William James Fisher (#3) and his nephew Samuel Fisher (#17) both emigrated from New Hampshire to Truro, William in 1762, Samuel in 1767 with his half-sister Janet (Fisher) Archibald. Their families established some of the original pioneering families in both the Stewiacke and Musquodoboit Valley's.

Please note that this is not a complete genealogy! I have borrowed heavily from already-published sources, so I am just putting it out there for the benefit of anyone who finds it. It will be a work-in-progress. Where possible, I have truncated it and referred to other of my published reports (website above). Corrections or additions are always welcome!

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

First Generation

1. James Fisher, son of James Fisher (1611-) & Elizabeth (abt 1611-). Born in 1636 in Glen of Antrim, Ireland. James died in Londonderry, Ireland. Occupation: Weaver of Fine Irish Linen. Religion: Saint Columb's Church of Ireland, Londonderry. Residence: Queen St. (Now Bishop St.), Londonderry, Ireland.

James' father came from Ayrshire Scotland to Glen of Antrim, Ireland.

Baptismal dates of James and Jennet Fisher's 12 children from Saint Columb's Church of Ireland Cathedral, Londonderry, in the following order:

Child's Name	Baptismal Date
Elizabeth	10 September 1661
John	24 October 1662
Kathren	09 October 1663
James	22 November 1664
Margrat	08 September 1665
Mary	04 December 1666
William	04 December 1666
Samuel	23 February 1668
Rebeca	30 May 1669
James	06 August 1670
Mathew	20 June 1671
John	06 December 1675

It is interesting to note that there are two Johns and two James. We are reasonably assured that the father of William James and Samuel, John Fisher, was the youngest child of James and Jennet. I can only assume that the older John and James may have died young. From the Hearth Money Rolls of 1663, a tax for every hearth or fireplace in Londonderry at the time, James Fisher is recorded as living on Queen Street, which is now known as Bishop Street, not far from the church which recorded his children's baptisms.

3. William James Fisher* (John², James¹). Born in 1716 in Londonderry, Ireland. William James died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 6 Jun 1777; he was 61. Occupation: NS House of Assembly, Rep For Truro (1770-1775). Residence: Hew Hampshire (1743), Truro (1762).

William Fisher was among the early settlers of Truro, arriving from New Hampshire with the Archibald's and others in December, 1762. He was a Grantee of the Township. He was the first Town Clerk of Truro after it was settled by the British. He was one of the seven elders of the Church who were elected in the summer of 1770. He took his seat in the House of Assembly June 6, 1770, and represented Truro five years. He resided on the interval of Salmon River (Miller).

Most of this family migrated to the Musquodoboit Valley or the Stewiacke Valley.

In 1743 when William James was 27, he married Eleanor Archibald, daughter of John Archibald (1671-10 Aug 1751) & Margaret Wilson (?) (abt 1678-abt 1735). Born on 25 Jun 1724 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Eleanor died in Musquodoboit, NS.

Deacon Samuel Fisher was born in the North of Ireland, of Scottish descent. His father was a weaver. He came to America in 1740, aged 19. The ship in which he came was usually spoken of as the "Starved ship". The vessel was so scantily supplied with provisions that, long before the voyage was completed, one pint of oatmeal for each individual on board, and a proportionate allowance of water, was all that remained. Mr. Fisher once went to the mate with a tablespoon to obtain some water, which was refused him, there being but two-thirds of a bottle-ful on board. Mr. Fisher's custom was to take a spoonful of meal and having moistened it with salt water, to eat it raw. The passengers and crew, having subsisted in this manner for 14 days, were at length reduced to the necessity of eating the bodies of those who died. Even this resource failed them; and at length, Mr. Fisher was selected to give up his life to preserve the lives of the rest. Providentially, however, a vessel hove in sight; and their signals of distress being observed, they obtained relief, and he was saved. So deep an impression did the horrors of that passage make upon the mind of Mr. Fisher that, in after life, he could never see, without pain, the least morsel of food wasted, or a pail of water thrown on the ground carelessly.

