: Presley, Lennon, Jagger, Ava, Titus, Victoria and Asher, and an 8th on the way! Left to miss him, greatly are every member of Myrna's family who he also considered his own; lastly, a host of extended family and special friends. Dennis was pre-deceased by his parents, Esther and Melvin, brother Elmer, and sister-in-law, Sonja. A family interment will be held at the Vig Cemetery on Wednesday, April 16 at 11:00 am, followed by a Celebration of Life at 1:00 pm at Blindman Valley Ag Center in Bentley.

Mary Thelin Dickie

I was born in Cardston, Alberta, Canada on 6 November 1903. We moved to Orton, Alberta in 1904. We lived in a Sod house just east of Philip Hornberger's home.

While living in the Sod home, I pulled a Kettle of boiling water over me, when I was about a year or two. I was burned from my head to my toes. My Mother took good care of me. She carried me around on a pillow for a month or two. What a time my Mother must have had, to care for me. I survived with just one bad scar on my neck. I always wore high neck clothes to cover it up.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

I went to school in Orton a small School which had 12 grades in it. Then I went to School at Parkerville for a year. While we were living at the Dairy. It was three miles from Fort Macleod.

My father John Victor Thelin had a Shoe shop in Fort Macleod. I used to visit him there. We moved into the Sod house one mile west of Orton. All our family were raised there. I will remember the good times we had. My brother Reuben slept on sacks of wheat we had stored. Mother always had a soup pot on the stove. She would feed anyone who came by Indians Etc.

Edward Owen Dickie came over from Nova Scotia to visit his brother David Dickie. I met him there. We were married December 3, 1923. We went to Nova Scotia for our Honeymoon. We stayed there three months. We came back and made our home in Carmangay, Alberta, Canada. Our first two daughters were born there. Gloria and Joy. We moved back to Fort Macleod in 1926. We bought a home and 40 acres of land three miles East of Fort Macleod, Mary Lou and Betty, Linda, Edward and Andrew were born while living there. We also adopted a lovely baby girl with red hair, named her Dallene. This made us eight children. I loved the Gospel of Jesus Christ and taught my children the Gospel.

They had one child:

- i. Mary Lou.

DICKIE, Harry Owen - Shubenacadie, born October 31, 1935, died peacefully on September 7, 2007, in the Halifax Infirmary, QEII, after a courageous battle with heart and lung disease. Harry served in the army for several years and also worked for E.C. Keen Land Surveying for a number of years before retiring. Harry leaves behind Avis, the love of his life for 27 years; his children, Kelly and James, both of Truro; grandson, Jeffrey, Edmonton; granddaughter, Hannah, Truro; stepdaughter, Debbie (Robert France, Shubenacadie East; stepson, Kevin (Lona) Tufts, East Noel; stepgrandchildren, Amanda "Bear", Kristen, Allison, Matt, Mitch; sisters, Sarah "Sadie" Taylor, Halifax; Celia (Hugh) Heisler, Kingston, Ont.; Joan (Don) Montrose, Batawa, Ont.; Ann (Felix) Poser, Montreal; brothers, Bill (Thelma) Dickie, Halifax; Howard (Gwen) Dickie, Stewiacke; many nieces and nephews. Harry has moved on to join his mother and father, Edna and Albert Dickie; his son, Randy; grandson, Craig; sisters, Mary, Jean; brothers-in-law, Menzie Stewart, Craig Taylor; niece, Nancy. Harry loved life and people and saw the good in everyone. He will be sadly missed by all. At Harry's request, there will be a private service in Ettinger Funeral Home, 2812 Main St., Shubenacadie. Interment will be in Holy Trinity Anglican Cemetery, Fort Ellis.

DICKIE, Cst Randy Colin April 30, 2004 On April 30, 2004, Cst. Randy Colin Dickie of Sherwood Park passed away at the age of 46 years. He will be lovingly remembered by his two sons, Craig and Jeffry, and their mother Theresa Disney. He is also survived by his father Harry (Avis); mother Marilyn Brown (Barry); brother Jim, sister Kelly; and many caring and loving friends, especially of Sherwood Park. Randy was born and raised in Nova Scotia. Upon completion of his degree from Acadia University, he joined the RCMP and was posted in Alberta for his entire career, receiving the RCMP and Alberta long service medals. His love of life and sense of humor will be sadly missed by all.

- iv. Jean.

Jean married Menzie Stewart.

Nadeau, Dianne -age 70 of Halifax passed away June 9, 2016 at the Victoria General Hospital. Born in Truro, she was the Daughter of the late Jean and Menzie Stewart. She grew up in Stewiacke and graduated from Hants East Rural High. After attending Mrs. Murphy's School of business she went to work at the Nova Scotia Abattoir for several years until it closed. She then went work at LE Shaw Ltd as an executive secretary until they moved to Lantz. After that she worked at Halifax West High School as Guidance secretary. She was a consummate talker and a great story teller who would talk the ear off anyone willing to listen. Her greatest passion was shopping and she became a master at the art of getting a deal. Once she found something she liked she would stalk it until she got it for next to nothing. Store employees got to know her so well that if she didn't show up on a Saturday for their weekly chats they would call to check on her.

Dianne is survived by her loving husband Robert "Bob" Nadeau of Halifax; son, Shane (Petra) Nadeau; brothers, Robert Stewart of Stewiacke; grandchildren Beckett, Oliver and Drew; as well as several nieces and nephews. Predeceased by her parents Jean and Menzie Stewart

182. Gordon Harland Dickey (Robert⁷, David⁶, David⁵, David⁴, David Dickie³, David², Adam¹), son of Robert Dickey (4 Dec 1867-14 Jan 1942) & Ida May Magee (1872-). Born on 26 Nov 1907 in Whitman, MA. Gordon Harland died in Concord, NH, in Feb 1977; he was 69. Buried in Maple Street Cemetery, Hillsboro. Residence: Hillsboro, NH.

Daddy had an interesting life with many different jobs. He panned for gold in Alaska. He sprayed for gypsy moths in Vt.-including the town where my mother lived, although they never met. She was 13 years younger than he, and he was a young man at that time. He was the foreman of the crew that installed the ventilation system on the USS Wasp-which later would pick our first astronauts up when they landed in the sea. He ran a logging crew in the backwoods.

Gordon Harland first married Inez Hunt.

They had one child:

- 241 i. Alice May Dickie (1928-1993)

On 19 Sep 1936 when Gordon Harland was 28, he second married Mary Elizabeth Perkins in Hillsboro, NH.

On 4 Feb 1945 when Gordon Harland was 37, he third married Harriet Esther (Whitney) Owen in Concord, NH. Born on 24 Oct 1921 in Eden, VT. Harriet Esther died in Manchester, NH, on 9 Apr 2007; she was 85.

Harriet had an older daughter, Faith Virginia Owen Annis, who would have been 6 or 7 at the time of their marriage. She passed away in 2017, age 79.

Harriet's parents, Lovell and Harriet Whitney, began driving a postal route in rural Vermont in the early '30's, which grew into a bus company, the Whitney Bus Service, soon afterward. It ran out of Peterboro, NH at that time, but by the early '50's my family relocated the business (and themselves) to West Main Street in Hillsboro, NH. My parents purchased the company and ran main line, charter and school buses for many years. In the late '60's they primarily had the local school contract and did charter busing for local camps during the summer months. My Father drove the main line Concord to Peterboro route for many years, as did my Mother.

Community Portrait: MILES M. DICKEY. Chilliwack's recent blizzard held no worries for Miles M. Dickey. He has braved storms back in Alberta so intense that only his horse's unerring sense got him home safely. "I remember once during a terrific snow storm not knowing where I was until the horse stopped with his breast pressing against the gate at home," Mr. Dickey recalled. "Any horse with any sense (I didn't keep them otherwise) will take you home in the worst blizzard in the world if you give him free rein." Mr. Dickey recalled one winter in the '30's when the thermometer never got above 35 degrees below zero for 30 days. The low was 05 below but most times the temperature hovered around 40 to 50 below. Miles M. Dickey was born in Sheridan, Wyo., 70 years ago, come March 22. His middle name, McInnis, was bestowed on him by his Scots parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickey, for no particular reason except that they were Scotsmen. In 1903, when he was 11 years old, the family moved to Lacombe, Alta., half way between Calgary and Edmonton and 100 miles from a railway. When this was finally built the family moved to Donalda which was near the railway and where, for the first time, they were near a school. By this time Miles Dickey was 18 years old and much too old, in a teenager's way of thinking, to at last enroll in a school. If he had, he might not now be handicapped by a leg he broke when he 19. His horse shied and threw him against the corner post of the railway fence. In all his experiences in rodeos, he had never been hurt seriously . . . nor when he broke horses for everyone from his own district to as far away as Brandon, Man. Mr. Dickey was a rancher in Alberta until it was impossible to find reliable help. Coupled with the severe winters they were experiencing, he finally decided to part company with the ranch and move to Chilliwack. "Ranching on the prairies now is immensely different in handling cattle," Mr. Dickey remarked. "Then they roamed the range, now they are pastured." On October 1, 1921, he married Evelyn Blackmore, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Blackmore. From Truro, N.S., the family lived for a few years in Donalda but returned to Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Dickey have two sons. Verne has three sons and one daughter. Miles B. has three sons. "When Miles was a young boy we could never get him to say 'Miles.' He would always say 'no, me Bee' and he is now better known as 'Bee' then Miles. When I lived in Alberta I was called Mike for some reason or other," chuckled Mr. Dickey. The Dickey family lived on Brinks road, Fairfield Island, for a number of years. About 15 years ago Mr. Dickey sold the cattle and rented the farm, maintaining just the house. In 1952 Mr. and Mrs. Dickey moved to 102 Charles street. After living on his ranch without electricity it was a wonderful luxury to Mr. Dickey to have it available when he moved to Chilliwack. Although he had never received any formal schooling he had brains enough to realize the wonderful advantages of the utility and its future. He started to study electricity at home at night. He now owns a large building at the corner of Victoria and Fletcher with two stores facing Victoria. A self-educated and self-made business man, Mr. Dickey has provided a livelihood for his sons who work with him and to make it a family affair, Mrs. Dickey Sr., works in the office. "We really face Fletcher street but as a business we want our mail delivered twice a day so instead of a Fletcher street address we maintain a victoria avenue one. Our customers and friends find us. I guess it doesn't make too much difference," chuckled Mr. Dickey. Mr. Dickey was recently installed president of the Fraser Valley Shrine club at a ceremony in the Empress hotel. Although he was never worshipful master of his Masonic lodge, he progressed through various positions of his lodge in Donalda until he was in line for that high position. He declined this honor because, honest as he is, he wasn't sure he could always get in to the meetings during the winter months and so felt he would not be fulfilling his obligations. He is now a member of Mount Zion Lodge No. 120, A.F. & A.M., Chilliwack. Mr. Dickey is very modest about being elected president of the local Shrine club and yet there is no one more deserving. He has worked project repairing broken toys and dolls to be sold to children out of his own pocket. Now crippled children of any religion, color or creed can be admitted as patients after an application has been sent by a Shriner to head office for approval. "The only children barred are the children of wealthy parents. And that doesn't mean you have to be destitute either. If you just can't afford to pay for medical attention, you are eligible," Mr. Dickey commented. There have been 23 children from this district who have received assistance through the Fraser Valley Shrine club since the club was formed in 1951. More than 250 children from all over B.C. received assistance last year. The local Shriners work all during the year repairing toys in a room in Miles Dickey's warehouse. This room was built by him to save his "bad" leg while he did small electrical repair work. For many years, when the club was small, Mr. Dickey paid for the repair expenses out of his own pocket. (Chilliwack Progress, Feb. 2, 1962).

