First Generation

1. James Sweet. Born abt 1777 in Falmouth, NS. James died in Horton, Kings Co., NS, on 2 Dec 1847; he was 70. Residence: Rawdon, NS.

James Sweet was a son of Benoni, who was born in North Kingstown, Rhode Island and died in Scotch Village, Hants Co., Nova Scotia, and Lydia Dimock. Benoni was a son of the Benoni Sweet who came to Nova Scotia in 1760 from North Kingstown, Rhode Island and settled in Cornwallis, Kings Co., NS.

The Sweet Family of Rhode Island has been well documented. They were known for several generations as "bonesetters". The lineage to Benoni is as follows, and this information is recorded in Austin, John Osborne. 1887. The Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, (comprising three generations of settlers who came before 1690, with many families carried to the fourth generation). Joel Munsell's Sons, Albany, NY.:

John Sweet (1579 - 1637) & Mary Periam (abt 1605 - 31 Jul 1681)¹

James Sweet Dr. (18 Jun 1622 - 18 Jun 1698) & Mary Greene (19 May 1633 -)

Benoni Sweet Capt. Dr. (28 Mar 1663 - 19 Jul 1751) & Elizabeth (abt 1668 -)

Benoni Sweet (28 Mar 1692 -) & Isabell (1720 -)

Benoni Sweet (7 Oct 1748 -) & Lydia Dimock (27 Aug 1748 -)

Although the descendents of other children of Benoni Sweet (Jr.) have been well researched, notably by Maribelle Smiley and Iola Young², the descendents of James are less well known. Ross Graves, 8 April 1977, concluded that James of Rawdon was the son of Benoni.² A number of children of James and Elizabeth have been identified by

By me, Henry Hayden, in the presence of James Sweet". St. Paul's Anglican Parish, Rawdon, Hants Co., NS.²

On 11 Feb 1825 when Harriet was 23, she married Joseph Keating in Rawdon, NS. Born in 1807 in Wexford, Ireland. Joseph died in South Rawdon, NS, on 15 Jan 1876; he was 69.

Duncanson⁴ reports that John, son of Benoni and Margaret Cochran, married "his first cousin" Susan Sweet. Thus James, son of Benoni and Lydia Dimock, would be the father of Susan.

According to Joan Jowsey², John and Susan had three children, all born in NS. Susan died and John married Margaret Hunter, daughter of George Henry Hunter and Eliza Fish. They raised a family of 7 more children, all born in NS. John Sweet and his second wife and all the family removed to California, arriving in Humboldt, Feb. 1, 1883. The funeral of John Sweet was held in the church he helped to establish at Grizzly Bluff, CA.

From the website of Paul Jewers, <http://www.geocities.com/pjewers/tree/INDEX.HTM>, Oct. 2001, Rosanna Barron was the daughter of Hugh Barron and Lydia Potter. Children of Joseph and Rosanna included Anthony, b. 1834, Yarmouth, NS, d. 18 Apr. 1911, Acton, MA, and Lydia, b. 12 Sept. 1836, Hants Co., d. 20 Mar. 1912, Lawrence,

Sweet Family of Colchester County, Nova Scotia

Essex, MA, m. William Munroe (b. 25 Jan. 1857, Halifax).

Joseph Sweet was born about 1810. Joseph and Rosanna Barron were married in 1833 and lived in Hants Co. They had family, including Agnes, Lydia, Anthony, Isabella, William, and Joseph, and perhaps another boy. The children may have stayed in the area of Hants Co. Joseph then married Rachael Jane BEISWENGER (Beiswanger), b. NS, between 1859-1861. Their children were Charles L. Sweet b. abt. 1861 in Halifax, Nelson Maynard Sweet b. 1862 in Newport, Hants Co., George Arthur Sweet, b. 1866, and Ermina Sweet, b. abt. 1869. All three boys went to Michagan, USA by early 1900's Nelson stayed there and raised a family, Charles disappeared, leaving behind a family and George moved on to Washington State. George married for the first time, Carrie GERMAN. None of them kept in touch. Ermina married William Marr and remained in Canda in the Toronto area where she stayed off and on. At some point, her name became LeBeau. I have not been able to determine whether Joseph and Rachael stayed in Hants Co. I do not find them in MI with the boys. The 1920 USA census of George and his family shows that George's father was born in England and his mother in Canada. However, the 1910 census for Nelson, George's brother, shows Joseph as being born in Canada.