On his arrival in this country, he was bound by the Captain to a man in Roxbury for the payment of his passage. He came to Londonderry, NH, about one or two years after, and became a member of the family of Mr. Matthew Taylor, whose daughter Sarah he married when he was 25 years of age. He was made ruling elder in the church in this place during the ministry of the Rev. David McGregor, and remained in this office until he was no longer able to perform its duties on account of his age. He was well instructed in the great principles of the gospel. He had a most happy faculty of improving the occurrences which took place about him for the religious instruction of his family. Mr. Fisher was married three times, and had twelve children, eleven of whom arrived at adult age and ten of whom survived him. Ten of his children were married and most lived to an advanced age. The average age of 4 of them was 91 years. His descendants, in the year 1850, were nine hundred and fifteen, and are scattered through nearly all the States of the Union, through Nova Scotia and Canada. Some of them are ministers and some elders in the Church. It is estimated that three fourths of those over twenty years of age are professors of religion.

The order of the wives of Deacon Samuel Fisher has been a source of much confusion. First Thomas Miller, then Margaret Janet Hart, in her book about Janet Fisher Archibald, had erroneous information. Gerry Byers, in his Fisher Chapter, makes a very convincing argument that the order of the first two from Hart's book was wrong. Jane Wile, in her Fisher Genealogy, 2000, confirms Byers order and provides numerous details. I have followed Jane's information.

On 24 Jun 1745 when Deacon Samuel was 23, he first married Sarah (Agnes) Taylor, daughter of Matthew Taylor (1690-22 Jan 1770) & Janet Wilson, in Londonderry, NH. Born on 6 Mar 1726 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Sarah (Agnes) died in Londonderry, NH, on 17 Apr 1747; she was 21. Buried in Londonderry Shipley Cemetery.

Ca 1779 when Agnes (Nancy) was 31, she second married David Ella. Born on 24 Jan 1759. David died in Londonderry, NH, on 19 Feb 1823; he was 64.

On 29 Jul 1747 when Deacon Samuel was 25, he second married Agnes Wilson, daughter of James Wilson & Jenat Taggart, in Londonderry, NH. Born on 7 Aug 1728 in Londonderry, NH. Agnes died in Londonderry, NH, on 12 Mar 1755; she was 26. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Londerry.

From Gerry Byers, Truro, June 15, 1999, "probably daughter of Robert and Sarah (Bean) Barber of Epping, NH." Robert is s/o Robert, of John.

According to the Sprague database, Sarah was born An Bóthar Buí, Meath, Leinster, Ireland - that is referenced to Helen Gibson. If so, she may not have been from a New England Barber family.

They had the following children:

- i. Mary. Born on 6 May 1757 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Mary died in Maine, Broome Co., NY, in 1827; she was 69.

Samuel went to Truro, Nova Scotia in 1767 with his half-sister Janet when she married Matthew Archibald. Samuel was nine years old at the time. He married Mary Tupper and settled along the river in Stewiacke where he raised his family.

Samuel and Mary were the first white couple to be buried in the Upper Stewiacke Riverside Cemetery. The cemetery had previously been known as an Indian Burial Ground. (from Ronald and Michael Redden's book - The Fisher Grant to Lawkland Farm A Two Hundred Year History).

In 1786 when Samuel was 27, he married Mary Tupper, daughter of Eliakim Tupper (4 Dec 1742-22 Aug 1811) & Elizabeth Newcomb¹ (12 Jun 1743-10 Feb 1824). Mary's father, Eliakim Tupper, signed his will 14 May 1811, and referred to heirs of Mary Fisher, his deceased daughter, hence the death date given by Thos. Miller, 23 April 1812, may not be correct and she may have passed away in 1811, or earlier.

Margaret married George Farnell. Born in 1759 in Yorkshire, England.

From Musquodoboit Valley Bicentennial Notes:

George Farnell was born in Northern England, Yorkshire, in 1759. While still in his teen he enlisted in the British Army and fought in the American Revolution. After the Peace of 1785 he came to Halifax, N.S. He settled in the Musquodoboit Valley in the early 1800's and married Margaret Fisher. They first camped on a site over-looking the Valley above the present-day home of Ronald O. Connell (1982). In 1908 George Farnell applied for a grant of land which was on Black Hil (the hill and surrounding land in back of Mosher Limestone Quarry). There he cleared the land for farming and raised a family of twelve children.

From REID book (page 391):

George FARNELL was on the frigate "La Tribune" when it was wrecked off Halifax harbour in 1797. At that time the name was spelled PHARNELL.

From Musquodoboit Valley Bicentennial Notes:

(Pleasant Valley) He was born in 1759 and enlisted in his Majesty's 33rd Regiment of foot in 1778.