In 1921 when Miles MacInnes was 28, he married Evelyn Blackmore, daughter of William D. Blackmore (24 Jun 1860-1944) & Alice Evangeline McNutt (12 Oct 1870-9 Dec 1952). Born on 29 Apr 1896 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS. Occupation: School Teacher, Donalda, AB.

They had the following children:

- i. Verne Barrett. Born on 5 Sep 1922 in Donalda, AB. Verne Barrett died in Chilliwack, BC, on 5 Dec 1984; he was 62.

2 Dec 1895 in South Dakota. Bertha Beatrice died in 1989; she was 93.

They had the following children:

- i. Samuel Curtis. Born on 26 Sep 1918 in Lawrence, South Dakota. Samuel Curtis died in Redwoods, CA, on 27 Feb 2011; he was 92.

Samuel Curtis Dickey, Jr. September 26, 1918 - February 27, 2011 Samuel Curtis Dickey, Jr. (Sam), a resident of Redlands since 1943, was born in Hill City, South Dakota in 1918. At the age of five years, his parents moved with the children to Gillette, Wyoming. In his early years, and while attending Camel County High School in Gillette, Sam worked for his father at a general merchandise store. He and his younger siblings- Doris, Lois, and Don- grew up roaming the Black Hills. Sam commented that their rural neighborhood "was a fun kind of old mining ghost town," being near the place that his immigrant grandparents had selected when they came to the US from Norway in the 1860's. His childhood home had no electricity or inside plumbing, and the family had to carry water, and use kerosene and candles for light until young Sam was about ten years. He recalls returning to his grandmother's home in Galina, South Dakota every summer to visit and to relieve his mother's hay fever attacks. Sam also fondly remembers going gold-mining with a pan up near Ruby Gulch. He became well-acquainted with an older miner, who took Sam and a hammer, drill, and blasts, to help the young boy arrive at the best gold. Sam enjoyed a gift from his father of a single shot 22 rifle, which he used to hunt squirrels and packrats. In high school, Sam played sports, especially excelled at football and basketball. After graduation, Sam attended Black Hills Teachers College, then returned to Gillette to work in a lumber yard. It was there he met the love of his life, Ruth, who was teaching in his hometown. Ruth taught in Gillette for about a year, then moved west to join her mother in Long Beach, California. Sam followed, and finally secured a job at Lockheed Aircraft business in Burbank, where he was hired as a template maker. Soon, the industrious Sam was transferred to an experimental unit and he worked on projects the company was developing. Among these experiments was the 3-tailed plane, which Sam really enjoyed working on because it was so new and unusual! While in Long Beach, Sam and Ruth were married at the Hilton Hotel on October 4, 1940. They traveled across the water to Catalina Island for their honeymoon, and were married for nearly 59 years until Ruth's death in May 1999. Sam appreciated their good marriage and referred to Ruth as "a jewel." They gave birth to two sons, Jim and Don who were both born at Redlands Community Hospital, and much later, also enjoyed their four grandchildren, Corey and Bailey, Joshua and Alexander, and four great-grandchildren. After working for 3 years at Lockheed, Sam enlisted in the US Navy, where he began his service in electronics and soon switched to being a storekeeper who tracked and ordered supplies. He served stateside, in Chicago, IL; Monterey, CA; Samson, NY; Jacksonville, FL; and eventually in San Diego, CA. Just before deployment overseas, the man signing the deployment papers asked Sam directly if he really wanted to go overseas, and Sam quickly responded in the negative, so he was only sent a few miles north to the base at Kearney Mesa! Sam recalls that it was while he and Ruth were in San Diego that they would travel to Redlands on weekends to visit Sam's sister who taught at the University of Redlands in the theater department. After just a few visits, the young couple decided that Redlands would be their home. In Redlands, Sam went to work loading trucks for Creston Knudsen in the citrus business and eventually became office manager. His boss was a very religious man, who spent a lot of time around the Congregational Church, and who introduced the Dickey's to church life. Sam worked for Creston for about two years, and then enrolled in the geology department at the University of Redlands, and following the lead of both Ruth and her sister who were teachers, Sam meandered into elementary education. Public education would become his life's beloved career! After securing a temporary teaching certificate, Sam taught for three years, at Central School District in Cucamonga, followed by one year of teaching at Highland and five years in Colton, where he was also a teaching principal. He then transferred to Bloomington for two years as business manager for the district office. However, on his first day on the job, the district needed a bus driver, so eager Sam became a school bus driver! Later, Sam was hired to work as a district liaison with a school district in Orange, and from there, was hired by San Bernardino County Superintendent Roy C. Hill to serve as a consultant to school districts throughout the large county. As Sam once commented, "It was a peach of a job where I spent 29 years in the county office and loved every bit of it!" Sam's expertise was in the finance area, and he traveled countless miles to help struggling districts, to work with the California State Department of Education, to write manuals on finance, and to assist elementary, secondary, and even community colleges throughout the county. "It was just a fun job!" said Dickey, "I don't think anyone could have written any better job for me!" Meanwhile, Ruth continued teaching until her retirement in 1970, helping hundreds of elementary children in both Redlands and Yucaipa. After retirement, she did a bit of substitute teaching. When their boys were young, Sam and Ruth enjoyed many driving trips around the Western United States. In retirement, the couple ventured back to Wyoming to visit Sam's parents and New England to visit their older son and family; they took longer trips to Spain, Portugal, Morocco; and enjoyed a trip across the ocean and through the Panama Canal on an ocean liner. They were among the earliest groups of Americans allowed into Czechoslovakia for a short tour, and also took trips to Hawaii and later to Canada, where they basked in the beauty of Lake Louise, Banff, and Jasper National Park. The couple also took a trip to the Caribbean, with different stops along the way. One of their final trips together was to New York City for the national convention of the Elks Lodge. Continuing the joy of travel, Sam and his son, Don and grandson Corey recently traveled to South Dakota, where they visited people Sam had known in his childhood, and saw a 1-room schoolhouse (now being restored as a museum) still standing behind the location of Dickey's former homestead. In addition to his impressive employment and extended travels, Sam Dickey gave himself in a variety of charitable volunteer work, including statewide education committee work, the Redlands Congregational Church (as Sunday School Superintendent and Moderator), the Redlands Elks Lodge (Exalted Ruler, District Deputy of the Southeast District, and later volunteer secretary), the Redlands United Church of Christ (Trustee, Usher, and longtime treasurer for the annual Art, For Heaven Sake), and the Redlands Symphony Orchestra (board member and Controller). When reviewing his long and industrious life, Sam commented with a twinkle in his eye, "I didn't accomplish much! But I know I enjoyed it all!"

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

- iii. Clarence. Born in 1925 in Spearfish, South Dakota. Clarence died in Peachtree City, Georgia, on 15 Jul 2014; he was 89.

Clarence (Bob) Dickey, a noted entrepreneur, scientist, and inventor passed away Tuesday, July 15, 2014 in Peachtree City, Ga. Bob Dickey was born in 1924 in Spearfish. He was a graduate of the South Dakota School of Mines (ChemE44) before serving in the Navy during World War II. After the war Bob attended the University of Michigan, where he earned masters degrees in chemical engineering and business administration. During his long career Bob worked in chemical engineering in Houston, Texas and Atlanta, Ga. He was recruited by Shell Oil of Houston, Texas, where he worked in the technical department. After three years he went out on his own to start Index Chemicals to develop a process for producing synthetic mercaptan, an additive for natural gas to create its smell. Index Chemicals was later purchased by Pennwalt Corp. He also helped start up Southwest Chemical Services. Bob earned his pilot's license while in Houston, Texas, before moving to Atlanta, Ga. He spent several years associated with Hill Aircraft, at what is now Fulton County Airport. In 1961 he started Porex Materials Corp., a company specializing in porous plastics, including the tips for Sharpie markers. The company was later acquired by Glassrock Products, where he served as president. After leaving Glassrock Products, he pursued various ventures including mining, mineral exploration, and mineral recycling. Bob received patents in many of the fields in which he worked, including chemical syntheses, writing instruments, plastic structures and packaging, and high-temperature refractories. Many of his inventions are still in use today.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Beloved father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, he is preceded in death by his first wife, June R. Dickey; his parents, Walter and Margaret Dickey of Spearfish; and his sisters, A. June Dickey, El' Louise Eaton, and Marjorie Johnson.

Bob is survived by his spouse, Carolyn Niehouse; and four children; Barbara (Jack) Leonard of Senoia, Ga., Elizabeth (Steven) Smith of Fernandina Beach, Fla., Gerald (Terri) Dickey of Houston, Texas, and Susan (Robert I. Jr.) Morris of Sharpsburg, Ga.; and nine grandchildren, Erin Dickey, Candice Dickey, Brian (Vanessa) Smith, Stephanie Smith, Robert I. (Jenny) Morris III, Jason (Leanna) Morris, Heather (Andrew) Moss, Jacilyn (Matthew) Bennett, and Pamela Adams; and 11 great-grandchildren. He was a member of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Fayetteville, Ga. No service is planned at the present time. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to The South Dakota School of Mines and Technology, Chemical Engineering Department, 501 East Saint Joseph Street, Rapid City, S.D. 57701.

- iv. Alice "June". Born on 25 Jan 1926 in Spearfish, South Dakota. Alice "June" died in Kingwood, Texas, on 8 Mar 2012; she was 86.

KINGWOOD, Texas - A. June Dickey, 86, passed away peacefully Thursday, March 8, 2012 at her home in Kingwood from natural causes.

Beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

June was preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Margaret Dickey of Spearfish, S.D.; beloved sisters, El' Louise Eaton and Marjorie Johnson; sister-in-law, June Rumery Dickey; and brother-in-law, Max Johnson.

She will be dearly missed by all who knew this wonderfully kindhearted, loving and humble lady.

Born Jan. 25, 1926, in Spearfish, June lived a remarkable life with childhood, adult and tennis friends worldwide. A highly accomplished educator and athlete, June was inducted into her Spearfish High School original Hall of Fame class in 2003. She graduated from Principia College in 1948, where she earned 15 varsity letters in tennis, basketball, field hockey and softball.

She earned her MSc in Physical Education from LSU with a 4.0 GPA and subsequently headed the Women's Physical Intramural Departments at LSU (1971-1976) and Rice University (1976-1980). She achieved national United States Tennis Association No. 1 rankings in both singles and doubles in various women senior age divisions and won over 30 USTA national tennis titles in seniors women's tennis. She represented the United States on the European International Veterans and Friendship Cup tennis teams and twice won the USTA seniors tennis grand slam in 2003 and 2004, winning national championships on all four tennis surfaces, with her long time friend and doubles partner, Elaine Mason.