- Phyllis Ceratto Evans, Sept. 6, 2001.

1871 census: Married to Rachel J. by this date with four children 10 years of age and younger in the household as well as two sons, Joseph Sweet, 18 yrs. and William Sweet, 20 years, probably by first marriage of Joseph. This census shows all living in Rawden So., Hants Co., NS. Household number 44-46.

On 20 Nov 1833 when Joseph was 23, he first married Rosanna Barron in St. Pauls Anglican, Rawdon, NS.

They had the following children:

- i. Agnes Rebecca. Born on 4 Mar 1835.
Baptism: May 05, 1841, Methodist Church of Shubenacadie, East Hants, NS
- 8 ii. Lydia Ann (12 Sep 1837-3 Mar 1912)
- 9 iii. Anthony (ca 1838-18 Apr 1911)
- iv. Isabella. Born ca 1847 in Rawdon, Hants Co., NS. Isabella died in Earltown, NS, on 3 Jul 1876; she was 29.

In bet 1859-1861 when Joseph was 49, he second married Rachel Beiswenger. Born ca 1839. Rachel died aft 1871; she was 32.

I bellieve that her father was Joseph Beiswanger and Rachael was born in Country Harbor - Phyllis Evans.

They had the following children:

4. Wellington Sweet (James¹). Born in 1818 in Rawdon, NS. Wellington died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 1 May 1884; he was 66. Residence: Gore, Nine Mile River, McClure Brook, Truro Hts., NS.

Wellington Sweet, age 16, son of James, is listed in the School Papers for District #5, Rawdon, 1 June 1834. Maria, 13, daughter of James, is also listed.

"Wellington Sweet of this parish (St. Pauls Anglican, Rawdon) and Mary Ann Blois were married in Douglas Church by licence with consent of parents this 7th day of March, 1841."²

The marriage of Wellington Sweet and Mary Ann Blois was recorded by Ralph S. Blois in his history of the Blois family. He included the children from the 1871 census, so missed the older ones.

1860 Census, Ward 5, Salem, Massachusetts: Wellington Sweet, Age 36, Farmer, Laborer, Born Nova Scotia, Mary Sweet, Age 37, Born New Brunswick, Elizabeth Sweet, Age 19, Factory Operative, Born Nova Scotia, Mary Sweet, Age 17, Born Nova Scotia, George Sweet, Age 15, Teamster, Born Nova Scotia, William Sweet, Age 13, Born Nova Scotia, Hiram Sweet, Age 12, Born Nova Scotia, Clarissa Sweet, Age 10, Born Nova Scotia, Harriet Sweet, Age 7, Born Nova Scotia, Sarah Sweet, Age 5, Born Nova Scotia, Adelaide Sweet, Age 3, Born Nova Scotia, Ada Sweet, Age 7/12, Born Massachusetts.

1861 Salem Massachusetts Street Directory Lists: Wellington Sweet, Farmer, House 114 Essex St. There is no listing for Wellington Sweet in the 1859, 1864, 1866, 1869 or 1872 Street Directories, which were the only Directories available for that time period.

The following children were listed in the 1871 census (Truro A 397) with Wellington 50, widower: Clara Amanda 19, Harriet 17, Adelaide 15, Ada 11, Wellington Jr. 9, Emma 6, and Eber 5.² At Truro B 122, George 23 is listed with Eunice 21, Mary 1, and Hiram b. Dec. 1870. In 1881 (Truro 628), Wellington 57, widower, is with Ada 19, Emma 16, Wellington 15, and Eva (must be Eber) 14.

A letter from Janet (Nix) McDonald, Jan. 20, 1997, suggests "there were other children not included in the 1871 census: Elizabeth Ann, b. 20 Nov. 1841, George Fielding, b. 20 Aug. 1844, William McLane, b. 12 May 1846, Hiram, b. 7 Jan. 1848, and Clarissa, b. 28 Feb. 1850. The births came from "Baptisms - Methodist Shubenacadie Circuit" from Ralph Whittier Collection."