From George H. Taylor's family history:

Among others I have heard him tell of old Mr. Farnell, who described to him some of his experiences in the American War of Independence. He was a soldier in Gen. Burgoyne's army, which had to surrender at Saratoga in 1777. Burgoyne had made his boast that if they gave him 10,000 good troops he would soon restore order in the colonies. Other British Generals were conducting the campaign and continued to do so for some five years after Burgoyne was done. Mr. Farnell said they would start on a march on a road through the woods, with all their cannon and supplies, they would not go far when a few rifles would crack in the woods, and their teams would go down.

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

They would have to go into the surrounding country and commander teams, giving script for them which assured the owners they would pay. They would get all ready and start again and perhaps it would not be two hours until the same thing happened again. Ultimately, they had to surrender, and their general had to hand over his sword by the point to the victor. The soldiers were given their choice of three courses; — first, all who were willing could step into the Colonial ranks with their arms, and quite a number did so; second, they could be disarmed and let go where they wished, like tramps; third, they would be taken prisoner of war. Mr. Farnell preferred to be disarmed and go and he walked out of their country.

They had the following children:

In 1795 when Elizabeth Taylor was 21, she married Alexander Stewart. Born in 1753 in Glasgow, Scotland. Alexander died in Upper Musquodoboit, NS, in 1853; he was 100.

From Musquodoboit Valley Bicentennial papers. Alexander Stewart was born in the city of Glasgow, Scotland, in 1753. After serving 21 years in the Imperial Army, he received his discharge in Halifax, Nova Scotia about 1794. He was the first pioneer settler on the mountain between the villages of Upper Stewiacke and Upper Musquodoboit. His first soldier grant of land was near the Stewiacke village but he exchanged it with Adam Dunlap for the grant on which he settled. In 1795 he married Elizabeth Taylor Fisher (1773-1832) daughter of John Fisher and Elizabeth Cowley. John was one of the original seven settlers who came to Upper Musquodoboit in the spring of 1784. The first orchard of over one hundred trees was planted by him, the first orchard in the district. Alexander was a well-educated man who gave liberally of his talents to the church, school and community. In 1827 Alexander and Deacon Samuel F. Archibald were the Commissioners for building the first frame church near the first pioneer cemetery. Most of the business writing, etc., were transacted by him. He returned home at night much fatigued, when his wife presented him with two sons that had been born during the day."

Born on 30 Mar 1829 in Onslow, Col. Co., NS. John Barnhill died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 5 Jun 1886; he was 57. Occupation: Banker; Custodes Rotulorum, County Of Colchester. Residence: Onslow.

DICKIE, JOHN BARNHILL, teacher, farmer, shipbuilder, and politician; b. 30 March 1829 at Cornwallis, N.S., eldest son of Isaac Patton Dickie and Rebecca Barnhill; m. first on 7 Oct. 1850 Ellen Putnam, and they had three children; m. secondly in 1858 Harriet Dickson, and they had eight children; d. 5 June 1886 at Truro, N.S. John Barnhill Dickie's ancestors had come from Londonderry (Northern Ireland) to Cumberland County, N.S., about 1763. John was educated at Canard and Wolfville, N.S., then from 1847 to 1851 at the Mount Allison Wesleyan Academy in Sackville, N.B., and finally at the Halifax Free Church College. While attending the Wesleyan academy, Dickie taught in a comfortable schoolhouse at Middle Stewiacke, N.S., giving instruction in book-keeping, surveying, mensuration, algebra, and Latin to an average of 30 students. He also ran a farm in Middle Stewiacke. Later he taught mathematics at the Halifax Academy.

In 1854 Dickie was appointed coroner for Colchester County. By 1856 he had moved to Onslow where he operated both a farm and a store. He served from 1858 to 1859 as treasurer for the poor in the district of Onslow, became a justice of the peace in 1861, and for a short time in 1863 was a militia major. In 1866 he was the founder and first president of the Onslow Agricultural Society, and was appointed custos rotulorum of Colchester and a trustee of school lands in Onslow in 1868. In 1871 Dickie moved to Truro where he had been named manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, the first financial institution in that village. Between 1872 and his death he also owned shares in six vessels built along the Minas Basin shore; one, the Colchester, was reputed to have been the fastest vessel ever launched in the Bay of Fundy. He formed the Truro Marine Insurance Company in 1872 to protect his investments.