While rearing her three children in Baton Rouge, La., she was Women's City Bowling Champion (1968-1972) and President of the City Women's Golf Association.

June was a past Christian Science Organization Reader, past President of the Christian

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Science Women's Organization, Student Council Member and member of Phi Alpha Eta Honor Society at Principia.

Beyond these remarkable accomplishments, June exemplified an uncommon grace and humility never speaking of herself but delighting in the love of simply playing and analyzing many sports. She always tried to bring out the best in herself and with all whom she worked, played and competed with while applying her understanding of her beloved Christian Science assiduously.

Married to Robert E. McFall from 1948-1980, June is survived by her three children, Larry McFall, Sandra McFall Kamrath and husband Jack Kamrath, and Nancy McFall Clay and husband Peter Clay; brother, Clarence A. "Bob" Dickey and wife Carolyn; and grandchildren, Jeremy McFall and wife Nicole (and son Austin James "AJ"), Alissa McFall, Claudine Kamrath, Angela Kamrath, Kevin Kamrath (and daughter Lucy), Jeff Kamrath and wife Ginger, Kyle Kamrath and wife Jessica (and daughter Harper), and Ann Amato and husband Rob (and son Oliver and daughter Lily Ann); as well as numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Fondest family meaning is given to June's college roommates and dearest lifetime friends, Lyn Weatherill, Betty Thursby Marshall and Nancy Olsen. Special love and appreciation is also provided to close friend Betty Buonasera, who helped immeasurably to care for June in the last years of her life.

Friends are cordially invited to visit her family from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 13, at River Oaks Country Club for an informal remembrance service of June's life.

In lieu of flowers, donations in June's honor may be made to the charity of your choice or to Principia College, 13,201 Clayton Road, St. Louis, MO 63131-1002.

Evelyn (Sandy) Norris, passed away peacefully on July 16, 2014, in Scottsdale, Ariz., with her loving family at her side. She was born June 15, 1926, in Minneapolis, Minn., to Livingston and Evelyn "Rusty" Dickey. The family soon moved to California where she graduated from Piedmont High School. After high school, Sandy attended the University of California at Berkley where she met Westrick "Bubs" Norris when he became her knight in shining armor one evening at the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house. Sandy and Bubs were married after college and moved to San Francisco until Bubs was called to World War II and then the Korean conflict where as a proud Marine he flew many missions as a Corsair fighter pilot. Upon return they were assigned to Marine Headquarters in Quantico, Va., and then to Mojave Air Base in California where Bubs was Commanding Officer. His career in the aerospace industry took them to live in Northern California and eventually to settle for 20 years in Newport Beach, Calif. Sandy was a stay at home Mom to their two daughters Nancy and Diane. She volunteered for the Philharmonic Society and had a fun and active social life living in the community of Bayshores. Bubs' job eventually took them to Fort Walton Beach, Fla., where they lived in a beautiful setting on the water until Bubs passed away in 2006. During their life in Fort Walton Beach, Sandy was an active volunteer in the Humane Society, the Armament Museum and a member of the Eglin Yacht Club. The past two years she has lived in Scottsdale lovingly cared for by her daughter Diane.

Sandy was quite a character, she had a childlike quality about her that loved to be silly and sometimes naughty! She loved Hulk Hogan, Zinfandel wine, and anything with chocolate. She was an excellent cook and loved to entertain and she always set an elegant table. Besides being a devoted mom, she was devoted to her animals. Golden Retrievers were her favorite and Sunny and Bertha were extra special.

She is survived by her adoring daughters Nancy (Frank) and grandchildren Alexandra, Kristen and Destin; Diane Norris Myers (Phil) and grandchildren Blair, Courtney and Logan. Family members in California include her sister Corinne (Bob) Sherman, sister-in-law Jo Norris and many loving nieces and nephews whom all have so many wonderful memories and funny stories of our Goochy.

Allen, Ruth Frances , Halifax. We are sad to announce the death of Ruth "Franna" Allen, but are comforted to share that her last days were on her own terms and surrounded by family -- just how she lived her life. She died August 3rd in her own home. Ruth looked back fondly on a childhood in Meagher's Grant with her sisters, spending the warmer months outdoors, and evenings and cold days playing cards to the sounds of CBC Radio. She spent decades working in the Physics Department Office at Dalhousie University where she forged many lasting friendships. She also had a keen love for politics and social justice, and to the end of her days enjoyed nothing more than a good debate. Ruth wanted to express her gratitude for everyone who came into her life through work, family, and friends, who provided so much joy and love. Anyone who was fortunate enough to meet "Franna" -- likely over a meal, a glass of wine, or a cup of coffee-- knows that love was returned tenfold. Ruth is survived by her husband of 58 years Cameron Allen, Halifax; the "nearest thing to a brother", Robert McCabe, Meagher's Grant; her children Jennifer (Douglas Barron), Halifax; Jane (Rochelle Owen), Halifax; Andrew, Pickering ON; Ian (Jennifer), Souris PE; grandchildren Sophie, Eloise, Grant, Lily, and Olivia. She was predeceased by her father Guy Dickie and mother Evelyn (Grant) Dickie, and her sisters Phyllis Dickie, Patricia McCabe and Marie Dickie, all of Meagher's Grant.

Ruth married Cameron Allen.

FISHER, Curtis Eugene

The family of the late Curtis Fisher sadly announces his passing on Sunday morning, October 26, 2008, in the Colchester Regional Hospital in Truro. Born in South Branch, he was a son of the late Clarence and Lois (Peterson) Fisher. He is survived by his wife, the former Velma E. Deyarmond; sons, Dale (Margaret), Brookfield; Ricky (Shelley), Valley; daughters, Lori (Rod) Nielsen, Brookfield; Stephanie (Patrick) Archibald, Debert; brothers, Lloyd (Ola), Brookfield; Victor, Middle Stewiacke; sisters, Marlene (Jimmy) Feener, Doreen (Gordon) Frank, Brookfield; Nancy (David) Keddy, Truro; grandchildren, Christopher, Scott, Suzanne, Rhea, Brad, Erica, Jessica, Samuel; great-granddaughters, Brailynn, Maddelynn, Aislynn; many nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his faithful and loving companion, Lily. He was predeceased by brother, Earl in infancy; parents-in-law, Arthur and Mary Deyarmond; brother-in-law, Eldridge Deyarmond; sister-in-law, Margie Fisher; nephew, Everett Deyarmond. Curtis was a kind and humble man always willing to help anyone who needed it. He had a quick sense of humour and loved to have fun. You always felt better for having spoken to him or spent time with him no matter what you were doing. He was dedicated to his family, work and community. As a young man he became interested in cars and trucks and this was his lifelong passion. In the early 1950's he drove a log truck for Creelman's in Otterbrook,

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

followed by a stint operating a bulldozer for Ed Creelman of Brookfield Box Company. He shared many hilarious stories of his time spent there. He started driving a milk truck for Ross Ervin of Fort Ellis and in the early 1960's bought the business. He formed his own business C.E. Fisher Transport Ltd. in 1962 and worked diligently for 30 years retiring in 1992. His two sons, Dale and Ricky, drove trucks for their Dad for many years. Curtis was a member of Knox United Church, serving as a church elder for many years, and as a member of the Ministry and Personnel committee. He was on the Board of Directors of Don Henderson Memorial Sportsplex, a member of the Middle Stewiacke Bowling League, Brookfield Curling Club, as well as the Brookfield Golf and Country Club. Visitation will be held 4-6 and 7-9 p.m. today in Mattatall ~ Varner Funeral Home, 55 Young St., Truro. Funeral service will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, October 30, in Knox United Church, Brookfield, Rev. Larry Harrison officiating, with a reception to follow in the church hall. A private family interment will then be held in the Brookfield Westside Cemetery. Family flowers only. Donations in Curtis' memory may be made to Knox United Church Memorial Fund, Alzheimer Society of Nova Scotia, the Hospice Society, the Palliative Care Unit of Colchester Regional Hospital, Truro, or to a charity of your choice. Private messages of condolence may be sent to the family by visiting the "guest book" at: www.mattatallvarnerfh.com

Family of George Leslie Kennedy (233) & Cecelia Madelaine McNutt

296. Betty Lou Kennedy (George Leslie⁹, Earl⁸, David⁷, John Waddell⁶, David⁵, Janet Dickey⁴, Adam³, David Dickie², Adam¹), daughter of George Leslie Kennedy & Cecelia Madelaine McNutt. Born on 11 Jun 1953.

On 10 May 1971 when Betty Lou was 17, she married Gordon Aubrey Graham, son of Norman "Aubrey" Graham (30 Apr 1932-7 Aug 2003) & Elizabeth Dryden Deyarmond (2 Dec 1933-30 Nov 1989). Born on 15 Jul 1951. Gordon Aubrey died on 21 Apr 2012; he was 60.

Graham, Gordon Aubrey – 60, Upper Stewiacke passed away in Colchester Regional Hospital, Truro surrounded by his family on April 21, 2012. Born in Truro, N.S., he was a son of the late Aubrey and Betty (Deyarmond) Graham. He was employed in the forest industry for more than 35 years and finished his career as a Millwright in Silver Valley, Alberta. His battle with cancer brought him back home to Nova Scotia. Gordon enjoyed people, sports and life in general. Devotion to family, friends and children were foremost throughout his life. He could always be relied upon to brighten your day with his humour and quick wit. In addition to his wife, Betty (Kennedy), he is survived by son, Dennis (Laurie Lees), Brookfield; daughter, Denise, Halifax; grandchildren, Devan, Adam, Kaiden; sister, Dawn (Murray) and brother, Garnet (Gayle), both of Upper Stewiacke; honorary son, Michael Miller, Grande Prairie, Alta.; a number of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Beside his parents, he was predeceased by his mother-in-law, Cecilia Kennedy (McNutt) and brother-in-law, Christopher Kennedy. There will be no visitation by request. A memorial service and reception will be held on Thursday, April 26th at 2 pm in the Upper Stewiacke United Church. A private family committal only directly following the service at Riverside Cemetery. Family flowers only. In lieu of flowers, donations in Gordon's memory may be made to the Upper Stewiacke Village Green Park to purchase playground equipment or the Colchester County Victorian Order of Nurses. Special thanks to the 4th Floor nurses at Colchester Regional Hospital and the VON who attended to him for several years. Arrangements entrusted to Colchester Community Funeral Home, Truro.

