

The James Fraser Family of Douglas Township, Hants County, Nova Scotia

My father's grandmother was Frances Ann (Fraser) Wright, and this report is the descendency of her great-grandfather James Fraser, who settled in Douglas Township as a disbanded United States Revolutionary War soldier. I am grateful to my father's 1st cousin Beulah Wright who supplied most of the early research and documentation. Most of the data is from J. V. Duncanson's compilations of early Douglas settlers, Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics (NSHVS; www.novascotiagenealogy.com), Canadian census data, US vital statistics from familysearch.org and cemetery inscriptions.

First Generation ¹

1. James Fraser. Born on 25 Dec 1753 in Scotland. James died in Nine Mile River, N.S., on 16 Nov 1820; he was 66. Occupation: Soldier, Farmer. Residence: Nine Mile River.

The story of James Fraser's arrival in Nova Scotia is an interesting one. Although family members long believed that their ancestor had come in on the ship "Hector", there was no one named in the passenger list that could have been the one settled in Hants County. And where had his wife, Margaret Cameron, a widow with two small children, come from? Or the MacPhees or Scotts? And the other Scottish settlers in the area? John Victor Duncanson's book "Rawdon and Douglas: Two Loyalist Townships in Nova Scotia," explains their origins. On October 3rd, 1775, the emigrant ship "Glasgow", out of Glasgow, Scotland, arrived in New York harbour after being detained by HMS "Asia". Because of the revolution the 255 emigrants were prevented from disembarking and on November 5th the ship was ordered on to Boston. There they met with Major John Small who had been given the task of recruiting members for a newly formed Royal Highland Emigrant regiment and who proposed that they all join, and if they did, the wives and children would be looked after for the duration of the war. The emigrants agreed (probably didn't feel that they had much choice!) The ship was recommissioned as a government vessel, renamed the "Glasgow Packet" and they all set sail for Halifax, the 2nd battalion's training base, arriving on January 2nd, 1776. Captain MacDonald in Halifax complained that there were almost as many women on board as men, and that their luggage was enough to fill St. Paul's church! Major Small assumed command over the full 2nd battalion, which was increased by the arrival of soldiers from Boston, and detachments of the battalion were posted all over Nova Scotia to help protect from invasions. In 1778, Major Small moved the 2nd battalion to Fort Edward, Windsor. The women and children accompanied the troops by ship from Halifax to the Bay of Fundy and to the fort at Windsor. On Oct 10th 1783, the 84th regiment was disbanded at Windsor. The newly promoted Colonel Small applied for grants for his men and the grant was given to small in trust for the families. Colonel Small parceled it out to individuals, but unfortunately when he returned to England later his house was destroyed by fire and all the records also, making it necessary for the families to re-petition for their lands at a later time. Many of the men were not willing to stay on the rugged wooded lands they had been given. Some had relatives already settled in Nova Scotia, in Pictou County and chose to settle near them. But there were many that began the task of clearing land, improving their grants and - finally - settling in their new homeland. One of the emigrants was Donald Cameron, from Glen Urquhart, Inverness-shire in Scotland. He had emigrated with his family and considerable property, intending to settle in New York, but had been waylaid by the revolution. He had with him, four sons, two daughters and their families. In the regiment besides himself were the four sons (one being a drummer boy, fifteen years at his discharge!), two sons-in-law, two brothers and three nephews. One of the daughters was Margaret, who had married one of the members of the regiment, William Forbes, and had three small children. William Forbes received his grant at Nine Mile River, but apparently died soon after. His widow, Margaret Forbes, remarried James Fraser and James brought up the Forbes children with his own. His family is listed in the Douglas township book. At the time he re-petitioned for his land, he had his wife and six children, one step child and two orphaned step grandchildren, but he was in ill health, and by the time the land was granted, he had died and the grant was given to his widow and two sons, James and George, as the boys had come of age and were fulfilling the requirements of improving their lands. It is not known where in Scotland James Fraser was born, but since he appeared to be in the company of the Cameron family, when he arrived, speculation would appear that he may also have come from Inverness-shire.

James Fraser of Hants County, NS

Donald Cameron was born 1729 in Seiceart, Glen Urquhart, Inverness-shire in Scotland. He had emigrated with his family and considerable property, intending to settle in New York, but had been waylaid by the revolution. He had with him, four sons, two daughters and their families. In the regiment besides himself were the four sons (one being a drummer boy, fifteen years at his discharge!), two sons-in-law, two brothers and three nephews. His brothers Finlay and Samuel were also enlisted in the 84th Regiment.

From Patterson, History of the County of Pictou, Rev. George Patterson (1877), Land Grants to soldiers of the 84th Regiment:

Donald Cameron, 150 acres on the East Branch of the West River. With his brothers Finlay and Samuel. Natives of the parish of Urquhart. Served 8 years and 4 months (enlisted approx. 1776). His son, Duncan, was drummer boy in regiment, served 2 years and was 15 at discharge.