In December 1874 Dickie was elected to the assembly as an independent member for Colchester County, although his political sympathies had generally been with the Liberals. The results of the election made it uncertain whether the Liberal government of William Annand could still command a majority in the assembly, and when on 11 March 1875 Dickie accepted Annand's offer of the speakership a furore resulted. For Annand, the appointment of Dickie eliminated a potential negative vote, and rumours persisted that Dickie had sold his principles for money, prestige, or the promise of a seat in the Legislative Council. One newspaper praised Dickie at this time as "sagacious, clear-headed and able," but another described his acceptance as corrupt and treacherous. His Colchester colleague, William Albert Patterson, who left the house rather than vote against his friend, was later to refer to "the sale of the Speakership," and when Dickie was appointed to the Legislative Council three years later, the Colchester Sun labelled the appointment "The Last Act."

Dickie lacked the parliamentary training essential to rule over an almost equally divided house. In trying to satisfy all, he satisfied none. On at least three occasions his actions or rulings caused violent controversy. When, on 30 April 1875, he broke a tie vote on an amendment to a railway bill, the opposition's frustration exploded. For the first and only time in Canadian parliamentary history a resolution was carried by a vote of 20–12 requesting the speaker to resign, which he did the following day. "He had to listen to certain whereases, impeaching him of the high crimes of ignorance and incompetence, of drawing a salary under false pretences and filling a position given him as the price of treachery." His inexperience condemned him: a correct ruling would have been that the fatal motion required 48 hours notice. The Toronto Mail observed that the incident was "peculiar to Nova Scotian politics which are indeed inscrutable and past finding out."

Fisher Family Descendancy Report

Dickie retained his seat in the assembly until 1878, and from that year until his death sat in the Legislative Council. A quiet man, he never publicly commented upon the humiliating experience of 1875, and from his correspondence with his brother James there emerges a serene individual. An active Presbyterian, in his last years Dickie concentrated on his business and when he died of intestinal cancer in 1886 he left an estate in excess of $61,000. Warden Tupper's Death - Col. Eliakim Tupper, Warden of Colchester County, died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, L.M. Ellis, Queen Street, Truro. The death of Col. Tupper has come upon us all with a shock. It was so sudden and to most of our citizens so unexpected.

For some time the Warden had been suffering from severe pains from an injury to his abdomen, which latterly developed into an abscess on the wall of the abdomen, and which such serious symptoms that he left his home in Stewiacke and arrived in Truro on Monday the 10th inst., for medical treatment. There is no doubt but that the deceased contracted cold while journeying to Truro, and when he arrived here he was a very sick man. His physician, Dr. J. H. McKay, did all that medical skill could do, and had consultation with Dr. W.S. Muir on Sunday last. Both physicians agreed as to the nature of the disease and as to the very serious condition of the suffering man. Yesterday the Warden was about the same in his symptoms. He lingered through the night and this morning, as already stated, passed quietly away.

The immediate cause of death was an abscess on the wall of the abdomen resulting in peritonitis and blood poisoning. Inflammation of the bowels had set in and was another complication that baffled all medical skill.

By the death of Warden Tupper, Colchester County loses one of its ablest, shrewdest and most talented men. After the Municipal Incorporation Act was passed, Col. Tupper was the first Warden in Colchester. He at once showed his firm and lucid grasp of the new Act, and from his clear interpretation of its complicated provisions started the machinery running smoothly in the county.

The deceased was born 66 years ago on the farm at South Branch, Upper Stewiacke, where he has ever resided, and to a community in which he has ever been universally respected. He was Warden of this County at the time of his death.

The deceased has left a widow, one son Martin L., who resides on the homestead, and a daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis of this town. To them and other relatives the News extends heartfelt and sincere sympathy in their unexpected and sad bereavement.