Dickey, George Scott, age 86, Middle Stewiacke

It is with great sadness the family announces our father's passing on Dec. 18, 2014 after a long struggle with diabetes. Born in Middle Stewiacke in 1928, "Junior" was the son of the late George Sr. and Jennie (Brenton) Dickey. Dad attended Mount Allison University and N.S. Tech (civil '51). After meeting our mother, Christine, during his first job in St. John's, they moved to Montreal where Dad was a partner in Cadconex Enterprises, a successful general contracting firm for many years. He was a member of the Order of Engineers of Quebec. Dad eventually retired and moved back to Middle Stewiacke where he did a wonderful job restoring his childhood home. He was a member of the St. Anne's Curling Club in Montreal and the Truro Curling Club as well as the Truro Golf Club. Dad enjoyed weekend family trailer trips to many destinations and further travel as the children moved away. He especially loved being followed around while doing chores by his grandchildren Jonathan and Jocie as well as following grandsons Scott and Brett around the country to cheer at their canoe-kayak competitions. George is survived by his sons, George (Lorrie), Waverley, N.S., David (Isabelle), Hammonds Plains, N.S.; daughter Susan (Darrel) Pyke, Fredericton, N.B.; sisters Marnie Ross, Naples, Florida, and Jean Burwell, Mississauga, Ontario as well as special friend Barbara Fowlie. He was predeceased by his loving wife Christine (Connolly) and his brothers Lee, Ernie, and Franklyn and his sisters Marian Kenrick and Gertrude Dickey.

They had the following children:

- i. George Scott
- ii. David Edward

Appendix 2

(Index, p.265)

1. Matthew Dickie. Born in 1728. Matthew died on 20 Jan 1803; he was 75. Buried in Chipman Corner Cemetery, Kings Co., NS. Residence: Londonderry, Ireland; Cumberland Co., 1765; Cornwallis, Kings, NS.

Chipman Corner Cemetery:
Matthew Dickie, died 20 Jan 1803 in his 75th year.

"The founder of the Dickie family in Nova Scotia was Matthew Dickie, a linen merchant of Londonderry, Ireland, who with his family, about 1765, though intending to come to some one of the colonies now the United States, came instead to Cumberland county in this province. His wife was Janet (Nisbet), who belonged to the brave old race of Covenanters. In the same ship with the Dickies came the Creelmans and others who also settled in Nova Scotia. The sons of Matthew and Janet Dickie were all born in Ireland except John who was born in Cumberland, soon after the family came. Precisely how long the Dickie family remained in Cumberland county we do not know, but in a short time they crossed the Minas Basin and settled permanently in Cornwallis. There Matthew Dickie bought land paying for it the sum of 600 pounds. Many of the early members of the family are buried at Chipman's Corner. From the first the family was prosperous, and in each generation since the earliest, some members of it have been prominent in the legislature, and in other official positions."

-A.W. Eaton, History of Kings, 1910.

Matthew married Janet Nisbet. Born in 1732. Janet died on 13 Dec 1815; she was 83. Buried in Chipman Corner Cemetery, Kings Co., NS. Religion: Covenanter.

This is from Nan Harvey at the Colchester Archives -

According to the Cemetery Listing Riverside Cemetery, Upper Stewiacke, it is Oct. 7, 1837

This is what it says:

Abraham Newcomb, who fell asleep Oct. 7, 1837 age 67 yrs. He was a native of Cornwallis and 33 years a resident of Stewiacke for sometime Deacon of the Presbyterian (church) and subsequently of the Baptist Church. He was a consistent well informed Christian, a pillar in the church and ardent lover of the truth and a believer in its final triumph.

Here lies the body of Ann wife of A. Newcomb who having adorned her profession and with a hope that supported her in affection fell asleep Jan. 18, 1840 age 88 yrs.

I received this after querying her age at death -

Nova Scotia Vital Stats from Newspapers 1840-1843 by Jean Holder

Sat.25 Jan 1840, Colonial Pearl Newspaper - on Friday 22 Jan. [22 Jan was Wednesday] at Upper Stewiacke: Ann, 80, widow of Abraham Newcomb.

She would have been 58 having her youngest child - seems old but guess it could happen. That still makes her 10 years older than her husband. From the Township Books of Kings Co. NS - Cornwallis Township - Births compiled by Ross and Ruth Burgess I found the following birth dates for the early kids.

Mary Tupper Newcomb b. 11 Sept. 1795

Matthew Dickie Newcomb b. 29 Oct 1797

Third Generation

Family of William Dickie (2) & Hannah McGowan

9. Lt. Col. Robert McGowan Dickie (William², Matthew¹) Born on 17 Sep 1784 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS. Robert McGowan died in Goose River, Cumb. Co., on 14 Jan 1854; he was 69. Occupation: MPP, Represented Cumberland In The Legislature For 15 Years.

Robert McGowan married Eleanor Salisbury Chapman. Born on 29 Nov 1790. Eleanor Salisbury died on 3 Mar 1848; she was 57.

They had one child:

- i. Hon. Robert Barry. Born on 10 Nov 1811 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS. Robert Barry died on 14 Jul 1903; he was 91. Occupation: Lawyer, Senator of The Dominion Parliament, Father of Confederation.

"Robert Dickey was born in Amherst, Nova Scotia, November 10, 1811, eleven years after his fellow-townsmen and confederation colleague, Edward Chandler, and ten years before another fellow-townsmen and colleague, Charles Tupper. He was educated at Windsor Academy and began his law practice in 1834. Chandler had moved out of Amherst, but three years later another "father", Jonathan McCully, moved in. The young Dr. Tupper returned from Edinburgh University and set up his medical practice there in 1846 and became a close friend of Dickey. The town of Amherst had quite a bit to do with confederation!

Dickey was not particularly interested in the hurly-burly of political life, but accepted readily an appointment to the legislative council, possibly on the suggestion of his good friend, Tupper, who had become provincial secretary.

When in 1864 maritime union was being considered, Dickey was picked by Tupper as the conservative delegate to Charlottetown and later to Quebec. McCully was the liberal representative. Dickey was the most outspoken Nova Scotian critic of the Quebec plan. He agreed with Coles of Prince Edward Island and Chandler of New Brunswick that too much power was given to the federal government. He was in favour of the general principle of union and supported Tupper's resolution for a final conference in London.

When the federal elections were held, Dickey did not seek a seat in the commons, but accepted an appointment to the senate. A somewhat reluctant politician, he took a decreasing part in public affairs. He was rated a wealthy man and an influential citizen and possibly considered law his real career.

He died July 14, 1903, in his ninety-second year."

Five children: James Alexander, C.E., lived in Halifax; Arthur, barrister at Amherst, MP for Cumberland in the Dominion House of Commons, and late Minister of Justice for Canada; Frank Stewart, educated at Kings College, Windsor, d. young; Mary, m. to Henry E. Milner, C.E., of London, England; Ellen, m. to Martin W. Maynard, son of Canon Maynard of Windsor, NS, and lived in Ottawa. (Eaton, History of Kings Co., 1910).

Date: October 31, 2014

Greetings from the UK!

I found your report online – very comprehensive. My mother was a Dickie, daughter of Arthur Dickie of Bonnie View farm, Lower Truro (his father was Samuel Dickie, whose father was John Barnhill Dickie), but although the family lived in Colchester Co for generations, they do not seem to be in your historical document. I assume they might have been another branch of the family?

Kind regards,
Nan Millette

DICKIE, JOHN BARNHILL, teacher, farmer, shipbuilder, and politician; b. 30 March 1829 at Cornwallis, N.S., eldest son of Isaac Patton Dickie and Rebecca Barnhill; m. first on 7 Oct. 1850 Ellen Putnam, and they had three children; m. secondly in 1858 Harriet Dickson, and they had eight children; d. 5 June 1886 at Truro, N.S. John Barnhill Dickie's ancestors had come from Londonderry (Northern Ireland) to Cumberland County, N.S., about 1763. John was educated at Canard and Wolfville, N.S., then from 1847 to 1851 at the Mount Allison Wesleyan Academy in Sackville, N.B., and finally at the Halifax Free Church College. While attending the Wesleyan academy, Dickie taught in a comfortable schoolhouse at Middle Stewiacke, N.S., giving instruction in book-keeping, surveying, mensuration, algebra, and Latin to an average of 30 students. He also ran a farm in Middle Stewiacke. Later he taught mathematics at the Halifax Academy.

In 1854 Dickie was appointed coroner for Colchester County. By 1856 he had moved to Onslow where he operated both a farm and a store. He served from 1858 to 1859 as treasurer for the poor in the district of Onslow, became a justice of the peace in 1861, and for a short time in 1863 was a militia major. In 1866 he was the founder and first president of the Onslow Agricultural Society, and was appointed custos rotulorum of Colchester and a trustee of school lands in Onslow in 1868. In 1871 Dickie moved to Truro where he had been named manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, the first financial institution in that village. Between 1872 and his death he also owned shares in six vessels built along the Minas Basin shore; one, the Colchester, was reputed to have been the fastest vessel ever launched in the Bay of Fundy. He formed the Truro Marine Insurance Company in 1872 to protect his investments.

In December 1874 Dickie was elected to the assembly as an independent member for Colchester County, although his political sympathies had generally been with the Liberals. The results of the election made it uncertain whether the Liberal government of William Annand could still command a majority in the assembly, and when on 11 March 1875 Dickie accepted Annand's offer of the speakership a furore resulted. For Annand, the appointment of Dickie eliminated a potential negative vote, and rumours persisted that Dickie had sold his principles for money, prestige, or the promise of a seat in the Legislative Council. One newspaper praised Dickie at this time as "sagacious, clear-headed and able," but another described his acceptance as corrupt and treacherous. His Colchester colleague, William Albert Patterson, who left the house rather than vote against his friend, was later to refer to "the sale of the Speakership," and when Dickie was appointed to the Legislative Council three years later, the Colchester Sun labelled the appointment "The Last Act."

Dickie lacked the parliamentary training essential to rule over an almost equally divided house. In trying to satisfy all, he satisfied none. On at least three occasions his actions or rulings caused violent controversy. When, on 30 April 1875, he broke a tie vote on an amendment to a railway bill, the opposition's frustration exploded. For the first and only time in Canadian parliamentary history a resolution was carried by a vote of 20–12 requesting the speaker to resign, which he did the following day. "He had to listen to certain whereases, impeaching him of the high crimes of ignorance and incompetence, of drawing a salary under false pretences and filling a position given him as the price of treachery." His inexperience condemned him: a correct ruling would have been that the fatal motion required 48 hours notice. The Toronto Mail observed that the incident was "peculiar to Nova Scotian politics which are indeed inscrutable and past finding out."