George Sweet's marriage says he was born in Rawdon in 1848. Clara Sweet's death in 1875 (Wellington father, Mary mother) at age 23 says she was born in St. John in 1852. Harriet Sweet's death in 1873 (Wellington father, Mary mother) at age 19 says she was born in Shubenacadie in 1854.

From the Presbyterian Witness, 10 May 1884, pg. 152 "Wellington Sweet died 1 May 1884, aged 64, at Truro".

So we have a picture of Wellington and Mary being married in Rawdon in 1841, having children born in Hants Co. from 1841 to 1850, one born in Saint John, NB (at least according to one record) in 1852, further children born in Hants Co. in 1854 and 1856, then being in Salem in 1860, then again in Truro in 1862 to 1866 when the last child was born, and Wellington being a widow by 1871, passing away himself in 1884.

There are some discrepancies in all of the above. First, we have two birth dates for George, one based on his baptism record and Salem census as 1844, another, based on his marriage register and later census records, as 1848. The 1860 census matches the older birthdate. In the Salem records, we have an elder daughter Mary, and a younger daughter Sarah, who hadn't shown up anywhere else. We also have a Clarissa, b. 1850, and a Clara Amanda, b. 1852, but these may be the same daughter. So, in total, likely 13 children, including only one George, one Clara, also a Mary and a Sarah. Joan Jowsey stated that other than George and Elizabeth, we have no knowledge of any of the other children, and don't where they may have scattered to. However, Clara, Harriett and Adelaide died young and Ada, Wellington and Emma have been found in Mass.

On 7 Mar 1841 when Wellington was 23, he married Mary Ann Blois, daughter of William Blois (7 Jul 1790-27 Sep 1854) & Ann M. Fielding (26 Feb 1801-8 Dec 1828), in St. Paul's Anglican, Rawdon, NS. Born in 1824 in Douglas, Hants Co., NS. Mary Ann died bef 1871; she was 47.

Mary Ann Blois' mother, Ann Fielding Blois, died in a chimney fire in Boston when Mary Ann was 4. Her father remarried in Boston a year later, but it is entirely possible that Mary Ann was raised by Fielding relatives. This is suggested on account of the fact that in at least two occasions, informal records, unsubstantiated but nevertheless real, have indicated her to be Mary Fielding, and son George was named George Fielding Swet, suggesting a close connection to the Fielding family.

Note: Death of Wellington Sweet (b. Truro, NS), Feb. 2, 1900, Boston, MA, records parents as Wellington Sweet (b. Annapolis, NS) and Mary Blois (b. NS). NEHGS.

On 17 Nov 1884 when Charles L. was 23, he married Louise Warren in Jackson, Michigan.

The following info comes from information from Leonard Sweet who received the info from his first cousin Wilbur Walker, November 13, 1988. "Louise Warren Sweet Pickles was born in Adelaide(?) Australia. While a child her father died and she returned to England with her mother and brother Florence Star Warren 89 days on a sailing ship. Later, while still children they arrived in America and lived in upper New York state where her mother remarried a Holton and ultimately moved to Michigan. Louisa (christened Louisa, according to a family bible, but later adapted to Louise) met in Jackson, MI and married Charles L. Sweet. Their marriage produced 5 children, but when the oldest was about 10 years, Charles Sweet became enamored of a married woman, and left Jackson, Michigan, abandoning his family forever. Louise Sweet, married Samues Pickles and they lived both in Bowling Green, KY where Sama Pickles was involved in a stone quarry and in Jackson, MI. They are both buried in Fairview Cemetery, 1209 Fairview Avenue, Bowling Green KY. Site D-9."

Leonard Sweet continues: "From all indication, Louise and Samuel, were acquainted before they married, possibly through the occupations of both Charles Sweet, a contractor, and Sam Pickles, a supplier of building material, ie, white stone. And in the aftermath of the abandonment by Charles Sweet, Sam Pickles and his first wife, Annie adopted one of the daughters of Charles and Louise Warne Sweet, Violet. Interestingly, after Sam's first wife died, and he married Louise Sweet, Violet and her birth mother were re-united." (Phyllis Evans)

Family of Wellington Sweet (4) & Mary Ann Blois

13. Elizabeth Ann Sweet⁵ (Wellington², James¹). Born on 20 Nov 1841 in Rawdon, Hants Co., Nova Scotia. Elizabeth Ann died in Onslow, Nova Scotia, on 28 Jan 1891; she was 49.