It is expected that the remains will leave here on Thursday for the Presbyterian church in Upper Stewiacke Village, where the funeral service and ceremonies will take place at about 2 o'clock on that day. - (Truro Daily News - Tuesday Dec 18, 1894)

Warden Tupper's Funeral - An immense mass of people assembled at Upper Stewiacke Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Warden Tupper. There was an immense congregation of friends from all parts of the Stewiacke Valley, and other places in the country. Among those present were: Councillors H. H. Eaton, Salmon River; Bigelow, Lower Stewiacke; McGill Johnson, Upper Stewiacke Village; and Charles Creelman; James McCurdy, Clifton, License Inspector; Hugh McKenzie, Municipal Clerk; Geo. R Archibald, Lower Stewiacke; John Dickie, Middle Stewiacke; W.D. Dimock, Truro, and many others. The funeral services were very impressive, and were conducted by the Rev'ds A. G. Gunn, S. F. Fraser and John Robbins. Mr Gunn gave an admirable address and Rev. John Robbins supplemented his remarks by a most touching figure to the memory of the late Colonel Tupper. After the services were over, friends passed around the bier and gave the last look of love on him who has been so universally respected by all. The death of Colonel Tupper has left a blank in this county that will be very hard to fill. All spoke of him with the greatest respect, feeling that the district of Stewiacke has lost a most valuable member of society, and the County of Colchester one of its ablest men. - (Truro Daily News - Friday Dec 21, 1894)

Mrs. Elmira Blaikie

Upper Stewiacke, January 11, 1945 - This community was saddened on Tuesday evening, January 9, when word came of the passing of Mrs. Elmira Blaikie, at the Colchester County Hospital, Truro, where she had been a patient since Christmas Day, when she was stricken with paralysis. Of this meek, gentle little woman, it can truly be said, "She lived in a house by the side of the road, and was a friend to all." The secret of her Christian character is contained in the following verse of a favorite hymn -

"Lord, I would clasp Thy hand in mine
Nor ever murmur, nor repine,
Content whatever lot I see
Since tis my God that leadeth me"

She was a faithful member of the WMS in which she took an active part, having been secretary for many years until her health prevented, and then, very reluctantly, taking a lesser place in the work of the Society, but always in her place at the meetings when health and weather permitted.

The United Church was filled today with those who came to honor one who served well her day and generation. The profusion of flowers were a mute but tangible testimony of the esteem in which Mrs. Blaikie was held in the community. Rev. Calder Fraser conducted the service, speaking very appropriately from the words "God is just." Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "He Leadeth Me", and "Sun of My Soul".

Mrs Blaikie was formerly Elmira Webster, and was born seventy-four years ago at Otter Brook. She lived the first twenty years of her married life in Burnside, where her husband, Morrison Blaikie, owned and operated a sawmill. Out of a family of seven sons and three daughters, those left to mourn the loss of a devoted mother are four sons and two daughters. Roy and Glenn of Blaikie Bros & Co., Upper Stewiacke, Harry, partner of Blaikie's Garage, Truro; and Morris, sawyer with Blaikie Bros.; Florence (Mrs Russell Boomer), and Edith (Mrs Raymond Boomer) of Red Deer, Alberta. There are also twenty-six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

The pall-bearers were Thomas and A.P. Fulton, Winfred Patterson and Frank B. Cox.

Interment took place in Riverside Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, who predeceased her thirty-six years ago, and two sons and a daughter in later years. One son, Alden, was killed in the Great War, in June, 1916.

Lillian and Reuben were married by Rev. Deward Grant at the manse in Upper Stewiacke. They moved to Woodside to a small farm where they lived their entire life. The first year of their marriage, they lived in the kitchen of their home. The remainder of the house was built the next summer and the barn in 1891. Reuben learned the blacksmith trade from Dan Ross whose home was on the opposite side of the road. A few years later, thirteen acres was added to the farm grandfather bought from Sam Johnson owned by his father William Johnson of Newton Mills. In the home which still stands today but vacant (recorded in the late '70's) there is a hard covered bible (leather cover) belonging to Uncle Gus Dean (1894-1974). This bible was given to him as a young man while working for John Dean during haying. It is over one hundred years old (both old and new testaments) and after each chapter there is a sermon. It is a large bible. An operation for ruptured appendix was performed in this house on the kitchen table. The table is still there. Uncle Gus was the patient and was very sick. A trained nurse (Margaret MacLeod) who died overseas took care of him. Doctors from Halifax did the operation. Lillian and Reuben were Presbyterian by faith and attended Dean Sharon Presbyterian Church. Lillian sang in the choir at the age of 14 and sang for many years. They celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in 1938. They are buried in the cemetery beside the Dean Church. (Kathryn Anne Allen-MacPherson, Saint John, NB)