Dickie retained his seat in the assembly until 1878, and from that year until his death sat in the Legislative Council. A quiet man, he never publicly commented upon the humiliating experience of 1875, and from his correspondence with his brother James there emerges a serene individual. An active Presbyterian, in his last years Dickie concentrated on his business and when he died of intestinal cancer in 1886 he left an estate in excess of $61,000. - ii. Anne Jennette. Born on 27 Oct 1874.
- iii. Stewart. Born on 26 Jun 1877. Dickey, Gordon Everett – Age 81 of Upper Musquodoboit. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Gordon Everett Dickey. He passed peacefully on August 23, 2017, surrounded by his family. Gordon was a son of the late Harry and Janie (Bowden) Dickey of Parrsboro. He is survived by the love of his life of 59 years, Shirley (Lamb); and their children, Lola Hill, Eva (Kenneth) Deal, Arthur (Edna), John (Teena), and Martha (Kirby) Brown. Gordon and Shirley had 13 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. He loved them deeply. He is also survived by his brother, Ralph (Judy); his sister, Helen Hutt; and his sister-in-law, Thelma Dickey; as well as many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his brother, Lloyd; brother-in-law, Lawson Hutt; and son-in-law, Robin Hill. Gordon was a man with quiet strength, who worked his whole life in the forest industry, beginning his career as a canterman in Wyvern, taking his team of horses to the woods in the winter sledding logs. He began his sawing career at C.E. Harrison and Sons under the tutelage of his friend and mentor, Wylie Gallagher. Gordon moved his family to the Musquodoboit Valley in 1966, sawing for Gilroy Brothers and then McCully and Soy for 18 years in Upper Musquodoboit. In the mid-80's through the mid-90's, Gordon's talent and drive led him to sawing for George Cooley in Thorburn, B.A. Fraser in Margaree, Clint Dixon Sawmill in Thorburn, Julimar Lumber in Brookfield, Hefler Forest Products in Sackville, retiring from Groupe Savoie in West River. He was happy to pass on his knowledge to all young men interested in sawing. In retirement, he pursued his love of wood and woodworking, which he inherited from his father and grandfather, through the many exceptionally beautiful pieces of furniture that can be found in his home and the homes of his children. He was a devoted member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, first joining the Ivanhoe IOOF Lodge in Parrsboro in 1953. He transferred to Craigmyle IOOF in Middle Musquodoboit and upon its closing, he then transferred to Phoenix IOOF in Truro. He recently received his 60 Year Jewel. Gordon lived the three tenets of the IOOF: Friendship, Love and Truth, every day of his life. Gordon was a member of the Canadian Paperworkers Union, and was President of the Local in Upper Musquodoboit for several years. He believed in volunteering and giving back to his community. He and Shirley enjoyed square dancing, ATV trips, their cottage, Sunday drives, good food, many very good friends and good music, especially the fiddle. The family extends a deep and heartfelt thank you to Dr. Barry Giffin for his exceptional care over many years. Gordon was very grateful. Also, a special thank you to the Continuing Care Nursing Services staff for their kind assistance. Cremation has taken place. Visitation will be on Sunday from 6-8 p.m., and a service to celebrate Gordon's life will be on Monday at 2 p.m., both in St. James United Church, Upper Musquodoboit, Rev. Michael Henderson officiating. By request, family flowers only. Donations in Gordon's memory may be made to the Lung Association Nova Scotia or a charity of your choice. Arrangements are under the direction of Arimathea Funeral Cooperative, Upper Musquodoboit.

31. Samuel Dickie (John Barnhill⁴, Isaac Patton³, James², Matthew¹) Born on 3 Jul 1851 in Middle Stewiacke, NS. Samuel died on 22 Dec 1938; he was 87. Buried in Onslow Island Cemetery.

On 21 Jun 1883 when Samuel was 31, he married Amelia Dunlap. Born on 26 Nov 1856 in Truro, NS. Amelia died on 25 Jan 1909; she was 52.

They had the following children:

- i. Arthur Edward. Born on 16 Apr 1884 in Onslow, Col. Co., NS.

On 16 Oct 1918 when Arthur Edward was 34, he married Margaret Fowler in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS. Born in 1886 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS.
- ii. Walter Stratton. Born on 4 Dec 1890. Walter Stratton died in Onslow, NS, on 22 Mar 1951; he was 60. Buried in Onslow Island Cemetery. Walter Stratton married Hilda Stella Richards.
- iii. Douglas R. Born on 11 Jun 1896 in Onslow, Col. Co., NS. Douglas R. died in Deerfield Beach, FL, on 25 Sep 1982; he was 86. Buried in Belmont, Colchester Co., NS.

In 1930 when Douglas R. was 33, he married Hattie Clare Putnam. Daughter of Robert Hunter Putnam and Annie Blanche Cummings. Born on 31 Jul 1896 in Lower Onslow, Col. Co., NS. Hattie Clare died in Fort Lauderdale, FL, on 6 Jan 1988; she was 91. Buried in Belmont, Col. Co., NS.

Family of James Edward Dickie (25) & Harriett Tupper (29)

32. Alfred Dickie (James Edward⁴, Isaac Patton³, James², Matthew¹) Born on 28 Mar 1860 in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Alfred died in Halifax, Nova Scotia, on 6 Sep 1929; he was 69. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.

Dr. W. R. Dickie, 95 South Park Street, Halifax, son.

DICKIE, ALFRED, lumberman, politician, and office holder; b. 28 March 1860 in Upper Stewiacke, N.S., son of James Edward Dickie, a merchant, and Harriet Tupper; m. 1886 Alice Amelia Dickie of Cornwallis, N.S., and they had three sons and two daughters; d. 6 Sept. 1929 in Halifax.

Alfred Dickie was educated in the public schools of Upper Stewiacke and at Dalhousie University in Halifax (ba 1879, ma 1883). He started his lumbering career in Stewiacke in 1890 in partnership with Avarad Black, whom he bought out after six months, forming the Alfred Dickie Lumber Company. In 1896 he acquired a property and sawmill at Tusket in Yarmouth County, where T. N. McGrath, his assistant at Stewiacke, moved as manager and half owner. The following year he purchased properties at Ship Harbour and Liscomb, and in 1904 an area on the Sherbrooke River. By 1897 his firms constituted the leading lumber exporter in Nova Scotia next to the operations of Thomas Gotobed McMullen of Truro; Dickie and McGrath held 18,000 acres in the western part of the province and Alfred Dickie Lumber had 65,000 in Colchester, Pictou, Halifax, and Guysborough counties. The produce of Dickie's Stewiacke mill was transported on the Intercolonial Railway to Halifax; lumber from the Tusket mill was sent by steamship – he owned several – and later by the Halifax and South Western Railway. In 1900 Dickie formed, and became president of, the Grand River Pulp and Lumber Company, which cut pulpwood in Labrador and held 500 square miles of timber limits around Hamilton Inlet. It was these lands that sparked the ownership dispute over Labrador between Quebec and Newfoundland, with Quebec officials intervening by stamping Dickie's pulpwood as crown wood belonging to their province.

Beneath the veneer of prosperity, however, Dickie's business ventures suffered from the natural calamities that often struck forest and sawmilling operations and from the uncertain and volatile business cycles that plagued the lumber industry. His steam mills were seriously affected by fires; by 1897 Dickie had endured at least four that destroyed or damaged his facilities. Forest operations were heavily dependent on manpower, horses, and water and snow conditions. A dearth of water or an over-abundance or lack of snow could prove disastrous. With the rapid expansion of his business, these problems clearly contributed to Dickie overextending himself. By 1904 the manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Nova Scotia, who financed his operations, was "taken severely to task" by his superior in Montreal for allowing Dickie's loans to reach the "enormous" figure of $634,040.39 without security. Dickie himself was criticized for not having incorporated his business and for carrying too little insurance on his stationary mills and none on his lumber shipments. Two years later all Dickie's assets were transferred to the Royal Bank, though he did retain one share to qualify as a director. He was appointed manager at a salary of $833 per month.

From 1904 Dickie continued to act as a prominent Nova Scotian lumber baron. He posed as an owner, continued to manage his old properties, and was the frontman in seeking to sell them. In the prospectus of sale, it was stated that, according to conservative estimates, his properties were capable of producing and exporting 50–60 million board feet per year, and that the extent of his forest lands in Nova Scotia was between 350,000 and 400,000 acres. In 1904 Dickie was instrumental, with other Nova Scotian lumbermen and the provincial government, in sponsoring a report on Nova Scotia's pulpwood lands by Robert Mason of New York and Joseph Bureau of Quebec. Two years later his Nova Scotia and Labrador properties were offered for sale by the Forest Exploration and Lumber Company of Montreal, the latter at the price of $1,000,000. On 30–31 May 1907 Dickie and McGrath played a leading role in the annual meeting in Yarmouth of the Lumbermen's Association of Western Nova Scotia; the whole group was photographed during a visit to their mill in Tusket. In 1908 there were prospects of selling the Nova Scotia properties to the Traubridge Syndicate of London, England, and Dickie requested that the Royal Bank underwrite the bonds or stocks of the syndicate to the extent of $100,000. In the end, however, the effort failed.

In October 1911 Dickie and McGrath Limited had to cancel orders because their logs had been stranded all summer as a result of drought and the cold season was about to set in. The following year Dickie lost an entire winter's output of logs in Labrador. Then, in 1913, he and the Royal Bank finally managed to dispose of most of his forest lands. An American firm, the S. D. Warren Company, purchased the Tusket lands. Archibald Fraser, of the Fraser Pulp and Lumber Company Limited in Plaster Rock, N.B., bought 247,815 acres of Dickie's remaining lands. Dickie nonetheless managed to reconstitute Dickie Lumber as the Canadian Lumber Company Limited in Stewiacke. Although he retired and moved to Halifax in 1912, he continued to serve as president of this company and have an interest in it until his death. His son Rufus Edward, a one-time president of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association, was its general manager. Despite his crash, Alfred Dickie succeeded in building up his holdings once more. He certainly thought highly of his part in Nova Scotia's lumber industry. In testimony in Halifax before the federal royal commission on pulpwood in 1923, he confidently stated that "my operations and experience, I think, are larger . . . than any other individual ever has had in Canada." At the time, he held 25,000 acres of forest lands in Nova Scotia and considerable lands in Labrador, and both tracts were for sale. In 1914 he negotiated with Walker Brothers in Boston and William Whitmer and Sons in Philadelphia for the sale of his Nova Scotia holdings but the deliberations came to naught. In the 1920s he continued to pay $160 to Newfoundland's minister of agriculture and mines for the lease of 80 square miles of timber limits in Labrador.

Throughout his career Dickie was heavily involved in public affairs. In the provincial elections of 1894 and 1897 he unsuccessfully contested the riding of Colchester, in which Stewiacke was located. He was a school commissioner for Colchester, the first mayor of the town of Stewiacke from 1906 to 1911, the president of the local branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and an elder in his Presbyterian church. In Halifax he served as school commissioner in 1921–23, and president of the North British Society. He was involved there as well in the Halifax Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, and was an elder of Fort Massey Presbyterian (United) Church.

After being confined by ill health to his home on South Park Street for two months, he passed away on 6 Sept. 1929 and was buried in the family plot at Stewiacke. Despite the ups and downs of his ventures, he died a wealthy man, with an estate valued at $315,000 plus life insurance. (Dictionary of Canadian Biography)

On 8 Sep 1885 when Alfred was 25, he married Alice Amelia Dickie (33), daughter of Edwin Eliakim Dickie (ca 1827-) & Rebecca Augusta Harris, in Canard, Kings Co., NS. Born on 8 Apr 1859 in Canard, Kings Co., NS.

Appendix 3: A Brief Ancestry of Alexanderina MacInnes

First Generation

1 Alexanderina MacInnes. Born on 8 Aug 1798 in Lower Meaghers Grant, NS. Alexanderina died in Glenmore, Musquodoboit, NS, in 1841; she was 42. Buried in Meagher's Grant, NS. Ca 1823 when Alexanderina was 24, she married Samuel Dickey.