The parents of Elizabeth, according to Grace (Groves) Butcher (1972), a granddaughter, were Wellington Sweet and Mary Fielding*. Elizabeth claimed her parents to be Wellington and Elizabeth on her marriage certificate. Grace had her listed as b. Salem, Mass., and she listed herself that way on her marriage certificate in Salem. However, the 1871 and 1881 Nova Scotia census list her as the wife of George Groves, being born in Nova Scotia. She was married in Salem, Mass. Aug. 6, 1861, according to the birth record's of two of her children, Norman and Agnes, as recorded by her. Elizabeth's age on the 1871 and 1881 census data suggest she was b. 1845, which matches the year suggested by her age at death in her daughter Minnie's bible (Jan. 28, 1891, aged 45 years). However, that would mean she was married at age 16. She claimed her age at marriage on her marriage certificate to be 18.

Her family had moved to Salem, MA for a short time between 1856 and 1862. She is recorded with her parents and family in the 1860 census of Salem (age 19 at that time). This is when she would have met George Groves, as they were married in 1861.

Her baptism record suggests she was born 20 Nov. 1841. This, I believe, to be the correct age for Elizabeth, making her 20 when she was married.

Wellington Sweet, the son of James and Elizabeth Sweet of Rawdon, who was married to Mary Ann Blois, dau. of William Blois and Ann Fielding, March 7, 1841, St. Paul's Anglican Church, Rawdon, resided and raised a large family in Truro. Wellington and Mary lived in Truro Heights on the McClure Brook. Their children recorded in the 1871 Nova Scotia census for Truro included George b. 1848 at Rawdon, Clara Amanda b. 1852, Harriet b. 1854,

Adelaide b. 1856, Ada b. 1860, Wellington b. 1862, Emma b. 1865, and Eber b. 1866. George Sweet m. 4 Mar 1869 at New Annan to Eunice Wortman. George was a farmer on Young St. in Truro until his death in 1900. They had a family of 13, including Hiram, Agnes, Wesley, and Clara.²

According to Janet (Nix) McDonald, there were other children not listed in the 1871 census, namely Elizabeth Ann, b. 20 Nov. 1841, George Fielding, b. 20 Aug. 1844, William McLane, b. 12 May 1846, Hiram, b. 7 Jan. 1848, and Clarissa, b. 28 Feb., 1850, as recorded in "Baptisms - Methodist Shubenacadie Circuit", from Ralph Whittier collection. This Elizabeth, based on age, parents names, sibling names carried into the next Groves generation(s), and all other evidence, must be the Elizabeth m. to George Groves.

Morning Herald, "Died at Onslow, Jan. 28, 1891, Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet, widow of George Groves of Onslow."

* From: John and Betty Butcher, Did some looking through papers from my mothers house and I honestly can't imagine where she got the information on the Sweet, Fielding connection. The information that you received in 1972/73 was written by Harriet Bell and that came from her mother Minnie. For example, my mother always thought Elizabeth Sweet was born in Salem. Mary Groves went to Salem and found that George and Elizabeth were married there but she was not born there. Both George and Elizabeth died so many years before my mother was born that everything she knew was passed down. Since the notes you received from my mother were written by Harriet I have to believe they were Minnie's memories. Actually all of Hiram's children were born after the death of their grandparents.

When Elizabeth Groves died in 1891 at age 49, her husband had already predeceased her two years before and their children's ages were 27, 26, 24, 22, 21, 19, 18, 17, 13 and 4. The younger ones can be found in the 1891 census as follows: Minnie Groves, 18, and Agnes Groves, 13, in the home of Joseph and Mary Snook and 7 children, Truro; Hiram Groves, 19, in the home of Caleb and Susan Lewis, Lower Onslow; Charlie Groves, 21, in the home of Jehiel and Mary Fulton, Lower Onslow; and Clara Groves, 4, in the home of Alonzo and Jane (Groves) Whidden, Lower Onslow, who was her older sister.