From "Farms and Farmers of Pictou", R. H. Ward, c. 1919, via Doug Sinnis:

"This is part of the original grant settled by Donald Cameron who, with his brother Alexander served in the 84th Regiment, in the American War, and at its close in 1784, with others came up the East River and took up the land what was called the "Soldier's Grant". They found themselves up against a 2000 acre block reserved for his Excellency the Lieut. Governor, and in order to get improvement on 300 acre grant they could only get a frontage of 90 acres, and consequently had to run south of the said block and then take an easterly course of the old line. Duncan, son of Donald Cameron also served as a Drummer boy in the 84th. Regiment receiving his discharge when 16 years of age.

Rev. A. MacLean Sinclair manuscript, from Doug Sinnis: Donald Cameron who settled in Bridgeville in 1784 was originally from Seiceart, Glen Urquhart.

Hannah Glen MacDonald paper: "Samuel, Donald and John decided to follow him (Finlay, to Canada) and on reaching America they found the revolution just begun. Being persuaded to join the Royal Highland Emigrants or 84th Battalion, they saw their women and children off to Halifax where they were to live in barracks till the war was over.....Donald and Samuel served in Nova Scotia under Major Small in the Second Battalion till the close of the war. At their discharge they joined the party of soldiers whose grant of land was on the banks of the East River of Pictou, walking with their wives and children the long distance from Halifax, through an almost impassable forest and carrying on their backs their few belongings."

Joined the 87th Regiment, granted lands in Douglas at Nine Mile River, NS, 1783. Catherine McDonald was born on 2 Jun 1734 in Glen Urquhart, Scotland.

Ann (Nancy) Scott was the daughter of Archibald Scott. He was born in 1758 in Glengarry, Invernesshire, Scotland. Archibald died in Nine Mile River, N.S., on 29 May 1823; he was 65. Residence: Nova Scotia (1790). In 1815 Archibald Scott of Nine Mile River petitioned Lt.-Gen. Sir John Coape Sherbrook, Governor of Nova Scotia, for 900 acres in Douglas Township. He stated that he had been placed on a vacant lot in Douglas consisting of 300 acres by the late Capt. MacLean. He had lived on it for 25 years and made many improvements. Scott stated that he was a native of Scotland. He came to Nova Scotia to get land and settle his children. He was now aged and asked to have his business settled in his lifetime. He had never received a land grant. He had ever been a loyal subject and was now ready to take the oath of allegiance. The certificate of William Smith, Justice of the Peace, states that he knew the petitioner and his family and they were considered to be honest industrious people, good members of society and "to my knowledge he has stated the truth in his petition." Alexander Scott's will was dated 22 July 1816 and proved at Windsor on 24 June 1824. He died on 29 May 1823. The will did not name his wife who had presumably died before the will was drawn in 1816. The will mentioned his daughter Mary McDonnell, daughter Anne MacPhee, son Donald.

Deceased was formerly Miss Sara Dill of Centre Rawdon. She was twice married; her first husband being the late James Fraser of the Gore who passed away about 20 years ago. Her second husband the late Peter Tulloch predeceased her over two years ago. Four children, one daughter and three sons by her first husband, survive. They are Frances, Mrs George Wright, Joseph, James and George Fraser. Two sisters are left to mourn, Mrs John B Wallace of West Gore, recently moved to Vancouver, and Mrs Simm in Waverley, Mass.

There are few people who enjoyed more the universal love and respect of her family and friends than did the deceased lady. She was a woman of exceptional strength of character, a Christian woman in the truest sense. The passing of Mrs. Tulloch will leave in the hearts of her children a blank, which nothing can fill and she will be greatly mourned by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was largely attended.”

"Frances Anne Wright. Many friends in Halifax will learn with regret of the death at age 78 of Frances Anne Wright, widow of George D. Wright of Elmsdale, which occurred on April 16th, after an illness of one and a half years during which time she maintained to the last her cheerful nature and kind disposition by which she was endeared to all. Leaving to mourn their loss are one daughter and two sons, Hazel (Mrs. John Goff) of Milford, Harding L. of Truro, and Keith at home. Another daughter, Florence, wife of Gordon D. Casey of Halifax, perdecased her a year and one-half ago. She is also survived by one brother George Fraser of Elmsdale, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild. The funeral took place Monday April 19th, from the Elmsdale United Church."

On 18 Nov 1888 when Frances Ann was 23, she married George Davenport Wright, son of William Oliver Wright (16 Oct 1831-10 Mar 1889) & Beulah Elizabeth Long (7 Nov 1825-21 Dec 1902), in West Gore, Hants Co., NS. Born on 19 Mar 1866 in Clementsvale, Annapolis Co., NS. George Davenport died in Elmsdale, Hants Co., NS, on 9 Sep 1931; he was 65. Buried in Elmsdale Cemetery. Occupation: Carpenter, Farmer, Justice of the Peace. Religion: Baptist - United Church Of Canada. Residence: Weston, MA (At Time Of Marriage); Elmsdale (Belnan), NS.