Second Generation

2 Miles MacInnes. Born ca 1754 in Camucross, Sleat, Isle of Skye, Scotland. Miles died in Meaghers Grant, NS, in 1818; he was 64. Residence: North Carolina (1774), Halifax (1784).

Lieut. Miles MacInnes, by Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ.

Miles MacInnes departed from the Isle of Skye, Scotland to North Carolina in 1774. It has been said that he was born at Camucross, Sleat, Isle of Skye. It is also possible that he was born at North Uist. It is very possible that he was a son or close relative of John MacInnes (MacGinnis) who was the boatman for Flora MacDonald and Bonnie Prince Charlie, but I have not found any documentation to prove any of the above as yet.

Miles arrived in North Carolina in 1774 with enough money to purchase livestock and operate a plantation of 1800 acres in Anson County, North Carolina. He grew apples, peaches, wheat, corn, rye, and oats. He raised cattle, horses, sheep, and hogs. The nearest villages were Cross Creek and Campbelltown (which were merged about 1778 under the name of Campbell- town was then changed to Fayetteville in 1783). Miles probably purchased goods from this village. It was a thriving trade center with mills, pharmacy, courthouse, hotel, and general store.

Miles was appointed a lieutenant by his regiment leader Colonel Hector McNeil. He served under Captain Allen MacDonald who was commander of the Anson Battalion that was in the battle of Moore's Creek Bridge. Miles future father-in-law, Captain Angus MacDonald and Angus's son, Angus, also served in this battalion.

When the North Carolina governor called up the Highland settlers of his Province, he expected that they would march about one hundred miles to the sea-coast where British ships would arrive to transport them to Nova Scotia and they would be given training and arms in order to defend their country against rebels. But this was not the case. Before the Highlanders reached the coast of North Carolina they met a smaller and much better armed body of Yankee rebels. Unfortunately for these Highlanders, less than half were armed and those classed as "armed" had nothing other than swords. The battle took place at Moore's Creek Bridge February 27, 1776. In the brief battle Highlanders were outmaneuvered by the highly skilled Americans. A few were killed and more than 800 taken prisoners. Included among the prisoners were Allen MacDonald of Kingsburgh and his two sons, our Capt. Angus MacDonald, and our Lieut. Miles MacInnes. Since there were so many prisoners and not nearly enough Yankees to guard them, the younger men were released. They were told to go home and think about joining the Yankee cause. Some of the Highland prisoners escaped.

Miles MacInnes was among those captured. He was carried to the Cross Creek jail where he was "loaded with irons and suffered many cruelties." When word came of the approach of a large British force, the rebels removed his chains and he made his escape to the British Army.

Miles MacInnes continue to serve as a lieutenant in the British forces under Colonel Ray. He served on active duty in the Carolinas, Georgia, and Florida, until 1783. For the last few months of his military service he was in St. Augustine, Florida.

Miles' property was confiscated. After the war he went to London to present his claims for losses suffered in North Carolina arriving December 9, 1783. He had excellent references and letters of recommendation from high officials, but things moved slowly. In late summer 1784, (nearly a year later) he was awarded about 45% of his losses and given permission to emigrate to Nova Scotia, where he had friends and connections. His old unit and the 84th Royal Highland Emigrant Regiment had been sent there a few years earlier and mustered out at Windsor, Nova Scotia at the end of the war. The soldiers were given land in Nova Scotia provided they stayed.

After the deportation of the French Acadians, the British offered free land and vacant farms in Nova Scotia to anyone willing to settle. Many New Englanders, including our Dickeys and other groups from Scotland, the British Isles, and German states along the Rhine came to settle. Two hundred Scots settled at Pictou, Nova Scotia in 1773 from the ship Hector. They were the first of a vast wave of Highlanders who crossed the Atlantic seeking a better life. These Highlanders settled mainly on Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island.

In 1775, when the Revolution broke out in America, it seemed likely that Nova Scotia would join the other thirteen colonies. This did not happen. It remained a Crown Colony and thus Nova Scotia became one of the main receiving points for the flood of Loyalists who fled the new United States after the war. In all, about 30,000 people settled in Nova Scotia mainly along the Atlantic Coast. The arrival of so many people, some of them very influential, transformed Nova Scotia into a busy Crown Colony.

Megher's Grant was a grant of land comprising about 9000 acres near Halifax. For the purpose of colonization, this land was granted to "Bachelor Meagher" a Major in the British Army in 1765. One of these Loyalist colonists was our Miles MacInnes.

Miles MacInnes was a single man when he arrived in Halifax, Nova Scotia in the autumn of 1784. He was awarded 200 pounds sterling for his property losses in North Carolina and he received "half-pay" for one year, and a pension of 20 pounds per annum from 1783 to 1790, when the amount was reduced to 16 pounds sterling per annum. The Pension Rolls show that he was paid until 1818 and from that date the pension was paid to his widow, Christiana MacDonald MacInnes.

Miles was promised 200 acres on the Musquodoboit River as soon as it could be surveyed, but he had to wait until December 1785 before that was done. Miles and another loyalist named Daniel Blue and Andrew Murphy, were the first three white settlers on that part of the Musquodoboit River. This area is located above the rapids (falls) that are located about two and a half miles from the mouth of the river, which is a few miles north east of Halifax.

A settlement had been started in 1784 on the headwaters of the Musquodoboit River by men from Truro and Onslow by way of the Stewiacke River and that settlement extended downstream.

The Dickeys were in this group of settlers and married into the MacInnes family. But Miles and his companions were the first white settlers to come into the Musquodoboit Valley from the Atlantic Coast and extend the settlement northward.

This settlement on the Musquodoboit River, Halifax county, was made up of Scottish North Carolinians. It was a nucleus of ten men, four women, and two children who settled there as early as May of 1784. Most of the men had served in the Militia and were from Cumberland and Anson county, North Carolina. Miles MacInnes was one of these Musquodoboit settlers.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

The grant of land which Miles was to settle was stony, uncultivated, and full of underbrush, but fertile. When they first went in, they had to cut roads around three waterfalls. Miles and his party missed the distribution of food and tools which the provincial government made to the loyalists and during the first year they had to eat their seed potatoes. By the time they got more from Halifax the following year the season was too far advanced for a successful crop. Miles said the only communication with Halifax was by water and that was hazardous most of the year.

Even though Miles built a log house on this land, he found the land unsuitable for farming and tried to obtain another grant of land farther up the river. Unfortunately all the good land had been already granted to others, particularly a large area granted to Martin Meagher.

This district is now called Meagher's Grant, named for "Bachelor Meagher." This grant of land was comprised of some 9000 acres. It is documented that Ranald MacDonald, one of the first settlers came from the United States. Ranald was born on the Isle of Skye, a loyalist and believed to be the son of Flora MacDonald. Archibald Crawford, another early settler, married Mary MacDonald, daughter of Angus MacDonald and sister of Christiana who married Miles MacInnes. Another early settler was John Dunbrack, a Scotchman, who married Catherine MacDougall and her brother, Alexander MacDougall married Catherine MacDonald, another sister of Christiana MacDonald.

About 1790, Miles purchased some land a few miles up stream from where he first settled on a farm known as the Parker Place (owned in 1980 by Fulton Dunbrack) and a few years later moved to a farm where he resided for the remainder of his life. Miles son, Malcolm remained in the home and raised a family of sixteen. It was eventually sold to Wellington Kent, then to a Dr. Wilson, and in 1980 to Robert Misiner. It is on Lay Lake Road and just west of where the Lower Meagher's Grant school was located in 1987. His neighbors included Angus MacDonald, Archibald Crawford, Jacob Bayer (Byer), a son of George Bayer, Sr. formerly of Frankfort on-the-Main, Germany, James Cruickshank, and John Dunbrack to name a few.

The first time Miles MacInnes saw his wife was when he and some other officers were on a trip to McNabb's Island and unexpectedly came on the three MacDonald girls while bathing.

On September 19, 1789, Miles MacInnes married Christiana in St. Paul's Church in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Two of Christiana's sisters were married to neighbors of Miles; her sister Mary became the wife of Archibald Crawford and her sister Alexandrina, better known as "Lexy," became the wife of Jacob Bayer. A third sister Catherine married Alexander MacDougall.

In 1810, Miles MacInnes signed as a witness to the Will of Alexander Mackenzie, Lake Egmont, Halifax County, N.S. The other witness was to the Will were Ranald MacDonald and James MacDonald.

Miles MacInnes was instrumental in getting a road from Meagher's Grant to Halifax. He became a Justice of the Peace and was a prominent citizen of the district. In 1814, he and Archibald Crawford applied for Crown Land on West River St. Mary's, where they hoped to raise cattle. Each was to receive a grant of 500 acres, but before the land could be granted, Miles MacInnes died and the land reverted to the government.

Miles died in 1818 and Christiana died in 1853 at the age of 84. Miles MacInnes apparently died without a Will. For no stated reason, the estate was not settled until about 1834, when part of his land at Meagher's Grant was conveyed by a deed to his son Malcolm. The deed was signed by the other heirs. Other nearby land was conveyed to his son Angus. The names of the female heirs were:

Ann McDougal (no mention of name of husband)
Jennet Logan, wife of Robert A. Logan.
Mary Cruickshanks, wife of James Cruickshanks.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Alexandrina Dickey, wife of Samuel Dickey.
Christiana Cruickshanks, wife of Alexander Cruickshanks.
Elisa Ann McInnes,
(a daughter born 1816)

Miles MacInnes and Christiana MacDonald MacInnes had 9 children who produced at least 60 grandchildren all whom lived to be adults and had large families. Their descendants are now widely scattered over Canada and the United States and have included men and women who became lawyers, doctors, educators, bankers, engineers, explorers, publishers, military officers, nurses and writers.

* In all documents signed by Miles MacInnes the surname is spelled MacInnes. In deeds signed by his heirs in 1834 the name appears as MacInness. In a map of Halifax County showing names of householders about 1860 the name appears as McGinnes and as McGinness. In some books, such as "Historical and Genealogical Record of the First Settlers of Colchester County" by Thomas Miller, the name appears as McInnis.

* In a story about the early settlers of Meagher's Grant by A.B. Lay, he stated that when ever you hear the name MacInnes you will find carpenters. It has been said of Malcolm MacInnes that he could build a mill with a square, saw and broad axe."

More on Miles MacInnes can be found in "Highlanders from Skye, in North Carolina and in Nova Scotia: 1771-1818", By Robert Archibald Logan, Scottish genealogist, 1966, Vol. 12(4): 92-108.

On 19 Sep 1789 when Miles was 35, he married Christiana MacDonald in Halifax, NS.

They had the following children:

3 Christiana MacDonald. Born in 1769 in Isle Of Skye, Scotland. Christiana died in Meaghers Grant, NS, in 1853; she was 84. Residence: North Carolina (1773), Halifax (1778).

Christiana was the daughter of Angus MacDonald the VIII of Griminish, North Uist and Catherine MacLeod, the daughter of the Rev. Donald MacLeod of Skye and Ann MacLean of Boreray. Christiana was born on the Isle of Skye in 1769. She was about five years old when she went with her family to North Carolina in 1773.