The names of James and Mary Groves were listed as parents on the marriage certificate of George and Elizabeth, in Salem, Mass., Aug. 6, 1861. However, her parents were listed as Wellington and Elizabeth, and Wellington's wife was Mary, so it is possible that the mothers names were switched on this marriage record, and James' wife was in fact Elizabeth. Records of James and Elizabeth Groves with son George have been found in London.

On 6 Aug 1861 when Elizabeth Ann was 19, she married George Groves, son of James Groves (1801-) & Elizabeth (1801-), in Salem, Mass. Born in 1826 in London, England. At the age of <1, George was baptized in Parish Of St. George, Hanover Square, Middlesex Co., England, on 25 Jun 1826. George died in Onslow, Nova Scotia, on 27 Aug 1889; he was 63. Occupation: Sea Captain, Farmer. Residence: Salem, Mass., Maitland, Clifton, Old Barns, Col. Co., NS.

George Groves was born in London, England, according to information from Grace (Groves) Butcher (1972), his granddaughter. England is recorded as his birthplace on 1871 and 1881 Nova Scotia census records. Harold Groves, a grandson, remembered that George was a sea-faring man and was away for long periods, usually bringing home a small keg of olives. He was married in Salem, Mass. in 1861 by Benjamin Knight, Clergyman, at age 35 (according to his age at census and at death, although his marriage certificate says 25). His occupation on his marriage certificate was "mariner", residence Salem. The marriage certificate also says Place of birth of bride and groom was Salem, although this was likely stated to facilitate the marriage, as it is doubtful that Salem, or even the US, was the birthplace of either. His parents were listed as James and Mary. The clerk at Salem City Hall suggested there was so much migration at the time, that few people gave accurate residence, birthplace, or age data. The birthplace of their oldest child, George W., ca 1864, was listed as Maitland on his marriage record. George Groves family was in Old Barns in the 1871 census and in Clifton in the 1881 census. He bought a farm in Onslow sometime in the 1880's. Harold Groves remembered visiting the farm with his father Hiram. George's occupation is listed as either Sea Captain or farmer on the marriage records of his children. His death is recorded in the Morning Herald, "Died at Onslow Aug. 27, 1889, George Groves, aged 63 years." This matches the record in his daughter Minnie's bible.

There is some discrepancy in the birth years of his children. The following birth dates were copied from the Bible of daughter Minnie Bell, from her daughter Harriett: George 1860, Melissa Jane 5-7-1861, Charles Edward 12-8-1863, Harriet Amanda 3-3-1869, Hiram Wesley 9-7-1870, Mary Amelia 2-21-1871, Norman Dexter 1-10-1873, Agnes 2-10-1879, and Clara 3-2-1887. The 1871 census records George age 37, Elizabeth 27, George W. 7, Jane 5, Charles E. 4, Harriet 3, Hiram 6 mos. The 1881 census records George 46, Elizabeth 36, George 16, Jane 15, Charles 12, Harriet 11, Hiram 9, Minnie 7, Norman 5, and Agnes 3. The ages listed on marriage records for the children seem to match the bible ages better than the census ages, except for the older children, George, Jane, and Charles. In those cases, the ages on marriage records seem to match better with the 1871 census ages.

George and Elizabeth Groves are probably buried in Onslow, although no headstone exists, or has ever been found in any other cemeteries in the area.

They had the following children⁶:

- i. George William. Born in 1864 in Maitland, NS. George William died in Onslow, NS, on 6 May 1894; he was 30. Occupation: Butcher, Farmer. Residence: Lynn, Mass., Onslow, NS. On 13 Nov 1889 when George William was 25, he married Sarah "Annie" Graham, daughter of Andrew Graham (1833-1926) & Marion Graham (1835-1892), in Truro By Rev. J. A. Kaulback. Born in May 1868 in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Residence: Census, 1900, 1910, 1920 - Lynn, MA. Their marriage certificate records birthplace as Maitland, NS, he bachelor, she spinster. Birth year is recorded in sister Minnie's bible as 1860, but census records would suggest 1864. He listed his age at marriage in 1889 as 23. Groves, George died 6 May at home Onslow, of inflammation of the lungs age 35 yrs, from the Presbyterian Witness Sat. May 12, 1894 Vol XLVII No. 19 page 152. Viola and Charles were born in Onslow (according to US census) but Arthur was born in Lynn, MA (according to his marriage certificate and 1921 census), so George and Annie must have gone there ca1892. George died in 1894 in Onslow (according to the Presbyterian Witness). After George's death, she must have gone back to Lynn, MA. Viola's census of 1920 suggests her year of immigration was 1894. Arthur, the youngest, ended up with Charles and Grace (Graham) Groves ca1897-1900. Grace was b. 1877 so she and Charles couldn't have been married until well after George had died (1894). Art was not with his mother in the 1900 US census but was with Charles and Grace in the 1901 Onslow census. They had the following children: i. Minnie "Viola" (Aug 1890-); ii. Charles E. (23 Feb 1892-1 Nov 1918); iii. Arthur Gordon (6 Apr 1893-1976). Annie remarried Thomas Ayer Lennon in 1896, had children Thomas (1897), Marjorie (1899) John (1902), Marion (1904), Abbie Winnie (1906), Verna (1908), Annie (1910) and Evelyn (1913).
- ii. Melissa "Jane". Born on 7 May 1865 in Clifton, Col. Co., Nova Scotia. Melissa "Jane" died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 27 Jun 1932; she was 67. Buried in Onslow Cemetery, Onslow, NS. Her birth year is listed in sister Minnie's bible as 1861, but census records and her birth year on her grave stone suggest 1865. She was married a day before her older brother George (Nov. 12 and 13, 1889), and a month before her sister Hattie (Dec. 16, 1889). Her father had died in August of that year. She listed her age at marriage

His birth year from age on marriage and NS census records of 1848 does not match the baptism and 1860 MA census records of 1844.

In the registration of birth of at least two children, the place of birth of George Sweet is listed as Salem, MA, but his marriage certificate says born Rawdon.

The children of this family seem too numerous, some birthdates overlapping. There must be some who are double-counted or for whom the dates are inaccurate.

On 4 Mar 1869 when George Fielding was 24, he married Eunice Wortman, daughter of Jacob Wortman (ca 1815-) & Elizabeth Murray (1815-), in New Annan, Col. Co., NS. Children from NEHGS and 1900 census, Everett, MA

In the 1920 census Henry, Ada and Percy Doughty are living on Egerton Road in Arlington, Massachusetts with Francis J Toye, Lillian, his wife and Phyllis, their daughter. Henry is listed as father-in-law, Ada as mother-in-law and Percy as brother-in-law.

In the 1930 census Francis, Lillian, Phyllis and two more children, Stanley and Ada are living on Ames Ave. in Lexington, Massachusetts. Also living with them is a Lillian R Weatheby, boarder and John C Doughty age 5, boarder.

In the 1930 census Percy is married to Marguerite with two children, Richard age 4 and Marguerite age 2. They are living on Albion Street in Somerville, Massachusetts.

I couldn't find Ada Doughty in the 1930 census, but I did find a Henry E Doughty age 66, born in England and working as a blacksmith living on Nichols Street in Everett, Massachusetts. His wife is Jenny age 55, born in England. The age is close for Henry, maybe Ada had died and Henry remarried.

I also found a Stanley E Toye born Nov. 23, 1920 and died May 7, 2005, buried in Westview Cemetery in Lexington, Massachusetts. He was a Captain in the US Army Air Force. This could be Francis and Lillian's son.

In Jun 1882 when Ada was 21, she married Henry E. Doughty in Somerville, MA. Born in 1861 in England. Occupation: Blacksmith. Residence: England; Boston, MA.

mayor. He had resided at 18207 74th St. E., Bonney Lake for 36 years. A three-term state legislator from the 25th district, Mr. Simmons was the driving force in Bonney Lake's incorporation after purchasing a large parcel of property there in 1947. The area, however, needed a fresh-water supply system, and Mr. Simmons fought for the water system soon after Bonney Lake was incorporated by launching a revenue bond issue. Mr. Simmons gained national attention in the 1930's when he filed the name of Boston Curtis as a Republican precinct committeeman for the 25th district. It was discovered after Boston Curtis was elected that the individual was a mule--a humorous stunt which later became known as the "donkey incident." Mr. Simmons, a retired real estate broker, continued throughout his lengthy political career to promote the town of Bonney Lake, continually pressing for new developments and improvements for the city. He was active in the Pierce County Democratic Party, was past president of the Puyallup Eagles Lodge and was past master of the Sumner Grange. He also was a member of First Baptist Church of Tacoma. Survivors include his wife, Bertha, two sons, Richard in Guatemala, and Ronald of Tacoma; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. (Tacoma News Tribune, Wednesday, Dec. 30, 1981)