DICKIE, Edwin James (Ted), BSc, PEng; 88 Dartmouth, formerly of Stewiacke. A good and honest man died August 27th, 2010 on what would have been his 61st Anniversary. Ted was born at home in Stewiacke on January 5, 1922 to Nellie (Gould) and Rufus Dickie. His childhood was full of adventure with his 3 brothers, 2 sisters, a pet bear named Billy, and a team of great Dane dogs whose leader Danny would haul Dad and his siblings around town in a sleigh. His playground was the "Canadian Lumber Co." which was one of the biggest logging operations in N.S. at the time. His growing-up years spanned the Great Depression, the tail end of the Age of Iron Men and Wooden ships and the space between two World Wars. Dad was greatly influenced by all three events and had many stories of the exploits and strengths of the company loggers who still used taxes, buck saws and horses to get the logs out. Much time was spent at Clam Harbour, at the family cottage, where he met the love of his life at the age of 13 - Florence MacKinnon - and promptly married her in a mock wedding on the beach. Many events would transpire before their real wedding in 1949, including getting his pilot's license on his 17th birthday, finishing school and earning a BSc at Mount Allison University, where he narrowly escaped death when his residence burned down. He was a 2nd Lieutenant in the Cadet Officers Training Corp there. He later graduated from McGill University as a Mechanical Engineer and began work in the Canadian Lumber Company, first in Stewiacke, then in mill sites at Barney's River, Glenelg, NS and Gillis Dale. Ted and Flo had three children, Paul (Maxine), Mark, and Jan (Fred Watkins). When Paul was of school age, they moved from the mill camps to Stewiacke. In 1955, Ted left the lumber business and began exporting wild Christmas Trees to the States. In Stewiacke, he was a member of the United Church, a Gyros leader and a member of the school board at various times. He eventually took a job with the Voluntary Economic Planning Board and then with the NS Department of Development in Halifax. The family moved to Dartmouth in 1963. Dad is survived by his sister Lois (McMillan) and was predeceased by wife Florence, brothers Donald, Harold and his sister Alice (Hampton). He is fondly remembered by his children and grandchildren- Heather, Michael and Allison Watkins and Chelsea and Ryan Dickie. Interment at Pine Grove Cemetery in East Stewiacke.

On 27 Aug 1949 when Edwin James (Ted) was 27, he married Elizabeth "Florence" MacKinnon. Born in 1916. Elizabeth "Florence" died in 2007; she was 91. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.

- v. Lois Ellen. Born on 24 Aug 1925 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Lois Ellen died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 4 Dec 2018; she was 93.

She graduated from Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick, Canada in 1946. While there, she was Secretary of the Women's Council and Vice President of the Student Union. Following school, she moved to Montreal and worked at the Pathological Institute of McGill University, where she met and married Dr Gardner Craddock McMillan in 1948. They moved to Switzerland for a year for her husband's studies, then moved to Lachine, Quebec, Canada to raise their family. They moved to Bethesda, MD in 1967 where her husband worked at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). She participated in art shows sponsored by the Welcome to Washington International Club, showing her water color paintings.

She was predeceased by her parents, Rufus Edward Dickie and Ellen Fletcher Gould Dickie; her husband of 56 years, Gardner Craddock McMillan; and her son, William Edward 'Ted' Dickie McMillan (1950-2016). She was survived two daughters and their spouses; a son; two daughters-in-law; five granddaughters; three grandsons; two great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law; and a cousin.

Lois Ellen married Dr. Gardner Craddock McMillan. Born on 10 Nov 1918 in Lachine, Quebec. Gardner Craddock died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 8 Apr 2004; he was 85.