After the American Revolution the family settled in Nova Scotia and on September 19, 1789 Christiana married Lieut. Miles MacInnes in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Christiana's father, Captain Angus R. MacDonald the VIII of Griminish was a descendant of Hugh (Uisduin) Alexander, First of Sleat and his thrid wife, the daughter of MacLeod of Harris. Christiana's mother, Catherine MacLeod was born about 1731 in Skye and died 1813 in Nova Scotia. Christiana's lineage goes back to Somerled through John, First Lord of the Isles and both of his wives, Amy MacRuari and Priness Margaret Ross Stewart.

The first time Miles MacInnes saw his wife was when he and some other officers were on a trip to McNabb's Island and unexpectedly came on the three MacDonald girls while bathing. Christiana and Miles were married in Halifax, Nova Scotia on September 19, 1789. Miles MacInnes died in 1818 and Christiana died in 1853 at the age of 84. From the Nova Scotian, a newspaper clipping said:

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

"At Musquodoboit, aged 84 years, Mrs. MacInnes, widow of Mr. MacInnes, an officer of the British Navy. She was born on the Isle of Skye, and arrived in America before the war of independence. After the Revolution she came to Nova Scotia and married, and has left behind her a numerous family of children, grandchildren and great grand children...."

Miles MacInnes and Christiana MacDonald MacInnes had 9 children who produced at least 60 grand-children all whom lived to be adults and had large families. Their descendants are now widely scattered over Canada and the United States and have included men and women who became lawyers, doctors, educators, bankers, engineers, explorers, publishers, military officers, nurses and writers.

All of the ancestry of Christiana MacDonald, which includes Kings of both Scotland and England and many Barons and Knights, has come from Flo Dickey, the Burkes and Scots Peerages, and the Clan website genealogies for Clan MacDonald, Clan MacLean, Clan MacLeod and Clan MacFarlane.

Third Generation

6 Angus (VIII) MacDonald. Born in Griminish, North Uist, Scotland. Angus (VIII) died in 1802 in Meaghers Grant, NS.

Angus MacDonald, VIII of Griminish of Scotland, North Carolina & Nova Scotia
by Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ

Angus and his brother Archibald, the sons of John MacDonald, VII of Griminish and Ann MacDonald of Balivqueen, appear about the same time as 'on record as of Griminish and Scolpig'.

Tradition tells that Angus of Griminish, evidently on his succeeding his father, was hoodwinked into a scheme of emigration by several of the North Uist gentlemen, who pretended that they were to cross the seas to America.

Angus is said to have been masterful and domineering and his neighbors devised this somewhat dubious plan to get him out of the country. Be this as it may, Angus alone made genuine preparations for the voyage to America while the others kept up the deception to the very end by sending packing cases laden with peats and other similar contents to the port of embarkation.

At first, Angus was taken in by this ruse; but afterwards, when it was too late he sailed for the new world. Angus, having given up the tenure of Griminish for the new world, his brother Archibald came into possession as tacksman of Griminish.

A poem by John MacCodum, the North Uist poet, bemoans the emigration. But the poem states that Angus was a man of considerable wealth, nobility and much stature in North Uist.

Angus was living in Griminish prior to his father's death in 1765 and was then on record as Angus of Griminish. One could assume that Angus went to America after his father's death in 1765. It is said he did not find a congenial home in the new world and returned to Scotland before 1769. However circumstances change and he returned to America and settled in North Carolina with his wife and some of his children in December 1773. Angus was married when he went to America the first time and his wife, Catherine stayed with her parent's family on the Isle of Skye during his absence as three of their daughters were born on the Isle of Skye; Mary born 1767 and Christiania "Christy" born 1769 and Catherine born 1773.

In the later part of 1773, Angus and his family set sail for North Carolina and arrived in December of 1773. Also on the same voyage in 1773 were three young neighbors and cousins of Angus' from Knockline in North Uist. They were Marion, Janet, and Angus, children of Donald MacDonald. These young people came over as servants to pay for their passage. They were just a few of the many Highlanders that left their homeland for the new world. The following story relates the reasons for this move.

In 1746, following the Battle of Culloden, the Parliament of Britain passed some harsh laws to abolish the Highland Clans. The use of the tartans and the wearing of kilts were prohibited. These measures were endorsed by the occupying army. Local government thereafter was to be by Government appointed officials. No Highlander was allowed to own any arms. All this meant was that the clan chief would have no further use for the tacksmen except as tenants. A clan could survive only so long as the chief adhered to the ancient principles and they all had a perfectly valid legal right to lay those principles aside and rent the land for the best price it would bring. Sooner or later every clan chief adopted the new order of things. The tacksmen did not like it. They were as equally determined to emigrate rather than accept the new law.

This is what happened in the case of our Skye and Uist MacDonalds. In 1746 Sir Alexander of Sleat, the Chief, died the same year of the new laws. His oldest son, James, was a minor. Old Kingsburg was his tutor. James was given a good education, and when he took over the reins, he had not the remotest idea of doing differently from the long established custom. Every clansmen loved him and it was reciprocal. But Sir James died in 1766 at the age of 26 and unmarried. The next in line to inherit the chiefship was the next brother, Alexander. He had been educated in London, and perhaps no thought had been given to the possibility that he might some day be chief. He began to rent his land for the best price he could get regardless of kinship. As rapidly as leases expired the tacksmen were to pay higher rents or leave and leave they did. There was propaganda widely circulated that greatly hurt the pride of the tacksmen, to the effect that they were robbing the chiefs with one hand and the poor people with the other. Dr. Johnson discusses this at length in "The Tour of the Hebrides."

In 1759 a regiment was raised on the estates of Sir James MacDonald, and led by Montgomery, a brother of the mother of Sir James. In order to enlist the Highlanders, Prime Minister William Pitt decided to allow them to organize pure Highland regiments and permit them to wear kilts and be led by their own officers. Fourteen hundred men volunteered and officers were commissioned. They first saw action in New York and Pennsylvania and by 1761 a report came in that the Cherokees were molesting the western Carolinas. Montgomery, with 700 of these men, went to the Carolinas for about a year. Returning north they were discharged at the end of the French and Indian War of 1763. They were offered free land if they wanted to settle in America, or passage if they wanted to go home. But this group of MacDonald men returned to Skye and Uist. Naturally these men would learn a lot about the country during their stay in the Carolinas and tell about it back in Skye.

In 1771, James MacDonald of Heisker, Hugh "One-eye" MacDonald of Armadale, and several other MacDonalds applied for a grant of 40,000 acres of public land in North Carolina for themselves and their families.

In 1772, Hugh was back in North Carolina and bought land on Mountain Creek and returned to Skye and was there in October 1773 to ferry Johnson and Boswell to Mull and returned to North Carolina in 1774 to build a grist mill for the new settlers. In other words the clan was about to move its place of abode, and as Johnson expresses it, carry along their kindred, their customs, their language, etc. and "change nothing but their place of abode and of that they see the advantage."

In December 1773, Angus, his wife Catherine and five children arrived in North Carolina and settled immediately on land transferred to him by Alexander MacDonald, 5th of Cuidreach. In the later part of 1774, arrivals from Skye included Flora MacDonald and her husband, Alan MacDonald of Kingsburgh, their sons, Alexander, and James and their daughter Anne and her husband, Alexander MacLeod of Dunvegan, Isle of Skye; also Donald MacDonald son of Alexander MacDonald, 5th of Cuidreach and Miles MacInnes. Three young neighbors of Angus, from Knockline in North Uist came on the same passage with Angus to America in 1773. They were Marion and Janet daughters of Angus MacDonald and their cousin Angus, son of Donald MacDonald a relative. These young people came over as servants to pay for their passage.

Angus MacDonald had purchased several other tracts of land and by the time the Highlanders were mobilized at Cross Creek in February, 1776, he owned a total of 1861 acres. He received a commission as Captain from the governor of North Carolina and was in command of his company when taken prisoner at Moore's Creek Bridge, February 27, 1776.

Miles MacInnes, Flora MacDonald, her husband Allen of Kingsburgh, their sons Alexander and James, a daughter Ann and son in law Alexander MacLeod, Donald MacDonald (son of Alexander 5th of Cuidreach) all arrived in Anson County in 1774, most likely on the ship "Cato" arrived from Scotland carrying 312 Highlanders, in December of 1774, all from the Isle of Skye (Port of Brunswick Record Book). They settled in the Cape Fear basin where their relatives had settled a year earlier.

The nearest villages were Cross Creek and Campbelltown, which were merged about 1778 under the name of Campbelltown which was changed to Fayetteville in 1783.

Soon after their arrival trouble began in New England between the British and the American colonies. Two Scottish officers of the British Army were sent to North Carolina to organize a regiment of Highlanders to help support the British cause. They were Major Donald MacDonald and Captain Donald MacLeod, cousins of our descendants in North Carolina.

Many of the Scottish settlers in North Carolina were born in America or had become Americanized and favored the Yankee cause. Some wanted to remain neutral as they knew the treatment they or their parents had received from the English troops in Scotland when they had gone against the English government in the Rising of 1745. Those who arrived only a few years before 1775 were not free to make a choice as they had taken an oath of loyalty prior to their arrival in America. These newly arrived Scots, our ancestors, had lost so much in Scotland, they did not want to risk losing all their possessions in this new homeland. Most of the newcomers still had family back in Skye and feared reprisals if they supported the Yankee cause.

The British Government was well aware of this and tried to round up all the Highland men and transport them to known loyal territory as soon as possible, before they could be persuaded to join the Yankees. It was for this reason that Major Donald MacDonald and Captain Donald MacLeod were sent to North Carolina. Flora MacDonald, having gone against the British before in helping Bonnie Prince Charles, knew exactly what the repercussions would be. Consequently she was very willing to support the British and help persuade her family and friends to do so as well. Soon Major MacDonald, Captain MacLeod and about 1500 men began marching to the sea coast where they expected to be taken by ship to Halifax, Nova Scotia for training and arms, then return to Anson County to fight the Yankees. They joined the Highland Emigrant Regiment and they wore their tartans and kilts with pride. Unfortunately for these Highlanders, less than half were armed and those classed as "armed" had nothing other than swords. They were met by a smaller but well armed force of Yankees at a place known as Moore's Creek Bridge February 27, 1776. In the brief battle, Highlanders were outmaneuvered by the highly skilled Americans. Some were killed, including Captain Angus's son, and more than half taken prisoner. Included among the prisoners were Allen MacDonald of Kingsburgh and his two sons, Captain Angus MacDonald, and Lieut. Miles MacInnes. Since there were so many prisoners and not nearly enough Yankees to guard them, the younger men were released. They were told to go home and think about joining the Yankee cause. Some of the Highland prisoners escaped.