George was born in Clementsvale, and grew up there (nicknamed "Port" Wright). As a very young man, however, he displeased his father by leaving a gate open and letting some cattle go free. His father had a bad temper and was a hard disciplinarian, so George packed his things, kissed his mother goodbye and left for the USA. He worked there for several years, mostly on farms. It was there that he met and courted his future wife, Fanny Fraser, also from Nova Scotia, who was working there also. When they decided to be married, they came back to be married in Fanny's church in West Gore. The first winter, they spent with George's parents in Clementsvale. His father quite approved of his new daughter-in-law, as she was a baptist and a liberal! In the spring, they went back to Fanny's home, to be near her mother. He bought a farm from Adams, and while Fanny stayed with her mother, George went back to the USA - Maine - to make enough money to pay for the farm. He built a new house on the property, when he came back, and he cleared the land. The barn - one of the tallest around - he built when his youngest son was about four years old. He also worked for many years in a grocery store, first in Oldham, then in Elmsdale, owned by Evan Thompson. He was a valued employee, as he had a very keen memory, and was quick at arithmetic. As his family grew he often travelled on the train to Halifax, where he worked on many of the buildings there, including the Nova Scotian Hotel and St. Matthews Church, as a building foreman. At one time, he was given the job of building highway bridges, in the county. He was made Justice of the Peace, and his law books and legal documents were still in his desk, when a fire destroyed the home, many years after his death. He was still a fairly young man, when after working too long in the rain, he took a serious inflammation, and infection of the prostate gland. He was operated on, but the poison had spread and he died. He had worked hard all his life to support his family in an affluent style. He was interested in politics, and worked diligently for his party, had a strong community spirit and was much involved with the church and other community affairs, a highly respected man. As a young man, in his home area, he was known as Port Wright, rather than George, from his second name Davenport. He was always a fearless man, ready to tackle anything. As a boy, one night he had been visiting his uncle, and as the evening wore on, the grown ups had been telling ghost stories. It was late and dark, when little Port started for home, thinking about the tales he had been told. Suddenly in the dark field, he spied something large and white and he immediately decided it must be one of those ghosts. Instead of doing the usual thing - running for his life - Port decided to attack the ghost! He made for the white shape and was going to hit it with a stick, when the ghostly appearing shape leaped to its feet and ran away -- an old white horse! In later years his home was known as a place where a hungry traveller could find a meal or a bed for the night. He was always ready to help a neighbour and although he was far from his own relatives and saw them seldom, he was always good to Fanny's relatives and made them his own (contributed by Beulah Wright).

36. Keith Francis Wright (Frances Ann Fraser⁴, George³, James², James¹) Born on 15 Dec 1906 in Elmsdale, NS. Keith Francis died in Pictou, NS, on 5 Mar 1991; he was 84. Occupation: Farmer, Woodworker.

Keith Wright completed his education in Belnan school, with grade twelve. He trained for a railway station agent, but did not like it, so left before he wrote the examination. For several years he operated a meat business, buying cattle throughout Hants County, butchering and then delivering the meat by truck on a regular basis through Elmsdale, Lantz, Enfield, Milford, and surrounding area. His brother, Harding, was partner in the business first, later he operated the business himself. As well, he farmed with his father, a dairy farm, then took over at his father's death. The family farm was "Hillside", one hundred acres in Belnan, Hants County. In 1949, he sold the farm and moved to Pictou County, buying a farm in Hedgeville, which he operated with his children until his health forced him to retire. During those years he cut pulp wood on his own lot, using a swede saw and hauling the pulp from the woods with a single horse. He loved horses, and oxen; attended the Bridgewater exhibition to watch the oxpulls whenever he was able, and any other exhibition where oxen were featured. He read and saved every story about oxen and had scrapbooks full of clippings and postcards. He always worked hard, to provide for his large family, never had many of the luxuries of life, but enjoyed his family and doing things with them. His wife, Della, always worked on the farm with him, making hay, gardening and cutting wood. As his children grew, they were always with him. He loved walking through the woods, to the river, and in later years when he was able to afford a car, he loved driving the back roads and exploring the countryside. Unfortunately, the last seven years of his life, he suffered from severe ill health. He had become badly crippled with arthritis, then took diabetes, which caused neuritis and he lost the use and feeling of his right side. A series of small strokes added to the incapacitation and he was confined to his chair for the remainder of his life. He minded that terribly, but when the families came to visit, when the grandchildren were playing around him and when the boys were playing their guitars and everyone was singing, he was happy. He died in the Sutherland Harris hospital in Pictou on the morning of March 5th, 1991, with Della, six of his children, his son-in-law and two of his daughters-in-law beside him. He is buried in the Hamilton cemetery in River John. He was proud of his heritage, loved his family, and raised them to respect the principles in which he believed (contributed by daughter Beulah Wright).

Mar 22, 1950, moved to River John.

Nov 2, 1964, fire destroyed home.

On 15 Oct 1938 when Keith Francis was 31, he married Della Elizabeth Fraser (41), daughter of Charles Fraser (24 Jun 1885-15 May 1967) & Ida Beatrice Miller (20 Jun 1889-12 Dec 1968), in Elmsdale, NS.