Subject: RE: George Sweet

Hi Doug:

I have a bit more information about George Sweet. I think it would be the son George born in 1879. Alfred Dickie (Dickie Lumber Company) took a crew from Colchester County to Labrador aboard the S. S. Perkin, the first crew, to Mud Lake to work in the lumber woods. An article appeared in the Truro Daily News on September 9, 1902 saying the steamer S. S. Pekin had been wrecked off the coast of Labrador. (It wasn't wrecked but had gone aground at Harrington Harbour.) The article ends with: "A number of Truro people are aboard: Jerry Sherlock, George Sweet, Jack Fenton, Ephriam Fenton and Frank Robinson."

We are looking for the list of all passengers Our grandfather, Corey Taylor, and two others walked out of there 700 miles along the coast in the winter of 1903. He kept a diary and referred to one man as Fred and doesn't name the other. We are trying to find the missing link.

Thanks for any help you can give.

Subject: Re: Colchester County info on Sweet name

My great grandfather's name was Samuel "Burton" Sweet born in Kings County at Canada Creek. His wife was Alice Eaton from King County also. They moved to Goldenville, Guysborough County where they had about 10 children. Some of Burton's family were named: Charles, James, Bertha, Edwin, Alma, Ralph - who died in the 1st World War and is buried in Truro, maybe a connection there - and Goldie. One, Stubbart, was my grandfather. Burton's father was Leander Sweet. Their eldest son Rufus had many children who moved to the states. Some of Rufus' children are Victor, Prudence, Adellice, Zylpha, Alice and Caroline. Also, their son Edwin or an uncle named Edwin Saunders Sweet (families repeat names so many times) lived in Madison New York and are on the 1922 census. I believe there was lots of family living in the States when they moved there.

He and his wife moved to Gabriola Island in 1983 where they remain today (July 10, 2001). They are celebrating their 65th wedding anniversary on Aug. 25, the same day as Arthur's 90th birthday.

SWEET _ Arthur Fielding, late of Gabriola Island, B.C. passed away at the age of 91 on September 3, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Arthur Ellsworth Armsworthy was born on March 2, 1897, in Canso, NS, the oldest of seven children raised by William and Hannah Armsworthy. His father would also serve overseas during the First World War. Arthur spent his early years in Canso before moving with his family to Belmont, Colchester County at the age of 12. He spent his early adolescence working on the family farm before leaving the tranquility of rural Nova Scotia for the excitement - and danger - of the distant "great war". On Christmas Eve 1915, Arthur enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force. Thus began a three year journey during which Arthur would participate in several of World War I's most significant events.

Before departing for overseas duty, Arthur completed a will, dated July 12, 1916, bequeathing all real and personal property to his mother. Three days later, he boarded the SS Empress of Britain in Halifax, along with the other members of the 106th Battalion, Nova Scotia Rifles, for the perilous journey across the North Atlantic. On July 25, the ship safely docked in Liverpool, England, where the regiment continued to train in preparation for deployment in Europe.

On September 27, 1916, Arthur was transferred to the 26th Battalion (New Brunswick Regiment), the unit which he would receive all of his combat experience. When he reached the 26th in northern France on October 13, the battalion was on the move. As part of the 2nd Canadian Division, it has fought in the Battle of the Somme, which commenced on July 1 and lasted into November 1916. The first major Allied offensive of the war, its purpose was to break the stalemate in northern France.

By autumn, it was clear that the Somme offensive had failed. In the two weeks before Arthur's arrival, the 26th participated in two unsuccessful attacks on a section of the German lines known as "Regina Trench", near Courcelette, France. Relieved of front line duty in mid-October, the regiment was reassigned to a "quieter" section of the front lines between Arras and Lens, leaving a final, successful assault on the German position to the men of the 4th Canadian Division.