He graduated with a degree in medicine from McGill University in Montreal, Canada in 1944, having won the John Munro Elder Prize for Honors studies in anatomy. He received his Masters degree in 1946 and a PhD degree in 1948. He was a Markel Scholar in Medical Science and began his research career with investigations of human and experimental atherosclerosis. Among his early work was the paradoxical observation that experimental diabetes, induced by alloxan, inhibited the atherosclerosis resulting from feeding cholesterol to a rabbit. As a result of this fundamental research, it became known that some lipoprotein particles are atherogenic whereas others are not, and it likely caused the speculation that the cause of atherosclerosis was far more complicated than being solely caused by too much cholesterol in the blood. He also studied the effects of undernutrition and of cortisone on cholesterol-induced atherosclerosis. He served as Strathcona Professor of Pathology and became Chairman of the Department of Pathology at McGill University. He was also chief of Pathology at the Royal Victoria Hospital in 1957, and a consulting pathologist, through 1966, to the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital, the Montreal Neurological Institute, the Montreal Children's Hospital, the Montreal General Hospital, and the Jewish Hospital of Hope. He became a fellow of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (Pathology) in 1964. He continued to study human and experimental atherosclerosis, reporting on the effects of saturated, unsaturated, and trans-fatty acids in cholesterol-fed rabbits and on amino acid deficiencies. He received the AHA Citation for Distinguished Service to Research in 1965. He joined the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in 1966, first as a consultant and then as special assistant to the Director of the Heart Institute (1968), as Chief of the Arteriosclerosis Diseases Branch, and, between 1972 and 1991, as Director of the Arteriosclerosis, Hypertension, and Lipid Metabolism Program at the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. Through his efforts, the NIH pioneered research programs on nutrition, lesion dynamics, and the relationship of hemodynamics to atherogenesis, which led to the establishment of nonhuman primate resources. He retired in 1991.

He was survived by his wife, Lois Ellen Dickie McMillan; two sons and their spouses; two daughters and their spouses; and eight grandchildren.

Vernon. Vernon died in 1975.

Founded Wilson Equipment, Truro, 1955.

Vernon married Marion Rossamond "Rossie".

Marion Rosamond "Rossie" Wilson, 88, Truro, passed away Friday, Feb. 12, 2010 in Hants Community Hospital, Windsor. Apple pie with a slice of cheese. Just one of Rossie's interesting customs. Born and raised in Margaree, Marion Rosamond Wilson was one of 10 children. Working on the farm, she learned early on the lessons she carried through her whole life: resourcefulness, industriousness and the importance of family. She was devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Loving and benevolent, resilient and tenacious, most of us knew there were two ways of doing things "Nan's way" or the wrong way. Rossie married Vernon in 1944 and supported him as he built Wilson Equipment from the ground up in Truro, N.S. After his sudden passing in 1975, Rossie immersed herself in her community. Rossie became part of the very fabric of her town. She was the first female golfer in Truro to record a hole-in-one. Whether you were a united church member, a business owner, or simply a neighbour who greeted her on her daily walk, you knew Rossie. Later in life, illness began to take its toll, eroding her independence. True to form, she fought to maintain her autonomous lifestyle. I can still hear her protests of, "I can do it!" while cradling her broken wrist in a sling, hovering as I assembled a chicken sandwich (her favourite). Macular degeneration, stroke and dementia may have taken her body and mind, but her "willâ" remained strong, fighting to stay with us as long as she could. Rossie was the last to ever ask for help, the first on your doorstep in a time of need to offer help, apple pie in hand. With cheese, of course. Thanks Nan, we will miss you. Rossie is survived by her son, V. Graham Wilson (Linda Landymore), Windsor; daughter, Brenda (Peter) Phipps, Gaspereau; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren; as well as siblings, Lila MacPhee, Brookfield, Yvonne Lyons, Sydney, Harry Ethridge, Middle River, Abbie Ingraham, Truro, Anne Baxter, Antigonish, and Rena Jelic, Coquitlam, B.C. She was predeceased by her husband, Vernon G. Wilson, sisters, Sally and Josephine and brother, Tom. Interment will be held at a later date in Brookfield Westside Cemetery.

Cameron, Maxine Marie

She was a member of First United Church, UCW Unit N, I.O.D.E. – Colchester Chapter, and United Commercial Travelers. Maxine was a charter member of Beta Sigma Phi (Beta Master) and was recently honored for 50 years perfect attendance. Her enjoyment in meeting people was evident in her past work at Charm Diamond Centre and in volunteering with various service groups. She enjoyed golfing, needlework, and spending time with family. She was a kind and giving woman who always put her family first. Maxine is survived by her daughters, Gladie (Scott) McNutt, Truro; Heather, Truro; cherished grandchildren, Justin, Halifax, Laura, Fredericton as well as many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, John Kaye Cameron and her brothers, Frank, Donald and

He shared many hilarious stories of his time spent there. He started driving a milk truck for Ross Ervin of Fort Ellis and in the early 1960's bought the business. He formed his own business C.E. Fisher Transport Ltd. in 1962 and worked diligently for 30 years retiring in 1992. His two sons, Dale and Ricky, drove trucks for their Dad for many years.