On October 28, 1785, in London, England, Captain Angus MacDonald submitted his claim to the Commission appointed by the British Government to settle claims of American Loyalists.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

His claim stated that he had resided in North Carolina from December, 1773, until he was taken prisoner by the enemy in February of 1776. He took an active part in the uprising of Highlanders at Cross Creek and was taken prisoner February 27, 1776. He remained a prisoner over two years. After being released he rejoined the British forces and served until "the Peace.." He submitted a "Schedule" of property losses in North Carolina; lost when his possessions were taken or destroyed by the Americans. Angus claimed the loss of 5 tracts of land, each of which was operated as a plantation complete with buildings, horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, tools, and equipment. Two of the plantations were equipped with grist mills. The land areas were all in Cumberland County, in the vicinity of Cranes Creek, which is northwest of Fayetteville. The different tracts had areas of 400, 300, 250, 256, and 655 acres, for a total area of 1861 acres. Angus also claimed the loss of 94 sheep, 10 horses, 70 hogs, and 39 cattle. Several of his plantation were rented to tenants.

On October 28, 1785 his case was heard in London. In sworn testimony, he stated that he arrived in North Carolina in December, 1773 and settled at Cranes Creek in February of 1774. After being captured he was kept in close confinement for a year and was then let out on parole. After his release, he joined the British Army in Philadelphia in 1777. He obtained a lieutenancy in the PIONEERS AND GUIDES in 1778. He was at the siege of Charleston, and later Captain in the NORTH CAROLINA HIGHLANDERS and continued with them until the peace. He went from New York to North Carolina to rescue his wife and five children, who had lived on his home estate until they were forced to flee, without any possessions, in 1781.

From North Carolina, Angus took his family to Nova Scotia, where they lived until he started his voyage to England to try to recover his losses. Angus arrived in London a few days before the hearings, October 20, 1785. The evidence of the hearings shows that he produced a conveyance, dated 1 April 1774, for four tracts of land totaling 400 acres purchased from Alexander MacDonald. Alexander MacDonald of Cuidreach, on the Isle of Skye, was married to a half sister of Flora MacDonald. She was a daughter of Flora's mother and her second husband, Captain "One-eyed" Hugh MacDonald. Angus stated that when he arrived in North Carolina he carried over 300 guineas, a draft for 1340 guineas, and goods and possessions having a total value of about 700 pounds sterling. He could not produce deeds for the other tracts of land because they had been left in "the office" in North Carolina but he gave the following information;

300 acre tract purchased from a man named Cameron, 1774

250 acre tract purchased from a man named Gilmore, March or April of 1775

256 acre tract purchased from a man named Matthews, May 1775.

655 acre tract purchased from a man named Bowie.

He claimed loss of crops totalling 1000 bushels of indian-corn and 150 bushels of wheat. In 1781, his wife and children were forced to leave home without even a "second shift."

A supporting witness to these claims was Captain Alexander Morrison who had known both Captain Alexander and Captain Angus MacDonald in Scotland and North Carolina. He lived eight or nine miles from Angus, in North Carolina. He was with them when they made the bargain for the land at Cranes Creek. He said that Angus MacDonald was a man of good character and had brought property into the country.

Another witness, Donald Shaw (son in law of Morrison), had known Angus in America and before, and spoke highly of him.

There is nothing in the file to show when a decision was made about the property losses, but there is a document showing the following:

Captain Angus MacDonald waited in London for four months without receiving payment. Angus had given his tenure of Griminish to his brother Archibald before leaving for America. Some time during his the waiting period in London, Angus returned to his native Uist. However, he did not go back to his ancestors in Griminish, but resided at Balranald, then occupied by his kinsman, Donald MacDonald.

He presented another claim on or soon after, February 17, 1786 asking that some form of aid or temporary support be given him until he "might receive compensation for his lost property," and he gave the following reasons;

He had served in the rebellion in America and his wife and family had been forced to remain in the hands of the enemy who plundered them of their effects and confiscated all his estate.

Before the evacuation of New York (November, 1783) he returned to North Carolina for his family and took them to Nova Scotia "where they are now" and with whom he had remained until he came to England to have his claim heard. Since his arrival in England, he had been examined by the Commissioners for the Loyalist Claims, his claim "amounting in Carolina currency to 3393-17 pounds, equal in Sterling to about 1936-6-4." He had to refurnish his family with clothing, household furniture, and equipment; to purchase tools for farming; "to build a house in the wilderness" and, this, exhausted all his finances and involved him greatly in debt, he having no resources other than his half-pay, and "what is still a greater sting to his feelings as a husband, and a father, that for want of means, he is unable to go back to his family."

Josiah Martin, who had been governor of North Carolina when Angus lived there, was then in London. He wrote a letter, dated 17 February 1786, supporting the Memorial and recommending that "a temporary aid, or subsistence, be awarded to Captain Angus MacDonald to enable him to return to his family in Nova Scotia."

Captain Angus was called for a hearing on February 25, 1786. In the record of that hearing, the following information can be found:

He went to North Carolina, December 1773.

He raised a company of 250 men and joined Major Donald MacDonald's forces by order of Governor Josiah Martin. He had two commissions of Captain; one from Governor Martin and one from Lord Cornwallis. He had half pay as Captain.

After the peace, he went to Nova Scotia with his wife and children.

He came to England in October 1785.

His case was heard October 28, 1785, Loss of 1939 pounds Sterling, Intends to return to Nova Scotia at first opportunity.

The Commissioners evidently thought it better to send him back home to Nova Scotia than to pay his support in London until his claim was paid. The decision was to pay him 25 pounds "to defray the expense of his return to Nova Scotia."

It is assumed that he returned as soon as possible and that the compensation for property losses was paid to him after his return to Nova Scotia. Of all the American loyalists named MacDonald who submitted claims to the British government for property losses in North Carolina, Captain Angus MacDonald was the one who received the largest amount of compensation. With all his land, he probably had slaves but, unlike some of his neighboring claimants, he did not submit any claim to the British government for the loss of slaves. It is probable that when he went back to North Carolina, to rescue his wife and children, he also rescued some of his slaves and took them to Nova Scotia, with the family. This would explain the story in Nova Scotia that he brought his wife and family, and slaves to that country.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Angus and his family settled in Kennetcook, Hants County, Nova Scotia. For some reason they spent a lot of time on MacNabb's Island, according to an article written, August 10, 1901, by J.D. Bayer, a great grand son of Angus. Bayer states that his great grandfather Angus came to Nova Scotia from Florida, where he had a plantation of some size and a dozen slaves. That they originally came from the Isle of Skye and his great grandmother was married after the celebrated Flora MacDonald who was married to Allan MacDonald of Kingsburg.

*One must remember that a lot of people in Nova Scotia thought of the eastern sea coast of the United States as one giant Florida and then Miles was in Florida prior to Nova Scotia may be the source of this statement. Flora married Alan of Kingsburg Nov.6, 1750, did Bayer mean that his great grand parents married after that date?**

Captain Angus MacDonald married Catherine MacLeod, the daughter of the Rev. Donald MacLeod III of Greshornish (1698-1759), Skye and Ann MacLean, the daughter of the Rev. John Maclean the second son of John MacLean, 8th of Boreray. The Rev. Donald MacLeod III of Greshornish served as a missionary to the Island of Benbecula, in 1736 to North Uist and 1754 to Duirinish on Skye. He spent most of his ministry in the outer Hebrides.

Captain Angus MacDonald and Catherine MacLeod had several children;

1. Donald, born in North Uist (c.1750), was alive in 1795 and living in North Uist at that time.
2. Angus, born in North Uist, married Margaret Buchanan. He died in the Battle of Moore's Creek Bridge or shortly thereafter of wounds.
3. Alexander, born in North Uist, died in Nova Scotia.
4. Mary, born about 1767 on the Isle of Skye, married Archibald Crawford of Nova Scotia.
5. CHRISTIANA "Christy" born about 1769 on the Isle of Skye, married MILES MacINNES of Skye, North Carolina and Nova Scotia. (Bayer said he remembered hearing that the first time Captain Miles MacInnes saw his wife was when he and some other officers were on a trip to MacNabb's Island and unexpectedly came upon the three MacDonald girls bathing.)
6. Alexanderina "Lexy" married Jacob Bayer, Nova Scotia.
7. Catherine born ca. 1773, married Alexander MacDougal, Nova Scotia.

After the marriage of Christy to Miles MacInnes, Captain Angus MacDonald moved to Meagher's Grant. The old cellar of his house could be seen in 1910. Each of the MacDonald girls received two slaves. Tom Wade of Windsor Junction is a son of one of the girls given to Christy MacInnes, Black Charlotte. The other one also named Charlotte, married a former southern slave named Dennis McGruda.

Charlotte lived in a small log cabin on the MacInnes' farm, and one night when Dennis came a courting, the MacInnes boys crept up to the shanty to listen. Dennis first knelt down and said a long prayer after which he managed to pop the momentous question, and in a very short time Mr. MacInnes, who was a Justice of the Peace, had to perform the marriage ceremony for the happy couple.

Dennis McGruda got to Nova Scotia by guiding the British to a Yankee stronghold in the war of 1812. The British found him at work for his master and compelled him to show them where the enemy was by promising him his freedom. They were good as their word, and that's how Dennis McGruda got to Nova Scotia.

Captain Angus MacDonald received half pay of Captain till 1813.

From Moore County Court Minutes of February 22, 1785:

"Thomas Matthews came into court and on oath returned the following articles of the estate of Angus MacDonald liable for confiscation to wit: 200 acres of land, 9 pounds and 15 shillings, one surveyors chain, 2 head of cattle and one horse in the hands of Thomas Collins."

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

* Moore County Court Minutes of August 21, 1792:

"A Letter of Attorney from Anguish McDaniel to Ferquard Campbell was duly proved before Samuel Ashe, Esq. one of the judges of the Superior Court and Ordered to be registered."

It would therefore appear that Captain Angus MacDonald, then in Nova Scotia, had some hopes of recovering at least a part of his property. The foregoing claim is quite different in form from those filed by others of the Highlanders. Whereas other claims are submitted with certificates from officers who were captured at Moore's Creek, Capt. MacDonald produced only two, one from Dr. Morrison; the other from Donald Shaw, (Dr. Morrison's son in law) and these only mildly certified to his loyalty and scarcely at all to his property. The entire claim is confused and one can hardly tell just how much property he lost. The 400 acre tract referred to was sold to him by Alexander MacDonald of Mt. Pleasant, North Carolina, and the deed is recorded in Fayetteville. The other deeds referred to as having been left "in the office" are not of record. The 400 acres mentioned lay on, and is believed to include the mouth of Little Crane's Creek where it enters Big Crane's Creek, just below the railroad between Cameron and Vass. The mill mentioned was originally built by Thomas Gilmore, and at one time known as the Keith, Muckle and Stokes's Mill. In the early days of the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line, this place was a flag-stop, and was known as Walnut Grove. A few of these trees still grow in the vicinity.

Ca 1750 Angus (VIII) married Catherine MacLeod in Isle Of Skye.

They had the following children:

7 Catherine MacLeod. Born in 1731 in Isle Of Skye, Scotland. Catherine died in Meaghers Grant, NS, in 1813; she was 82.

Catherine's grandparents were the Rev. John MacLean the second son John MacLean, VIII of Boreray and Mary MacDonald of Morar, the daughter of Alexander MacDonald, 6th of Morar and Anne MacDonald of Sleat. Her other set of grandparents were Alexander MacLeod III of Greshornish, Skye the son of Norman MacLeod, 2nd of Greshornish and Catherine MacLean of Coll.