While the battalion's relocation brought welcome relief from the bloody combat of the Somme, their new location soon became the focus of another major Allied offensive. In the spring of 1917, Allied commanders developed plans for an assault in the Arras sector. The Canadian Corps was given the task of capturing the most well fortified German position, an area of high ground known as Vimy Ridge.

Throughout the spring, Canadian soldiers trained for an assault scheduled for early April. The 26th Battalion war diary describes the men "practicing over tape trenches", a model of the ridge - complete with markings indicating the location of German defences - laid out in fields behind the front lines. On April 7, training ceased and the men prepared to leave for the front trenches. The following day - Easter Sunday - Arthur and the men of the 26th were issued rations and supplies in preparation for battle, and by evening had moved into position in the "jumping off trench" assigned to their unit.

At 5:30 am Monday, April 9, the Allied artillery opened its barrage of the German front lines. Arthur and the men of the 26th Battalion went "over the top", advancing up the ridge toward the German front lines. Executing the "Vimy walk" they had so carefully rehearsed, they followed the artillery barrage as it "rolled" across the battlefield, trapping the enemy soldiers in their bunkers until the Canadians reached the German front lines. The battalion's war diary observed that "casualties in the attack were slight". Arthur, however, was among the wounded, struck in the right arm by a bullet as the battalion advanced toward the German front lines.

After receiving initial treatment at the 26th Battalion Field Clearing Hospital, Arthur was sent to England on April 14, arriving at the Clearing Hospital in Eastleigh, Hampshire the following day. After a stay of eight days, he was moved to the Fulham Military Hospital, St. Dunstan's Rd., London, where he spent a month recovering from his wounds. On May 25, 1917, medical records indicate that Arthur was discharged from the military hospital and sent to the Canadian Convalescent Hospital, Bromley, Kent for further rehabilitation.

On May 31, 1917, Arthur was discharged to the Canadian Convalescent Depot, where he spent an additional ten weeks recuperating before being assigned to the 13th Reserve Depot. He would pass the next twelve months in England with the 13th and the New Brunswick Regimental Depot, before returning to active duty with the 26th Battalion on August 22, 1918. Arthur proceeded to France the following day, rejoining the battalion in the field on August 28.

By this time, the war was entering a new phase. A major German spring offensive had been repelled, and Allied forces launched a successful counter-attack at Amiens in early August. By the end of the month, Canadian regiments were moving into position for a new assault on German positions in the Arras-Cambrai region. When Arthur arrived at the front, the 26th was once again on the move to Raillencourt, near Cambrai. After several weeks of rest and training in reserve, the battalion returned to the front lines on September 19.

In early October, the battalion prepared for a major attack on the German positions at Cambrai. Arthur and his comrades moved into position on October 8, and the attack was launched the following day. The battalion's war diary noted that a 5:30 pm advance was "held up by machine gun fire" that resulted in 4 fatalities and 78 wounded. Arthur was among the casualties, sustaining wounds to his neck, left thigh and left ankle.

Once again, Arthur was evacuated to England and admitted to the Barry Road Primary Military Hospital, Northampton on October 12. One month later, he heard the news of the armistice that ended the war at 11 am November 11, 1918 while being treated at Barry Road. On November 16, he was transferred to a regional hospital where he continued to recuperate and was discharged to a military convalescent home in Epsom on December 4. Two days before Christmas 1918, Arthur was released from hospital and placed in the 13th Reserve Battalion, where he spent the remainder of his time overseas.

On February 22, 1919, Arthur boarded the SS Belgic for the return voyage to Canada, arriving in Halifax on March 2, 1919 - his twenty-second birthday. He was discharged from the Canadian Expeditionary Force on March 22 and returned to the community of Belmont, Colchester County. In recognition of his military service in Europe, Arthur was awarded the British War Medal and Victory Medal.

Returning to civilian life, Arthur married Sadie Florence Brunt on December 24, 1924. They raised fourteen children on their farm in Belmont, until Arthur's deteriorating health led to their relocation to nearby Truro in the early 1950s. Arthur Ellsworth Armsworthy passed away on September 12, 1955, as a result of complications related to heart disease, and is buried in Belmont, NS.. He had participated in several of World War I's most significant events and twice recovered from severe wounds, a remarkable story of adventure for a young man whose life story began in Canso, Nova Scotia.
